Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Introduction

This concise report interprets the places of the planets at the time of your birth, describing your personal houses, sign placements, and planetary aspects.

These astrological delineations depict your potential and how to make the most of it, or the challenges you will continue to face and how to confront and benefit from them. Though you may change through experience, your inherent characteristics will still motivate how you act and react to circumstances. How you handle yourself is really a clue to your success, and it is up to you to make the "right" choices.

Here are the parts which make up your chart:

HOUSES: Govern sections of your life, e.g., your money, your health, your partners, etc. They are also meaningful as to where your early interests lie and if they are worth pursuing.

SIGNS: Contribute feelings or vibrations to "color" planets, e.g., MERCURY rules GEMINI and VIRGO and emphasizes their qualities of thought, travel, health, and work. JUPITER rules SAGITTARIUS and higher education, spiritual growth, and law.

ASPECTS: Are angles combining the planets in the SIGNS/HOUSES that trigger the manner in which you will be influenced or can handle your qualities to advantage, e.g., MERCURY (thought) TRINE (in good aspect to) JUPITER (education and law) may indicate that you can succeed as a counselor in legal matters.

A "Strength" number precedes each ASPECT interpretation towards the end of the reading. This number synthesizes how exact is the aspect, whether the aspect is major or minor, and whether an aspecting planet is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to live it out in your life.

You are most likely to feel and act out the sign and house placement interpretations when the planets involved are strong in your chart. This is true especially of the outer planets, Jupiter through Pluto.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Planets in Signs and Houses

Taurus Ascendant

(The Steadfast)

There is a look of substance about you. Others admire your thick hair, which may be curly or wavy. Though slow to anger, you may use force to defend yourself when aroused. You are resolutely stubborn, and generous beyond your means, to the point of being foolish. Others value your friendship and you are a welcome guest. You would rather be a "boss" than an employee, but will always give your best to a job, because you don't know how to do anything "half-way."

Sun in Aries

(Keynote: I AM)

You are self-sufficient, self-motivated, and self-confident, but can be self-centered and self-destructive. There is little that can deter you from your goals. Your numerous friends are supportive and follow your lead. But, you will make dangerous enemies if you are arrogant, conceited or selfish. Then, you may reach your zenith but will have great difficulty in holding your position. For all your self-reliance, partners are important to you. Take others into your consideration or you will find your "top of the heap" as lonely and unfulfilling as you, yourself, have made it.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Sun in the Twelfth House

(The Recluse)

Some view this placement as the result of a misuse of power in past lives, because you are unduly hard on yourself. Your over-active mind is impressionable. You may become a square peg in a round hole if you wear the mask of others as your own. You require periods of seclusion for rest and self-examination, because you question why "no-one" understands you. If you seek counseling, you may become a counselor to help others avoid the pain of your experiences. You, too, are deserving. Acknowledge that if you are your own worst enemy, you can be your own best friend.

Moon in Capricorn

(The Notorious)

You are usually cautious and realistically-discerning, but your ambition could place you in an unfavorable light if you are not entirely above-board in your dealings. The same self-assurance and executive ability that can bring you the prominence you desire can also attract the envy of others who would destroy your chances of fame. You appear to be austere, emotionless and calculating, and should develop lighter moods that allow your priceless sense of humor to emerge and make you seem more in sync with your peers. To be a leader of people, you must first let them see that you are one of them.

Moon in the Ninth House

(The Wanderer)

You are old beyond your years, so may find school a bore. When you exercise a talent for writing about foreign lands or ancient history, it is almost as if you had lived there in another time. Your dreams seem more mind-recall than fantasy. You may travel the globe in search of higher learning, but an inherent restlessness makes it difficult for you to stay very long in one place because you are forever eager to get on with your own involvement.

Mercury in Pisces

(The Unique)

Your uncanny intuition and psychic feelings must often be accepted on faith, alone. It is not easy to be "different." You may feel oppressed or fall into depressions that confound those who care for you. Learn to recognize "teachers" who will help you develop your special qualities. Then, find a proper channel to present your talents, even to those who cling to orthodox beliefs. Offer your uncommon gifts in the name of humanity on the altar of mankind.

Mercury in the Twelfth House

(The Investigator)

You excel in research, and do your best work in seclusion. You may depend on intuition for clues when your gift for practical analysis fails to unearth the answers you need. Keep your head on your shoulders, or your vivid imagination may color your sense of reality. Self-analysis can cause you to brood over too-serious thoughts. It might be better to consult someone else who is more objective, but chances are, you seldom feel like talking it over.

Venus in Pisces

(The Compassionate)

You often realize the needs of others before they ask your help and are on hand to volunteer your time, money and services for those less fortunate than yourself. Emotions overrule your practicality in most cases and sentimental compassion may override personal relationships. If you are "unlucky" in love, perhaps you should not sacrifice it on the altar of public charity, but also acknowledge the needs of those who care for you and deserve consideration.

Venus in the Eleventh House

(The Organizer)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

You are at your best working with groups of people and enjoy seeing that things go smoothly in meetings or social functions. As a committee head, you see both sides of every question so can arbitrate disagreements and keep peace in the ranks. As a fund-raiser, you are without equal. However, you may spend as much or more than you take in because of your determination that when you are in charge, everything will be the best and everyone will have a good time.

Mars in Aries

(The Fire-walker)

It is important to find productive ways of using your tremendous energies. You are as much a force for destruction as you are for the preservation of the ethics and ideals you stand for. Your aggressiveness is a two-edged sword that may turn against you if you use it impulsively or to "bully" those who might otherwise willingly follow your lead. You may be "number one", but must decide whether you will be remembered as a valiant leader or an ignoble oppressor.

Mars in the Twelfth House

(The Social Worker)

A frustrated desire for recognition may make you feel as though you were fighting a losing battle. You tend to be secretive and hold your troubles within, when the answer to your depression is the antithesis of your feelings. By getting outside yourself and involved in the problems of others, you may find that you are the physician who has healed himself by inspiring hope in those who lack courage to accept a new lease on life, which you both deserve.

Jupiter in Scorpio

(The Investor)

You may manage other people's time and money successfully. Your keen intuition and bent for speculation can help you create your own dynasty. You're apt to over-do or become self-indulgent. Make "moderation" your watchword to avoid unfortunate side-effects which can impair your health and rob you of the rewards of the charmed life you lead.

Jupiter in the Seventh House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

(The Alliance)

Whether your partnership is professional or personal, your mate must allow you room to expand. Your original intent may be that you can accomplish more as a team than as individuals. This works best if you agree to share quality, rather than quantity time together. Otherwise, your need for independence will soon split an otherwise productive pairing.

Saturn in Leo

(The Haughty)

You may have trouble in sharing all the love you have to give or finding the love you crave, and so allow an "I don't care" attitude to become a mask, under which you hide your true feelings. You can also substitute imperiousness for emotional rapport and again deny your basic needs. Try to go with the world instead of against it. You may find a way to turn your negatives positive and enjoy the spin instead of just becoming dizzy and wanting to get off.

Saturn in the Fourth House

(The Disciplinarian)

You may feel "stuck in a rut" because of a childhood filled with responsibility. Because of this, it is difficult for you to shed feelings you had when you were "stuck at home." At times, you may appear to be cold or too reserved. Others may assume your spartan tastes are a reflection of your deprivation. Upon leaving your family, try to put the past behind you and make a life of your own, unencumbered by the restraints of your formative years.

Uranus in Gemini

(The Clairvoyant)

Your facility to see clearly where others are perplexed separates you from the norm. You may obtain an education in unorthodox ways, but have the ability to distinguish yourself in the field of science, perhaps in space technology. Your "Buck Rogers" mentality will bring you some regard, but also can provoke criticism as being too eccentric to be practical. You may find a way to jar humanity from today's complaisant rut and into the expansive future of tomorrow.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Uranus in the Second House

(The Opportunist)

You are quick to react to sudden windfalls or calamities. Challenges cause you to re-examine your priorities. You are aware that "destiny" plays a hand in your affairs as the result of the course you have set, and that personal involvement demands change. You are not afraid to adopt an unconventional means of self-discovery or explore the unknown. You may choose a career in science or investigate astrology as a hobby--then make it your profession!

Neptune in Libra

(The Influenced)

You are subject to peer pressure which may not always serve your best interests. Because you are an idealist, you may be drawn into causes that are without substance. You seldom attempt anything alone, and prefer groups to a partner. If your dreams don't interfere with the reality of a material world, you can inspire others to adopt altruistic ways of living. It is your belief that what we have is not as important as our willingness to share it.

Neptune in the Sixth House

(The Sensitive)

You may suffer allergies or dietary problems that are difficult to diagnose from early childhood. You must be careful about ingesting drugs, even if they are prescribed by a physician. A tender heart may lead you to work for those less fortunate than yourself, either as a career, or an act of charity. Those who oppose you as "too good to be true" are envious of the satisfaction derived from your unselfish service. Ignore them and enjoy your good works.

Pluto in Leo

(The Agitated)

Your ability to keep things at a fever pitch needs careful regulating to avoid constant upheaval in your life and the lives of others. Your senses are keen. Use them to recognize a need for transforming human affairs. Take your place in bettering your environment by helping others to better theirs. It is preferable to accept the accolades of your peers for your good work than to indulge the self-aggrandizement negatively associated with your sign.

Pluto in the Fourth House

(The Martinet)

At best, you exemplify the iron fist in the velvet glove in your demands of your family and the structure of your home. A Victorian father would best describe the image you present to your children, who may eventually find your edicts absurd. We are often victims of victims. Practices of your parents may no longer be valid when you have outgrown childhood. Try to break any ties that keep you bound to outmoded ideas or policies that are no longer practical.

Capricorn Midheaven

You should find a career that takes advantage of your organizational ability. You work pragmatically and consistently, and pay attention to the little things that make a difference. You are very responsible in your career, displaying a high sense of duty. You are ambitious, but are willing to carry a large share of the load on your way to the top. Furthermore, you are not just a maintainer of the status quo or a reactor to events, but see in a clear-eyed way what needs to be done and will initiate action on your own.

Your choice of career typically displays an acknowledgement of financial and material realities. It may not be flashy, but it is secure and worthwhile. During your life, your patience may be tested by periods of loneliness, poor health, hard work, poverty, or problems with your marriage, children or aged dependents. You may feel that your road has been a lonely one without much assistance. If you give way to melancholy, you may become passive about your lot and suspiciously distrustful even of your friends. Alternately, stress can cause you to become cynical and ruthless. However, your greatest success will come in those areas where through long, hard work you complete tasks that others do not even attempt.

Occupations consistent with your material, ambitious style of work include executive, builder, real estate or agriculture worker, stockbroker, administrator, civil servant, computer scientist, academic, engineer, photographer, doctor, biologist, chemist, miner, metallurgist, or prolific author. For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the 10th house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of Saturn, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

North Node in Gemini

(The Whirlwind)

You try to stay so busy that personal commitment is impossible. If you take on more than you can handle, you cannot blame yourself for "failures." You feel your education is inadequate. True communication is never one-sided. Allow others to voice their questions and opinions while you prepare answers gleaned from the worthwhile knowledge you possess.

North Node in the First House

(The Individual)

You accomplish most when you "do it yourself," but this does not mean you are capable of miracles. First, you must know who you are and what you want; then how to make your plans work for you. You may be tempted to lean on others, but that will only weaken your ability. Refine your skills and learn to enjoy challenges, because your success-ratio is high.

Chiron in Scorpio

Chiron is a minor planet that orbits in between Saturn and Uranus. In the astrology chart, Chiron serves as a bridge between normal consciousness and higher consciousness. Chiron can bring limitations, but it is also connected with finding ways to overcome limitations, to heal and to grow. Chiron spends an average of four years in any one sign, so everyone born in the same years will have the same sign placement. Chiron's sign placement is most likely to influence your life if Chiron has many aspects or is near one of the four angles in your chart.

You are an intense person with great curiosity about everything. You are interested in what makes Life and the Universe tick. When you investigate something, you do so in an in-depth way, some would say obsessively. But when you do things out of love, that is always a positive motivation. People find your exuberance endearing.

Chiron in the Sixth House

Increased consciousness and inspiration can come to you through work, health issues, yoga, or animals. You could start your career early in life. This placement increases your career productivity. Try to strike a balance in your life between work and meaningful relationships. Too much focus on work and you will find yourself alone and feeling sorry for yourself. Know your limits when it comes to alcohol or drug use. You are a person who feels deeply. Others sense and respond to your authenticity.

Planets in Aspect

Ascendant trine BlackMoon (Strength: 7.52)

You can project a confident and headstrong or cocky image. There is a danger of alcoholism with this aspect. However, you can also be a genuinely nice and popular person who helps others. Your active career will go through many changes; it will have its ups and downs. Golf seems to be a popular hobby. A movie about an amazing runner with this aspect who died in a car crash after losing control was entitled "Without Limits," and that is a good summary of this aspect. Well-earned confidence is a good thing, but overconfidence can be very dangerous. Look up the meaning of hubris.

Moon square Neptune (Strength: 6.62)

(The Self-deluder)

You may daydream and not understand mood swings that come upon you suddenly. Others may think you "peculiar" if you express yourself as a psychic when you follow hunches that are generally undependable. If you become absorbed with your "powers," you may choose illusion over reality or become part of sects that use drugs in unhealthy rituals to increase awareness. You must learn to develop concentration and the ability to distinguish fact from fiction.

Ascendant opposite Chiron (Strength: 5.29)

You have little respect for limiting boundaries. You can be a forceful, controlling person with a sometimes prickly relationship with other people. The solitude of nature might appeal to you. You could overcome a physical disability.

Moon conjunct BlackMoon (Strength: 5.26)

A writer with this aspect wrote, "I am a camera with its shutter open, quite passive, recording, not thinking." This aspect makes you very observant. With your awareness of other people's distinctive mannerisms you could do impressions. You can mirror what society needs you to mirror. You can serve the valuable function of giving voice to what people feel. You make a good listener and a good mediator. You tend not to bring fixed ideas or pre-organised positions, but can help to improvise on the spot. Your ability for quick improvisation can make you good at certain sports. You may consider working as a consultant to help people become a public priority. You are likely to be kind to children and animals.

Neptune square BlackMoon (Strength: 4.95)

This aspect gives you mental sharpness. You are both quick and retentive. This mental sharpness combined with manual dexterity can make you a consistent and talented athlete or musician. You can be a fearless risk-taker. You are growth oriented and continually challenge yourself -- exploring new fields and reinventing what you do. You put your all into everything that you do. You work hard and you play hard. This is an aspect of mixed blessings. The blessings that it gives in the world can be offset by disappointments. It is not about being content and satisfied. Socially, you tend to be outgoing and charming. A comedian with this aspect was called "offbeat, racy, outrageous, and establishment-baiting."

Mercury trine Jupiter (Strength: 4.80)

(The Assertive)

You have big plans which you like to discuss with others. You exchange ideas and receive the support of your friends. Once clear in your goals, you'll have no trouble convincing others that you know what you're talking about and should be given a chance to prove yourself. You are an excellent salesperson or counselor. In either case, you have the attention of others who respect your opinion and enjoy from you a positive output which contributes to your success.

Mars trine Saturn (Strength: 4.43)

(The Pharaoh)

You are conscientious to a fault and put your energies into structures that will last. No task seems too difficult. You may set about early to build your monument, when your confidence is in the abilities of others rather than yourself. Take things slowly and without being overbearing or too forceful in your opinions or demands. You may be pleased with quality rather than the size of your accomplishments and appreciative of experiences gathered in achieving your goals.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Moon inconjunct Pluto (Strength: 2.79)

(The Uncompromising)

You are as hard on yourself as you are on others, never content with circumstances and often pushing beyond practical limits. You are sure you are right, when the truth may be that you act and react from feelings that are as changeable as the tides of emotion that overwhelm you. You challenge others by your attitude and will not hesitate to use privileged information about your opponents to your advantage, reasoning that the end result is worth any method to achieve it.

Chiron sextile BlackMoon (Strength: 2.53)

An architect with this aspect is known for his elegant and avant-garde style and for works which are personal, vigorous and original. The same can be said of the historians, scientists, businessmen, lawyers, mystics, poets, actors, politicians, and investigative reporters who have this aspect. You are likely to be handsome, graceful and generous. You also can be courageous and direct. You can speak out even when the ideas that you express are not popular. Growth and independence are important priorities. Both mentally and physically, you have speed and energy. A CEO with this aspect wrote that companies should maximise freedom and speed, and decision-making should not lie in the hands of the few. He also emphasises that individuals and small teams can have a massive impact on innovation. Men with this aspect can become bored very quickly. You could enjoy painting and become increasingly interested in the arts, including music.

Moon semi-square Jupiter (Strength: 2.51)

This aspect makes you a quick learner, so that you are able to do just about anything. You don't stay within your area. You tend to reach outside of your area and insert your finger into a lot of different pies. It is all because you absorb information so quickly that you have ideas, often good ideas, about how to do a lot of different things. Some non-astrologers may see you as a manipulative egomaniac. Others appreciate your playful intellect, wit, mischievous humour, and fascination with the details of life. You would be good at condensing everything important about a subject into a book. You tend to think clearly and to express yourself in clear language. Your original thinking is capable of evolving as you gain additional information, making your previous views obsolete. You can be on the forefront, ahead of your fellows. You insist that your work meet high quality standards.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Venus square Uranus (Strength: 2.26)

(The Trifler)

A search for excitement keeps you constantly on the go. Your flirtatious manner may not be acceptable to your companions, unless you have a partner who shares your love of adventure and freedom to explore. A great deal of flexibility is necessary for your unions to survive. If suppressed, your energy will demand undisciplined release, which is the stuff from which nervous breakdowns are made. Find positive expression in the creativity with which you are blessed.

Mercury semi-square Ascendant (Strength: 2.21)

You are probably slender. You have a lot of nervous energy. Travelling reporter would be an ideal job. You can be a prolific and witty speaker and writer. Your words don't always come out right. Occasionally you might say or do something that gets you into trouble. You tend to stay active and busy. You could enjoy dancing.

Mercury sesquiquadrate Pluto (Strength: 2.16)

With this aspect you think big and are capable of going to extremes. You get a thrill out of being on the cutting edge. You are fresh, innovative, and practical. You put your all into whatever you tackle. No half-hearted attempts for you. You will be thoroughly professional and dedicated to the team effort. You take risks, but they are calculated risks. Watch out that you do not binge on food or drugs. At the other extreme, you could over-react by becoming a fanatical jogger. Your body is not invulnerable. Keep it going by avoiding sugar and getting regular exercise.

Neptune sextile Pluto (Strength: 2.10)

(The Self-aware)

It is important that you have the support of your family and friends. You are extremely sensitive and subject yourself to self-criticism that can be destructive and depressing. It may be that you need professional help to build your self-esteem. Later, you may transfer your intense feelings into knowledge you share with others. You may pursue a career in psychiatry or psychology, but will continue to investigate your own psyche for answers as to what "makes you tick."

Sun semi-square North Node (Strength: 2.04)

With this aspect, success does not come easily. You must work to create the kind of life that you want. It will not be handed to you on a platter.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

Sun sextile Uranus (Strength: 1.93)

(The Changeable)

You are interested in "everything in the universe," adapt to new circumstances and absorb fresh ideas quickly, but are lacking in follow-through and self-discipline. "Up-front" in your attitude, you express yourself well as an individual. You can be a faithful friend, but your partners must accept your chameleon-like qualities. You see resistance to change as an intolerable restriction, since you view it as a key to improving your life and the lives of others.

Mars trine Jupiter (Strength: 1.85)

(The Positive)

You have a nearly-perfect balance between timing and action, which means that you see very clearly what must be done and do it! Because of your optimism, you easily gain the confidence of others. You are ambitious within reason and self-sufficient enough to take responsibility. In disputes, you often look at the larger picture, convince others of your good intentions and regardless of results, enhance your image of good sportsmanship, which earns you additional respect.

Moon sextile Chiron (Strength: 1.79)

This aspect links inner self (Moon) with growth (Chiron) in a constructive way. You have a great interest in human nature. You can be successful in dealing with the public -- the aspect gives you insight into the mind of the public, knowing how people think and what they want. Many occupations can draw upon this talent, from entertainment producer to law and politics. You could be successful as a therapist, such as a psychiatrist. You are probably close to your mother, who especially benefits you. You may have experienced a painful event in childhood. If your life is not working, an illness could mark the turning point, giving you a new perspective. You can benefit from collaboration and from advice, especially before making legal decisions. You have a good reputation for integrity. A U.S. President with this aspect said, "At the basis of all prosperity... lies the improvement of the intellectual and moral condition of the people." There is no limit on your capacity for innovative growth. You can be quite prolific and productive.

Neptune trine North Node (Strength: 1.67)

Victor Hugo's last written words were, "To love is to act." Perhaps you know what that means. This aspect gives you a great capacity for love. You are someone who can develop many wide-ranging interests. You are always growing. You could be a prolific writer, composer, or director who connects with people's emotions. In your creative work you try to achieve the maximum level of beauty. Your work demonstrates both high precision and feeling. You might be drawn to exotic or imaginative subject realms. In your life you could be attracted to the sea or to wild nature and its creatures. Initially, you could have no idea of what you want to do with your life. You do have a keen sense of how to appeal to what people want. Social and political injustices offend you and could motivate you to act. You display courage under pressure. You could tap into spiritual or paranormal powers. You love beauty and will be attracted to many women. You are likely to have several children. You can have a heightened susceptibility to chronic illnesses, including cancer. You have the respect and love of most people who know you.

Pluto square Chiron (Strength: 1.58)

You are an active, self-confident person who loves life. You keep yourself busy with projects. You are very direct and do not back down in a confrontation. You would be a brilliant reporter. You do what you want and are not a victim. You have no trouble keeping to a diet and are capable of living an ascetic, Spartan existence. You could be a boxing or wrestling fan. You will fight for a cause. You can bring about reforms. You don't like to compromise - you can be stubborn - but sometimes little compromises will get you the bulk of what you want.

Saturn square Chiron (Strength: 1.42)

This increases your activity level. You are not a passive person. Your activities will be devoted to investigating, learning, mastering, knowing, and controlling. Astrology appeals to the desire that this aspect gives you to have the complete picture. You are a thorough, careful researcher. You are quite resourceful. You need time alone with your thoughts and imagination. A critic could label you a moody, introspective control freak. But you are also an idealist. You could rebel against both your father and against bureaucracy. The main drawback of this aspect is that you must deal with self-criticism, paranoia, and fear. You can be somewhat distant and impersonal -- you regard even people as objects to be studied. You can battle a chronic illness. The end result of all your hard work and experience is increased consciousness. If you seize the opportunity, you have the ability to be ahead of your time.

Saturn semi-square Uranus (Strength: 1.34)

A passive life probably would not appeal to you. You have a need to be active and involved. You tend to be a perceptive realist and a straight-talker. You have a good sense of the direction in which affairs are headed. You tend to be practical, effective, and principled. The aspect bestows humour, patience, and calm.

Saturn sextile North Node (Strength: 1.23)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for David Letterman Concise Version

You tend to be a modest, soft-spoken perfectionist. When you learn something, you learn it well. You can acquire a technical mastery that you apply to creating new techniques and types of work. You are so resourceful that you are rarely at a loss for how to proceed. If afflicted by tragedy or disappointment, you tend to find solace in your work. You can handle a hectic and varied work schedule better than most. In your personal life, you have a tendency to act on romantic opportunities.

North Node inconjunct Chiron (Strength: 1.19)

You get attention by being original and unpredictable. You could be fascinated by the odd and macabre. You could earn extra money writing down your unusual thoughts. You could be the eternal optimistic gambler, always expecting the next one to be the big winner. You are able to channel a lot of inner power, but not always in a controlled way.

Venus sesquiquadrate Saturn (Strength: 0.92)

With this aspect, you have a scorn for half-baked rules and fuzzy sentiment. You push against normal boundaries. It can be hard for acquaintances to break through your emotional reserve. You avoid the social scene, preferring to be a homebody. You could have experienced some bullying as a child. You can apply remorseless logic to both organisational and personal problems. The aspect gives you administrative skill, drive, and control. You may eventually learn patience for people who are less than perfect. You can be hard on yourself. You could concern yourself with social policies. You could be a charming workaholic who is obsessed with music - especially if Neptune is strong in your chart. You can learn unconventional techniques through research and experiment. There can be a style to how you dress. You may be especially sensitive to criticism.

Midheaven sesquiquadrate North Node (Strength: 0.84)

There is some tension between you and authority figures. You are set on having your own distinct individuality within society. The active, creative force that is within you will carry you far. You can be an inspiration to others. You may have trouble limiting your own behaviour.

Jupiter semi-square Neptune (Strength: 0.82)

You are quick to speak your mind or point of view, often without being asked, which can cause resentment and aggravation with others. You enjoy challenge, particularly if it leads to self-improvement. If you direct your excess of energy constructively into what is really important to you, you can shorten your road to success.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Fire

You are an active, future-oriented person who is not weighed down by past commitments. You take advantage of new opportunities better than most. Life for you can be a vibrant affair in which you passionately pursue causes, lovers, and experiences. You have the self-confidence to be a leader. Competitive and flamboyant, you have little patience for slow people or unexciting work. When an activity interests you, you can be very generous with your time, energy, and money. Find outlets for your gifts of creativity and intuition.

Watch out for a tendency to exaggerate or to be insensitive to others' feelings. More cautious types may envy and resent your free spirit and competitive nature. You get bored easily and may depend on others to finish the projects that you start. When your warmth is guided by love, wisdom, and positive goals you have the ability to heal and inspire others, but when you focus on your self or lack direction, your short-lived passions can affect others in destructive ways.

Lack of Air

Expressing yourself does not come easily to you. You distrust people who are fast, smooth talkers. It may be easier for you to express yourself nonverbally or in writing than it is through speaking. If you also lack planets in the houses of Relationships, you will find the normal avenues of communication and social learning blocked. Your thinking will be personal instead of detached or rational. With the mind's normal communication channels blocked, you learn primarily from experience. Lacking in the ability to view yourself objectively, you gain self-understanding primarily through feedback from others.

Try to see life less personally, in a more objective way. Take classes and never stop educating yourself.

You are not afraid to show your feelings and make an empathetic listener to the problems and feelings of others. You have been around the track enough yourself to sense what others are going through and to show that you care. You are not the most intellectual or practical person. You can be easily swayed by an appeal to your emotions.

Lack of Substance

You are not the most grounded or practical person. The rules of this material world are not well known to you. Others may admire your dreams, but they could be impossible dreams. You may find it difficult to choose, plan, and work towards a career or vocation.

A lack of planets in the houses of Substance can be offset by abundant planets in Earth signs.

Lack of Relationships

Relating to other people probably plays a minor role in your life. You could remain unmarried, be a loner, or even be an orphan. Your thinking is probably subjective or personal, without the objectivity that comes from having communicated with many people. Let others teach you by showing you and if they give you any feedback on your thinking, see if you can learn from it.

Lack of Life

You could have difficulty envisioning or planning for the future. You are likely to accept the status quo, living in the past and present, but not actively striving to create the future. Lacking your own passionate goals, you are more likely to be a follower than a leader.

You have a pretty good grasp of how the real world works, which you may have acquired through your willingness to try new things. An active person, you find challenges stimulating. Success comes through big ventures that others are too intimidated to attempt. You would make a good entrepreneur, but look for other indications in your chart to see if you have the qualities needed to stay with a project or grow a business. You're not really a team player. You are likely to encounter some problems in your life as a result of being so one-sidedly focused on your own goals and activities. But you are good at overcoming problems. Personal survival is important to you and you are capable of learning. You manifest your love through a lack of fear that makes the future happen.
