Introduction

These are the transiting aspects that are within orb of your natal chart at the above time.

The following pages describe the transits that you will be experiencing here and now and over the coming period.

These pages can give insight into the challenges that you will encounter and the underlying lessons that they offer you.

There are literally hundreds of transits occurring for you each year, so this report focuses on those that are surrounding you now, including those which occur more infrequently, and therefore present the greatest challenges now and over the coming weeks.

The readings stress that you are the ultimate decider of your fate.

Astrology can give you a "weather report" on the energies influencing you, but it is up to you to decide how you will react. Some people can benefit greatly under normally difficult transits because they eagerly meet the challenge head on. Others will not benefit from the most positive transits because they did not pursue opportunities presented to them.

The longer interpretations of the transiting aspects are likely to be felt over weeks and some over months, whereas the shorter interpretations, over the next few days.

For a full transits report, order a monthly or quarterly day by day transits reading.

Transiting Aspects

Mars trine Sun: 0° 33' deg. orb, Separating

This is perfect timing for any athletic contest. Confidence is present without excess egotism. Physical love is satisfying.

Saturn trine Sun: 0° 34' deg. orb, Separating

Whatever you attempt to accomplish in life now will go more smoothly than at other times. You are able to plan ahead and take care of all the minute details that are necessary to ensure success. You deal with your responsibilities realistically and don't feel that they are a burden on you. Now is a time for getting a great deal of work done, and you will make great progress with comparatively little effort.

Opportunities for advancement may present themselves now, and you would be wise to take advantage of them. It is important that you make good use of this time of relative ease in order to prepare for more difficult times in the future. Your efforts and achievements will be recognised by others now because you truly deserve their praise. You are willing to work hard for what you want now, and others respect you for it. The contacts you make now with people who appreciate your work will benefit you in the future.

Saturn's trine to your Sun will help you prepare for the more difficult square or opposition to your Sun in a few years. The more you accomplish now, the easier this time will be for you. Wasting your energy now may not have an immediate detrimental effect, but you will realise later that you could have avoided problems if you had used this time more constructively. Seek the advice of older, more experienced people now. It's also a good time to resolve legal matters, since you can gain the respect of those in authority.

Now is a good time to build up your physical health and strength. Pay close attention to your diet and habits that may be destructive to your overall well-being. Again, this will help you avoid problems in this area in the future. All in all, this is a time for building up your own sense of security and for storing acorns for the hard winter ahead. Saturn only trines your Sun twice in its 28- to 30-year cycle. Make good use of the opportunities it brings.

Jupiter oppose Sun: 1° 07' deg. orb, Applying

This transit is usually a positive one, although it does have its dangers. You are likely to grow a great deal during this time, and you may achieve a certain level of success and be rewarded for your past years of preparation. The important thing is to remember when you are in the spotlight that material growth is not the only thing that matters. Many people have achieved "success" only to find they lacked the inner capacity to handle it.

There is the danger of overconfidence at this time, and perhaps even a little arrogance. Avoid a tendency to become rigidly opinionated (even fanatical) in your religious, cultural and educational views. Closely examine your motives to be sure you're not practising hypocrisy. Be sure to work on an equal basis with others for mutual growth. Working with others now can help you to clearly identify and express your own individuality. You can learn a great deal from others around you at this time.

This transit also brings the tendency to gamble or spend extravagantly. It is fun to indulge yourself and enjoy it, but also remember to keep track of your financial limits. You may feel so overconfident that you assume the resources you have access to now will always be there. However, such is not the case. Spend wisely and don't overindulge in drink or merriment.

Some people have problems with authority figures at this time. Again, you may tend to have a chip on your shoulder now, and those in a position of power over you are very tempted to knock it off. Be careful not to "bite off more than you can chew." Acting belligerent around police officers, for example, is guaranteed to get you into trouble.

Jupiter square Midheaven: 1° 18' deg. orb, Applying

At this time you will set high goals and try to achieve something of significance in your career. You are no longer content to maintain the status quo because your sense of ambition is more powerful than usual and you have the self-confidence to take on a larger task. In fact, one of the negative sides of this transit is the danger of an inflated ego.

You feel more competent than usual, and you will set your goals high. You are willing to work hard for what you want, even to the point of neglecting your home life. Be careful that you do not become overconfident and take poorly calculated risks. Also, avoid a tendency to promise more than you can realistically deliver. Pay closer attention to details than ever, since you are prone to overlooking them at this time.

You want more "elbow room" in your professional life, and you may want to change jobs or expand your business in order to achieve greater freedom of expression. Just be sure to stay within your budget—and keep it conservative. If you will exercise caution in your judgement, you could well achieve your goals with this transit. For best results, just be sure to develop a little self-discipline and keep your ego and overconfidence to a minimum.

Moon sextile Saturn: 1° 25' deg. orb, Separating

Emotional stability and calm enhance dealings with others. Accept domestic responsibilities with equanimity.

Chiron trine Jupiter: 1° 25' deg. orb, Applying

This transit will occur only twice in each 50-year cycle of Chiron. During this time you will closely re-examine your belief system (especially those parts of it handed down to you by your parents). You realise how your sense of confidence and optimism was stifled as a child. Your interest in religious matters may increase, or you may pursue your own personal spiritual path by exploring metaphysics and holistic health. This is an excellent time to go on a vision quest or pilgrimage of your own. You may have remarkable insights and even spiritual experiences under this transit. As you explore new concepts and ways of living, you'll find that you're increasingly tolerant of different cultures and traditions. You can see how many people can hold very different "truths" without anyone having to be wrong.

Events that occur now may cause you to closely scrutinise the beliefs your parents taught you. You seek more information on ideas that you previously considered too far out to be the truth. This is an excellent time to go to school or travel to broaden your view of the world; the experiences you share with others will help re-shape your belief system. Now is the time to decide what you truly believe. Look within yourself; avoid following a guru or other spiritual leader who seems to have all the answers. The more progress you can make toward healing childhood scars, the easier it will be for you when Chiron squares or opposes your natal Jupiter in a few years.

You're inspired to fight for global causes, such as world peace or environmental safety. You find meaning in each of life's daily events, no matter how insignificant it may seem. Once you learn to open your mind and embrace new concepts, you'll be amazed at how much you can learn. After these experiences you may consider becoming a teacher of some sort to share them with others. You could inspire others with your unique perspective on life and your willingness to see the good in everyone. You'll be amazed how easy your goals are to achieve once you've learned to appreciate what you already have.

Venus trine Jupiter: 1° 29' deg. orb, Separating

An easy, loving phase when laziness is the only danger. A romantic dinner satisfies. Artists enjoy recognition. Beauty attracts.

Neptune conjunct Venus: 1° 44' deg. orb, Separating

This transit will occur only once in your lifetime and will mostly affect your love life and your economic situation. During this time you will be more romantic than usual, and your interest in the creative arts, poetry and music will increase. You are more idealistic than normal now and may experience disappointments during this transit because people you meet do not live up to your expectations. Be careful to remove your rose-colored glasses when relating to others. As long as you are willing to see others for who they truly are (no matter how unpleasant this may be), you will avoid hurt and disappointment.

You will be more psychic now and may even have spiritual experiences or revelations during this time. You feel very loving and are compassionate and selfless toward others, and it would bring you much satisfaction to serve those who are less fortunate than you. Again, you must be careful to deal with others realistically. As long as you are willing to be a martyr to the needs of others, there will be those who will take advantage of your good nature. Learn to devote your time and energy to those who are also working hard to help themselves. Otherwise you may find that your energy and resources will become depleted by people who are ungrateful and presumptuous.

Since disappointment in love frequently occurs under this transit, beware of secret or clandestine affairs or of a partner who is overly needy. If you do form a new relationship under this transit, it is likely to seem perfect, like a dream come true. It would be best to wait until the transit has passed before making a solid commitment. You will see things more clearly then, so that your decision will be more firmly based on reality rather than being a result of fantasy and imagination. If you must make major decisions or form partnerships now, be sure you get all agreements in writing. This will lessen the chance of deception or miscommunication. Avoid stressful or highly negative situations.

In love relationships you may tend to overidealize your partner now and choose to ignore his or her faults. Be sure to deal with affairs of the heart realistically now in order to avoid disappointment in the future. This transit may even bring a new love interest into your life which has a very romantic, spiritual quality. If the relationship is based on reality, it will endure once this transit passes. No matter what the outcome, it will be a positive experience. Even if it does end, it will not be traumatic for you and you will be able to go on with no regrets.

Sometimes this transit indicates a time when you will enter into a highly spiritual love, one which has all the earmarks of a "soul mate" connection. If you form such a relationship during this transit and it endures once the effects have passed, you will know that it has validity and is not just a figment of your over-active idealism.

You are more unselfish in your relations with friends and loved ones and have a great deal of compassion for their needs. You enjoy sharing love now and are less concerned with getting your own way. This can be a very gratifying time as long as you are careful to give your devotion only to those who deserve it and will not abuse it. Whatever their attitude, you will grow from the experience of being able to give love unselfishly without looking for repayment.

Jupiter trine Uranus: 1° 58' deg. orb, Separating

This transit is known for being lucky, and always brings something unexpected. You feel like doing something out-of-the-ordinary at this time and want to explore new perspectives on life. You may feel the urge to travel and may have the sudden opportunity to do so during this time.

You may have new opportunities presented to you, seemingly from out of nowhere, such as money from the blue, a move to a better residence, a promotion, business opportunity, or a chance meeting with someone who contributes to your success. You may make exciting new friends or join a scientific, religious, occult, cultural or educational organisation which provides the support you need to achieve your goals. Whatever it is, it will require immediate action on your part and it will probably be a wild departure from your norm. You won't have time to sit around and consider the outcome.

Your mind is particularly sharp and inventive at this time. You may come up with innovative ideas that can be put into practice at a later time. Spiritual and metaphysical subjects are of great interest to you now, and you strive to incorporate these principles into your belief system and everyday life. Your intuitive and psychic abilities are heightened; it is a good time to practice astrology. Although this transit is known for its luck in gambling, this will not help you if you are already "unlucky" in nature. Be cautious if you gamble and don't spend more than you have.
