

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

Introduction

The following pages contain a brief evaluation of key elements of your birth chart, although it is by no means complete. Astrology can reveal many things about a person's life and personality, and you could study your chart for a lifetime without knowing the answers to all of your questions. The descriptions that follow will give you a "thumbnail" introduction to yourself through astrology.

In interpreting your chart, this report considers the sign of the planets and the north node in your chart, as well as their house placements. It also describes the sign of the Ascendant and the strongest aspects between the planets.

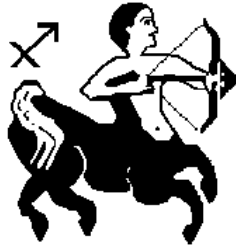

You may note that some of the following descriptions appear to contradict each other--and indeed we are all walking bundles of contradiction. If you examine yourself carefully, you will probably realize that you do in fact possess the qualities of both conflicting descriptions. Even though some parts of the reading may seem to clash, you will see that certain themes are repeated throughout the following pages. These are the themes that will become major issues in your life.

The readings stress that you are the one who ultimately decides your fate. The stars may indicate the hand you were dealt at birth, but it is up to you to play that hand well enough to achieve your goals. Also, bear in mind that every "bad" aspect of a chart also has a "good" side. How it is expressed is really up to you. We tend to work at expressing ourselves more positively most of the time and only lapse into the negative behavior described when depressed, angry or scared. Or it is possible that some aspects may better describe your personality or behavior earlier in life. They may seem alien now because you have already worked through them.

A "Strength" number precedes each aspect description; this number takes into account how exact the aspect is, whether the aspect is a major or minor one, and whether one of the planets in the aspect is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to act it out in your life.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Sagittarius Ascendant

You are open and friendly, and your response to others is spontaneous and sincere. Although at times others may see you as downright blunt and tactless, you are just seeing things philosophically rather than personally. If you can cultivate a little diplomacy, you will do well in public relations, sales or promotion. You are an especially persuasive fast-talker.

In your work you are very organized and would be good at administration and planning projects. But you need to delegate the more routine tasks to others. Getting caught in a maze of little details can be frustrating for you, and you could develop a "who cares" attitude. Your worst habit is making too many commitments and then indulging in prolonged procrastination.

You hold firm spiritual beliefs and are a pioneer of new thought and ideas in this area. At the very least you have a philosophical outlook on life and are constantly looking for those elusive universal truths that explain why we're all here. You feel very good about yourself and are able to inspire self-confidence in others.

You love to socialize with friends and may even engage in a little gambling. The more fire you have in your chart, the less chances you should take on gambling. Your confidence that nothing can go wrong is the main reason why you should not gamble excessively.

Physically, Sagittarius Rising is usually tall and slender with a slight tendency to stoop--perhaps because you grew so quickly as a child. You have long arms, legs, hands and feet. Both men and women are generally large-boned and have a wide hip structure. Your hair is usually abundant and wavy, but men tend to bald early. Problem areas are your hips and your liver. You tend to indulge too much in food and drink.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

In romance you generally are likely to be less impulsive than you are in other areas of your life. You have a healthy attitude toward sex and would prefer to "do what comes naturally" rather than plan an encounter down to the last detail. You have a great deal of physical stamina in sex and should choose a partner of similar bent.

Sun in Cancer

Natives of this sign are known as "moonchildren," and their wildly fluctuating moods seem to coincide with the phases of the moon. As with all water signs, there is a tremendous depth of emotion with Cancer. In times of sadness or despair, you may retreat into solitude just as a crab retreats into its shell. At other times, you can display another trait of your namesake--crabbiness.

Cancer has a natural desire to understand its emotional make-up. You engage in self-directed psychoanalysis, striving to feel every detail of life. This is Cancer's purpose in life--to learn to love, trust and accept all that life offers. No sign feels so intensely as Cancer, although this may not be obvious to others. You may set up defenses against being hurt, such as acting shy or being a recluse.

You have a strong need for security, and a comfortable home environment is of utmost importance to you. The security you seek can be found in the knowledge that you are unconditionally loved. You also like to surround yourself with mementos and other reminders of your past. You use your resources wisely, knowing that to waste not is to want not. Like other water signs, Cancer can be manipulating. You never go directly for something (or someone) you want, but once you have it, you will never let it go. Cancer can exercise artful control of feelings--his or her own or those of others. The Moonchild truly needs to be needed, and can provide loads of nurturing and mothering in return.

The threat of becoming emotionally vulnerable in relationships can dissuade Cancer natives from falling in love. But once they make the big leap, they become very protective of those whom they love. But be careful not to become a "clinging vine" in relationships. Anyone who is strongly independent would feel smothered by your love and would try to break free.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You can be very secretive, and few people will ever witness you pouring out your deepest, darkest feelings. Yet others will unload their secrets on you and seek your compassion and understanding. You may even have a talent for healing or a green thumb with plants.

Physically, Cancer natives are more vulnerable to injuries or illness in the chest region, the head and face, knees, and skin. Other trouble spots are the stomach, digestive system, kidneys, and bladder. A strong sense of optimism will do wonders for their health.

Sun in the Eighth House

This house placement of the Sun gives you Scorpio qualities, whether you have any planets in Scorpio or not. You understand that your life is one grand transformation after another, and you accept that this is how it should be. Others may consider you to be a very serious and intense person. As a child you probably shocked adults with your deeply probing questions and wise comments.

As a child you may have had trouble telling the difference between what was yours and what belonged to others, and you grew up with an appreciation for money and private possessions. As an adult, you would do well in a career that involves handling others' money or property. Responsibility in the handling of material resources is a lesson you learned early in life.

Sexual expression and physical intimacy are very important to you. You can read more from a partner's tender embrace than from a long conversation. You rely more on your gut level emotional "vibrations" than on intellectual discourse when "feeling out" your partner. You always enjoy being the one in control in any relationship and must be careful not to manipulate your partner into a submissive role.

Persons with this house placement often are attracted to lovers who are many years their senior or junior. In this type of relationship, the younger partner benefits from the acquired knowledge and experience of the older. Whatever partner you choose, your relationship will be characterized by intensity and depth of emotion.

Moon in Scorpio

Your emotions are very intense, and you often fluctuate between extreme love and hate, sadness and happiness, etc. It is difficult for you to totally understand your own emotional make-up because of its depth and complexity. As a matter of fact, those friends, lovers and family members who are closest to you probably know you better than you know yourself.

In your relationships with others you can be very possessive and jealous, and you can become very cruel and vindictive if you are hurt. You never forget a wrong that someone has done to you, and you will plot and plan--for years or decades, if necessary--to seek your revenge. You often carry many such memories from childhood, and your entire life can be devoted to avenging the scars on your psyche from the many wounds you suffered during your early years.

Although you are intensely emotional, you project a perfectly cool exterior at all times. It is difficult, though not impossible, for you to undergo emotional growth with Moon in Scorpio. The strength of your emotions is too overwhelming to you, so that you are afraid to face the intensity within you. So you live a life of secrecy and mystery, which makes it hard to establish many meaningful relationships.

People with this Moon placement often achieve success in life, but often success brings more problems than failure. The issue of power over others (or others' power over you) is a strong one in your life, and it is probably rooted in your relationship with your mother. Although you may realize your dreams in this lifetime, you will also lose everything unless you learn the proper use of power. Do not use others to achieve your own selfish ends. If you do, you will live to regret it.

In your personal life, you have an ability to see through others' pretenses and find the truth underneath. You can use this talent in your relationships to identify and correct problems; just be sure to do it benevolently instead as a manipulation. Sex is a very intense experience for you, and it is a valuable method of communication with your lover. Just be sure your lover is looking for the same intensity that you are; some people may find it too much to handle.

Moon in the Twelfth House

It is not easy for you to reveal your feelings to others, because you are afraid they either will not understand or will disapprove. This refusal to share your inner self with others probably caused problems for you as a child, but as you grow and mature you learn to accept yourself more as you are, and this allows you to be yourself.

You constantly pursue emotional security while at the same time believing that you will never achieve it. You are always afraid that others will disappoint you and abandon you in your hour of need, but this is not necessarily true. Even though you may not trust people easily, you do enjoy helping others. You may not see yourself as a generous, compassionate person, but you are.

You have a natural talent for seeing a situation through another's eyes and can therefore understand their feelings more easily. You go out of your way to avoid emotional stress, and you would never intentionally hurt another. You are really a very kind and loving person, whether you know it or not.

It is likely that you daydream a lot and escape to a fantasy world when real life gets too ugly or difficult for you. You are very truthful in your relationships, and as a matter of fact may be too truthful at times when it might be better to spare your lover's feelings by being too blunt. You would never do this intentionally; you are just telling the truth. Casual affairs are of no interest to you; you require more depth.

Mercury in Leo

You are very self-confident about your mental abilities, and you are an articulate and convincing speaker. You are highly creative and have your own distinctive style of expression. Since not everyone is as talented or confident as you are, you need to allow them to express themselves in their own way. One challenge of Mercury in Leo is to develop patience with others who seem slow or not creative.

Although you are happiest when others are admiring and praising you, at times it is best to learn a little humility. Otherwise, you will encounter disturbing surprises in your interactions with others which will "shock" you and force your attention away from yourself. With Mercury in Leo there is a tendency to be arrogant and demanding. Remember that you are not the only player on the stage of life, and every role is as important as your own because without any one of them the play is incomplete.

Since you are often overly absorbed in yourself and your own view of life, it is difficult to get your attention long enough to make an impression on you. You take in only the information you feel will be useful to you and reject the rest. For this reason you are not very observant and need to develop a greater attention span and eye for detail.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

Your reactions are usually slow, not because you are stupid, but because of your lack of interest in things which are not about you.

With your strong sense of self-confidence, you are a natural public speaker or writer and can present your ideas clearly. In discussions with others you will attack any statements that seem irrational or contradictory. You love to travel and are enthusiastic about life. With your ability to inspire children, you could be a great teacher.

Mercury in the Ninth House

You love travel and have an intense curiosity about foreign lands and cultures. With your highly creative mind, you may become a writer or work in the publishing field in some way. You have strong philosophical and religious beliefs, and you will eagerly share your views with others. You have a natural talent for grasping abstract ideas and communicating them to others.

Venus in Gemini

You are charming and witty, and you have a smooth way with words. Because you filter your emotions through your mind, you have the ability to stand back from a situation and look at it objectively. You have a talent for expressing your feelings in writing or public speaking. As a host or hostess you are quite attentive.

Although you enjoy the fun and excitement of falling in love, you are at the same time intimidated by the obligations it brings. Because you tend to change your mind without warning in romantic matters, you may at times appear fickle to others. You need to learn to stand your ground more firmly and be clear about what you want and need.

You are highly sensuous and enjoy the finer techniques of courting and making love. Verbal affection and communication are important ingredients in any major relationship, and you don't mind being "sweet-talked". Sexually, your touch is soft and gentle, and your sexual curiosity is unlimited.

Your love nature constantly changes, and you are very unpredictable in this area. It is necessary that your partner interest and excite you. If you get bored with the affair, you will certainly move on to more stimulating options. You may entertain fantasies of having two lovers at once. Traditionally, this placement of Venus indicates multiple marriages.

Venus in the Seventh House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You have a friendly and loving nature, and you are happiest when you are in a relationship. You are more interested in achieving harmony than in dominating your partner. Traditionally, this placement of Venus indicates that you will have a happy marriage and that your partner will be attractive and/or wealthy. With your keen sense of give and take, you would be an excellent diplomat or peacemaker.

Mars in Libra

With Mars in Libra, you prefer peaceful social exchange rather than hot-tempered disputes. Yet, you also seek constant balance by arguing both sides of any situation. In an effort to survive in a world that is often less than peaceful, you must develop the art of negotiation and compromise. You are a natural at working in harmony with a team toward a common goal.

Since you are quite charming, you can often persuade others to see your side without having to resort to argument. You are highly intuitive and seem to know just how to "hook" people with your charm. Although you really don't want to manipulate or control anyone, all is fair in love and war.

You seek a certain amount of refinement and social grace in your partner. Appearances are important to you, and you are concerned about what others think of you. It is likely that your partner will be physically attractive as well as poised and tactful. You are very attentive and will go to extreme lengths to please your partner.

You often instigate change in your relationships and become bored quickly with any that become static. Just be sure that you do not provoke change just for the sake of change; learn to recognize which elements of your relationship should be preserved and which should be thrown out. It is important to you that any relationship you have maintain a quality of fairness.

Mars in the Eleventh House

You enjoy getting together with friends to share a sport or other physical activity. You pursue friends who are independent and who have goals similar to yours. Because you are sometimes intolerant of beliefs which are different from yours, you are not the easiest person to relate to. From the karmic debt viewpoint, your circle of friends contains many enemies from past lives with whom you must learn to cooperate.

Jupiter in Cancer

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You are good-natured and attempt to get along with everyone you encounter, and for this reason you make a good mediator. With Jupiter in Cancer, you have good financial judgment and may benefit through inheritances. Since you have a talent for accumulating money and possessions, you are often generous with those you love (unless Jupiter is afflicted, in which case you should avoid being stingy). This placement of Jupiter often indicates weight problems.

Jupiter in the Seventh House

You are friendly, good-natured and tolerant of others, and you will learn your most valuable lessons through relationships. With your strong need for personal freedom, it is not easy for you to settle down with one partner. You may benefit materially through partnership or marriage. Traditionally, Jupiter in the Seventh indicates you will have a happy marriage, even though it may not be your first.

Saturn in Leo

You are extremely well-organized and efficient, and you work hard to develop your creative abilities to the fullest. Avoid a tendency to become a perfectionist and to look down upon those who are less talented. Others probably see you as conservative and unfeeling, and in reaction to your own insecurities you may become a loner. You may become a workaholic in an attempt to gain respect and achieve recognition. One of your greatest sources of growth will be through putting the needs of others before your own. Learn to help others shine, while you stay in the background.

Saturn in the Ninth House

You are meditative and self-disciplined, and take your rather conservative beliefs very seriously. Although at first you may only be willing to believe in what you can touch and see, as you mature you will begin to consider the validity of alternative philosophies, such as the metaphysical sciences. With your respect for education, you would be an excellent teacher, writer or lecturer.

Uranus in Aquarius

You are an original, progressive thinker and can easily comprehend the most abstract concepts. You are highly creative and intelligent, but you are content to work behind the scenes to achieve humanitarian goals. You are interested in metaphysical sciences, including astrology, which is ruled by Aquarius. To avoid problems brought about by poor circulation, you should exercise regularly.

Uranus in the Fourth House

Your relationship with your mother is very unusual; this has deeply affected you emotionally, whether good or bad. There were probably many sudden changes in your early life, and you may have changed residences often. If Uranus is afflicted, you may have suffered a disruptive or broken home early in life. Perhaps one of your parents was absent during your youth or is very unusual and eccentric.

Neptune in Leo

(1914-1928)

You are creative and outgoing, and your optimism gives you a natural ability to lead and inspire others. You have a deep need to be appreciated and are highly susceptible to flattery. The lesson of Neptune in Leo is to sublimate the ego by putting your desires second to those of others.

Neptune in the Ninth House

You are idealistic and highly intuitive. You are interested in philosophical, spiritual and mystical studies. With your strong sense of compassion, you are kind to all living things. You long to travel and are fascinated by foreign lands and cultures. Avoid a tendency to become fanatical about your beliefs, for this could impair your good judgment. Avoid a tendency to exaggerate.

Pluto in Cancer

(1914-1939)

Your generation saw many changes in your family life brought about by war, poverty and the women's movement. National pride and a strong work ethic dominated society. You are strongly intuitive and psychic, and you have a strong desire for emotional security.

Pluto in the Eighth House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You are deeply interested in psychic and metaphysical subjects and may have clairvoyant abilities. Your relationship with a marriage or business partner may cause financial difficulties. Can indicate possibility of inheritances. If Pluto is afflicted, you may suffer financial losses as a result of your attempts to manipulate and control others.

Leo Midheaven

You are willing to put energy, dedication, high ideals, and sustained effort into a career. The causes that you adopt will benefit from your understanding of promotion and publicity. Often found in positions of authority, you like to deal with big causes and big people. The image that you present in your career must be an image of which you are proud, which can make you either a charismatic leader to be admired or an authoritative tyrant to be resented.

Develop the confidence to allow your creative energy to flow. You can be the leader with the exciting ideas on which others depend. You are rarely found in a career situation in which someone else is dictating the hours. You can bring much joy to others by giving generously of yourself. But this will not be in an unassuming way, for you do like to stand out from the crowd. If you have a weakness, it is to cling to your beliefs or an inflated self-image even in the face of obvious failure. A wise gambler knows when to hold his hand of cards and when to fold them.

Occupations consistent with your dramatic style of work include actor, producer, executive, sports personality, politician, entertainer, fiction writer, leader, entrepreneur, minister, promoter, artist, or diplomat. For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the tenth house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of the sun, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

North Node in Sagittarius

You have a very active imagination and a sharp mind. In past lives you have been curious and restless, and you never developed an ability to concentrate. In this lifetime you will face your resistance to committing yourself to anything (or anyone). You will learn to set future goals and to develop deep philosophies about life, all while undertaking a quest for higher knowledge. Instead of living life as superficially as possible and avoiding commitment, you will search for your role in the greater universe.

North Node in the First House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

In past lives you have depended on others who were untrustworthy; in this lifetime you will learn to become more independent. You must make your own decisions now and find your own path in life. Since it is impossible to please all of the people all the time, you must concentrate on learning to please yourself. Eventually, you will learn to balance your needs with those of your partner.

Chiron in Aries

You are very courageous, and you enjoy venturing "where no one has gone before". In order to develop your strengths to their fullest, you tend to push yourself to go beyond what you know you can handle. You love being physically active, and will become very restless if required to stand still for very long.

Chiron represents the deep wounds we've all suffered in life which seem nearly impossible to heal. In the sign Aries, it indicates that for you this wound was connected to your early upbringing, which was probably filled with conflict. This may have stifled your sense of self-confidence and spontaneity, so that you had to rebuild it as you matured.

Chiron in the Fifth House

You are very charismatic, and people tend to follow your lead when decisions need to be made. Because you pursue your career with devotion and enthusiasm, you can usually stay ahead of any competitors. You're highly creative, and your work is unique with a free style. You don't follow fads, you set them.

As a child, you probably felt that your creations were not appreciated, and perhaps they were even ridiculed. As a result, you may have been afraid to share your inventions with others. As you learn to create for yourself, rather than for the approval of others, you'll heal these childhood wounds and develop greater self-confidence and spontaneity.

Planets in Aspect

Mercury conjunct Saturn (Strength: 6.73)

You are a serious thinker and are well aware of your responsibilities in life. Your childhood training instilled you with these qualities, and you can use them to make the most of your time and resources. You learn a great deal from your everyday activities and see a larger meaning behind the mundane occurrences in life. Your mind contains a wealth of information which you continually supplement as you mature.

Although you are a very patient and understanding listener, you are careful about stating your own opinion in life. You do not speak out unless you are sure of your information. It is quite likely that you will succeed in life because you are able to carefully plan every step. However, you must guard against a tendency to become pessimistic or even depressed.

In your career you would do well in education, politics, drafting, architecture, engineering, conservation, or mathematics. It is necessary that your chosen occupation present a challenge; otherwise you will eventually become bored with it. If you feel that you are appreciated, your contributions to your work are enormous. You work best on your own so that you are not distracted by others. Because you are honest and sincere, your supervisors will be able to rely on you to do your best. You are willing to work hard for what you want.

You need a close friend in whom you can confide. Since you tend to be shy, pick someone you know you can trust. You suffer physically from extreme pressure and tension and must be careful to unwind periodically--even though it may appear to you that you are wasting time. Learn to laugh at your own mistakes and shortcomings.

In your love life you need a partner who is trustworthy and whom you can respect. You hold traditional values regarding affairs of the heart and seek a lover who is sincere, honest, and responsible. You seek a relationship that is secure and, because you are traditional by nature, will resist change unless you are convinced it is for the better.

Moon square Midheaven (Strength: 6.66)

Your emotions are very intense, and at times it may seem that you are ruled by your moods and feelings. You do not hide your emotions very well, and those closest to you have probably learned to give you lots of space when you become temperamental.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

In both your personal and professional lives, your emotions often are in conflict with what others need or expect from you. Before you react defensively, closely examine your motivations. Are the demands from others really so unreasonable, or do you just want everything your way? Would you still consider it unreasonable if the situation were reversed?

In time, you will learn to maintain your individuality while living in cooperation with others. When your mind and heart are working together harmoniously, you're much happier and successful in all your relationships.

Midheaven trine North Node (Strength: 5.56)

You handle responsibility well. You could be a natural organiser. This aspect makes you genial and professional. You are alert to your surroundings. You will probably travel and meet many people in your life. You have a shrewd understanding of the public. You should have a long and durable career. You could belong to associations and be honoured for your contributions.

Neptune trine Ascendant (Strength: 4.74)

This aspect indicates that you are highly creative and intuitive, and perhaps even have psychic ability. Since an early age you have been interested in occult and metaphysical matters, and you attract others to you who share these interests. You are always trying to live up to the ideals you set for yourself, but this is never easy. You pay too much attention to what you perceive as your faults and instead should emphasize your positive traits.

With your tremendous creative abilities, you would find great satisfaction in any field which allows you to freely express your ideas. Because of your deep sense of compassion and sensitivity, you would also work well with children and young people, who would be inspired by your example. You recognize that the world has its problems and you want to do all you can to help bring about improvements.

Because of your kind nature and your dedication to helping others in need, you will always encounter those who will seek to take advantage of your good nature. In your personal relationships you insist that those whom you love live up to the same ideals you set for yourself. For this reason, it is difficult for you to form a lasting relationship. No one is perfect, and especially not all the time. The more you can appreciate the good qualities in someone instead of criticizing their faults, the more you can relax and enjoy their company, and they can relax and enjoy you.

Mercury semi-square Jupiter (Strength: 4.15)

This aspect opens your mind to new ways of doing things. You have the mentality of a student. A fruitful mental tension exists that makes you creative. You are good at organising information. Your senses are particularly acute and your reactions quick, which can help you in certain sports. Unless you get emotional, you tend to interact with people in a modest, polite, and thoughtful way. You can be wonderful with kids.

Venus conjunct South Node (Strength: 3.99)

With this aspect, you do not live a solitary life, but rather are active within your community. You tend to be gregarious and popular. You are probably good-looking and well-dressed. You could have many friends and collaborators. Look to the other aspects to Venus for how emotionally happy or troubled you might be. You may have been a bit of a troublemaker or prankster when you were young, but that is healthy. You will go your own way in life and seek out challenges. You don't look for the easy, but prefer the complex and the grandiose.

Moon square Mercury (Strength: 3.93)

You are very sentimental with those whom you love and with prized possessions. You often feel unappreciated, no matter how much you try to please those you love. In a way, this is a selfish attitude. You need to do things for others without expecting an equal return. You can get too wrapped up in yourself.

Your judgment is not always sound because you allow your feelings to interfere with your clear thinking. It is impossible for you to be impartial on anything, because you are overly sensitive. Fact and fiction seem to blend together at times and are hard for you to separate. You may have misunderstandings with others because of your paranoia about not being accepted.

Once you have learned to deal with these parts of yourself, you will be able to relate to others more easily and establish sound relationships. You would work well with children, as a teacher or counselor.

You don't like to be criticized and often feel that others are putting you down. Before reacting to this supposed criticism, examine whether in fact you are only being asked to back up your emotions with logic.

You are much more secure with those close to you than with strangers or new friends. You get along well at home but do not make outside friends easily. You don't like to have to adjust your life to accommodate others. You are stubborn and defiant when your opinions are challenged. Relax! The world is not against you. Try giving some of the sympathy and understanding that you are seeking.

Moon sesquiquadrate Pluto (Strength: 3.20)

With this aspect, you live for the struggle of a good challenge. You live to outwit or outlast an opponent. You study how to do so with intelligence and with the intensity of a cat at a mouse hole. Your friends and fellow employees tend to rest assured since they know of your thorough preparation and your strong spirit. The biography of an award-winning investigative reporter with this aspect said, "When he is not beating the bushes for issues to attack, he is making ferocious moves on the tennis court." You can develop a high-level mentality, one that lets you see the big picture. You could have life-changing insights. People tend to celebrate your victories with you when your skill and hard work is combined with dedication to truth and honesty. You can then be an inspiration and a teacher. When you are young, you could be blind to your obligation to your community and could regard the thrill of outwitting the authorities as high adventure. In that case, your ignorance will bring on the corrective education that you need.

Moon sesquiquadrate Chiron (Strength: 2.68)

This aspect expands your connection with the common man, with the public. Sympathetic, with a good-natured charm, you would be good at developing or advertising products for the masses. You gradually learn what works and you continually improve your appeal. Your mother strongly influenced you. You can have prickly family relations. You change easily.

Sun sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Strength: 2.60)

This aspect adds to your life force and confidence. It could make you naturally athletic. There is some danger of physical problems later in life.

Moon square Saturn (Strength: 2.58)

You have a tendency to hold on to people and things from your past. Because of parental conditioning, you feel guilty when you sever ties with long-time friends. Your family is very important to you, and you rarely forget birthdays or anniversaries. Your difficulty in establishing yourself independent of your family can result in an emotional prison of sorts. This can also be traced back to parental programming. Your parents probably emphasized your dependence on the family, not realizing how this hampered your own growth and creativity.

Cultivate interesting hobbies in order to express your creativity and to avoid slipping into periods of depression. Children are also a source of joy for you for they allow you to relive your own early years of frivolity and curiosity. You would receive great satisfaction from volunteering in organizations devoted to helping children -- such as Big Brothers.

In your career you could do well in fields having to do with caring for others. You would be good at nursing or physical therapy or in a career providing housing, food, or public assistance. Since you perform excellently on the job, you can make a good living in these fields while at the same time having the rewarding feeling of helping others.

It is possible that you will marry late in life, or that you will go through a number of relationships while young and then find the best mate of all in your later years. Don't judge potential partners too harshly; you must recognize that others aren't any more perfect than you are.

Pluto semi-square Midheaven (Strength: 2.55)

You can pack quite a wallop with this aspect. You have what it takes to be a major player and a heavy hitter. You can be a master of efficiency, creating a big impact with a minimal but highly-focused effort. You have practical business sense and can work methodically. You have little patience for gossip or duplicity. You can be frank, blunt, and harsh in expressing what you really think. What you say might not be politically correct. If you were to study law, you could do well as a prosecutor. This aspect puts you into touch with life's primal forces. It gives you the toughness to handle whatever losses or curveballs life may throw at you. You are capable of leaving an inspiring legacy.

Mars sesquiquadrate Uranus (Strength: 2.45)

This aspect gives you high strung nervous energy and a fast metabolism. You are quite active, either mentally or physically. You might have distinctive interests or be exceptional in some way. You could be what the British call eccentric. You get a lot done. You could have opinions on many subjects, which you do not hesitate to express. You can be so original that you can revolutionise how things are done in your field.

Jupiter semi-square Saturn (Strength: 2.42)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

With this aspect, you are probably a student of the world, one who delves into and absorbs the knowledge that different fields have to offer. You can use your knowledge and resources to support others. The aspect tends to involve you in the social world in a positive way. Doing something just for fun could turn into something more serious. You have the ability to revitalise and protect, whether it be your wife, your family, a field of study, or the larger environment. You are socially aware and tend to honour your obligations, but you can also act to benefit yourself in ways that you would rather not read about in the newspaper. You can be so socially responsive that you appear rather bland. If that is limiting your success, then try to find a way to be unique.

Mercury conjunct Midheaven (Strength: 2.41)

You have a very sharp mind and a keen sense of humor. At an early age you learned to develop good communication skills and to see the world more objectively and logically. Since you are easily bored, you are constantly seeking satisfaction for your active curiosity and are often restless. Higher education or vocational training will greatly enhance your mental skills.

With your short attention span, you must develop the self-discipline to stick with a task until it is completed. You are much better at coming up with great ideas than you are at carrying them through to fruition. Since you seldom have the patience to explore subjects in great depth, you can be a "Jack of all trades and a master of none". You are well suited to any profession which involves communicating with others, such as writing, teaching or politics. You may also be attracted to a career involving travel or transportation. With your technical mind, you could also excel in science, mathematics or related fields.

Because you approach life intellectually rather than emotionally, you may at times feel isolated from others. Although you can easily communicate your ideas, expressing your feelings is not so easy. Remember that it is important to develop your emotions as well as your mind.

Neptune sesquiquadrate North Node (Strength: 2.15)

This aspect makes you very innovative. You have a talent for understanding and appealing to the public. You are open to other cultures plus you have a sense of humour, which makes you very popular. You will pay your dues as an apprentice, but you will eventually find a way to do your own thing, to express your own vision and creativity. Your life can involve deception and mystery, perhaps with all not being as it seems in your world. Your public face may not agree with your private reality.

Sun inconjunct Uranus (Strength: 2.14)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You have a hard time turning down a friend in need and often give in even though you are required to make a great personal sacrifice. Try not to feel guilty about saying "no" when it is necessary.

People appeal to your own vanity by pleading that you are the only person who they can trust with their problem. If you are used in this manner you will grow to resent it. People must understand that it is one thing to be kind and helpful and another altogether to be a sacrificial lamb.

You may be called upon to prove your love to those close to you. Don't let this upset you. Some people will use this to lay guilt trips on you. Love is a two-way street. Whatever those whom you love want from you, they should be willing to give as well.

Fellow co-workers may also try to take advantage of your good nature. You would do well in public service jobs, such as education, institutional services, rehabilitation or other therapy. You would reap great satisfaction out of helping others claim their own freedom. Even though you may not always be appreciated, don't become discouraged. You are on the right track.

Mercury trine North Node (Strength: 1.87)

You have a mercurial personality. It is easy for you to change and try different things. You have a receptive memory and were probably a talented student, advanced for your years. You could have a love for words and writing. You have a talent for generating publicity. You could travel and move frequently, living and working in different places. You are curious about everything. This aspect should give you good health during your life.

Venus semi-square Neptune (Strength: 1.85)

With this aspect, you are an energetic idealist. You are capable of living up to high standards. You come from love, not fear. As a result, you can be quite the daredevil. You can enjoy sports that get you out into nature. You like to be spontaneous instead of scripted - living in the moment and improvising on the spot. You could enjoy painting. You can be prolific and persistent in the face of rejection. With your fearlessness you can be attracted to explore and illuminate the dark side of human nature. There is a possible danger of alcoholism or substance abuse with this aspect. You could experience grievous losses, yet still smile with an irreverent sense of humour. You can get people to laugh about their fears. You will go out of your way to help children and to relieve suffering. You tend to be a kind, gentle, and loving father. You are empathetic and inclusive when it comes to accepting people of different backgrounds.

Mars sextile Saturn (Strength: 1.80)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You are a practical person and prefer to plan well and proceed with caution rather than jumping into any situation feet first. You are willing to work hard for what you get and don't believe in luck as a method to achieve your goals. In fact, you may resent others who seem to get by on luck alone. Since you prefer to invest your time and energy only in projects that will produce the desired results, you don't waste your time on anything which appears questionable.

Even though you may take longer than others to complete any given task, you can be sure that it will not have to be done over again. It is easy for others to get you to understand their point of view if they can explain it to you logically and intelligently. This makes you a pleasant partner in any endeavor.

You do best in occupations requiring mental dexterity as well as physical skill, such as archeology, exploration, forestry service, wildlife management, research and development and physical education. Typical avocations include ecological organizations, working with the handicapped, or volunteering for Big Brother or Big Sister groups. You are often more interested in your avocation than your vocation, and you may eventually make your living with a craft of some sort rather than a regular job.

Because you are sure of what you are saying before you open your mouth, you are a formidable competitor in any debate. You are uncommonly good at using language effectively and often use this skill to impress clients and business associates.

You require a partner who is both intellectual and who is interested in physical activities. Your children will benefit greatly from your example on how to set your mind to anything you want and accomplish it. As a parent you always have time to listen to the concerns of your children and will teach them to learn from your experiences in life.

Jupiter trine Uranus (Strength: 1.79)

If you take full advantage of your creative talents, you can achieve whatever goals you set for yourself. You are quick to recognize opportunity when it knocks, and some people would consider you extremely "lucky".

You could do well in a career in education, politics, law, and religion. You are a good leader and are especially good with children. People will often come to you with their problems.

It is essential that you have personal freedom, and you will fight anyone who tries to restrict you. Travel would be very mind-expanding for you, and you should take advantage of any opportunity to visit new lands.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You are always sincere (even with your enemies) and are warm toward your friends. You are very optimistic and have a good deal of faith in your abilities. You can become impatient with others who never seem to try to succeed but instead expect to fail before they begin.

You need total honesty from your love partner and will offer him or her much spiritual encouragement. You are well known among your friends for being unselfish and giving.

Sun trine Moon (Strength: 1.71)

Traditionally, this aspect brings a certain amount of "good luck" into your life. Not only do you have the ability to accomplish whatever you set out to do, you will also feel comfortable with fame and positions of power. But first you must convince yourself that this is possible and decide to actively pursue your goals.

Your relationship with your parents contributed to your growth as an individual. Perhaps they encouraged you to establish your own individuality rather than becoming what they wanted you to be. Your family will be a source of much joy and support throughout your life (unless other problems are indicated by other aspects to your Sun or Moon).

Because you are honest and sincere in your dealings with others, you can rise to the top of your chosen profession. The best fields for you are those which are expansive, such as real estate, development or planning. You seek to continually move forward in life and need growing room to do so. Because of your calm and soothing personality, you work well with the public and cope well with problem situations. As a supervisor you would have the ability to get people to carry out your requests without being overbearing about it.

Children are drawn to you and respect you. When you are around they will behave like angels to impress you because they also seek your respect. You enjoy being looked up to by youngsters and will be caring and protective of them (yet not restrictive). During your life you may serve as mentor to many young people.

In your love relationships you prefer stability and balance to up-and-down affairs. You and your partner will support each other and will grow a great deal through your relationship. Because you are rather even-tempered, you can provide emotional stability for a partner who is less secure.

Jupiter conjunct Pluto (Strength: 1.62)

You literally want to get all the gusto out of life that you possibly can. Your tremendous drive and ambition make it impossible for you to be satisfied with less than what you want in life. As a matter of fact, you can grow very impatient with delays in obtaining your goals. You do not accept the possibility of defeat, and have an unwavering determination to be all that you can possibly be. You ask things of yourself that no one else would dream possible, and you inspire envy in those around you who are less motivated.

You could excel in many fields, including: law, politics, religion, medicine or psychology. Whatever occupation you choose, you will grow tired of it as soon as its growth potential is depleted. You enjoy working closely with others. The other possible expression of this aspect is that you can become preoccupied with yourself and seek recognition through sports, gambling, exploration, or any other "risky" job. You don't play for small stakes, and if you are careful this can be expressed in the form of successful financial enterprises.

Power is a great aphrodisiac, and you will attract others to you with your success. You will look for a mate who is as ambitious and successful as you are. You would not be happy with a "wimp" because you could not respect their lack of inner strength. The relationship should be one of mutual admiration, with each partner encouraging the other to achieve their goals. Just be careful that this doesn't turn to "nagging" should your partner fall short of your expectations. Remember, there's more involved in a love relationship than the material benefits it can offer.

Venus trine Uranus (Strength: 1.62)

You enjoy life and are optimistic about your future. You express your love quietly and can see through insincerity in those around you. You are quick to make adjustments to others, and can readily recognize it when someone tries to take advantage of you.

You are willing to share your bounty with others; this positive attitude ensures that you receive a constant flow of rewards yourself. In past lives you grew to accept your responsibility toward your fellow man. You rarely are depressed or entertain negative thoughts. Instead, you are warm towards others, even when you are not feeling so well yourself.

You would be good at careers in which you could express your creativity through the arts: music, drama, design. You work well with the public because others feel comfortable around you. Children like you and find your honesty refreshing from an adult. You would also be a good teacher and could make subjects come alive for your pupils. You are quite intuitive and could utilize this gift in money matters.

You will probably have a richly satisfying marriage based on mutual honesty and understanding. Your standards will be high when choosing a partner, but you are willing to live up to his or her high standards as well. Your sexual preferences will be somewhat unconventional, and your partner must be of like mind in order for you to fully express yourself. You must be able to express yourself sexually and will not be happy with a partner who tries to limit your sexual expression. You are capable of carrying on relationships that require a great deal of freedom, such as an open marriage or long-distance romance.

Venus sextile Midheaven (Strength: 1.56)

You have a strong appreciation for beauty and harmony in all areas of your life. Keeping the peace with those whom you love is very important to you, and you always seek an amicable solution to any disagreement.

Since your early years, your relationships with authority figures have been harmonious and supportive. Your parents encouraged you to follow your heart in life, and therefore taught you to love yourself and to be self-confident. As you mature, you'll continue to attract others who are in a position to help you achieve your goals.

If other aspects in your chart confirm it, the sextile indicates that you have natural artistic or musical ability. In this case the most satisfying career for you would be one which allows you to express yourself creatively.

Moon inconjunct Venus (Strength: 1.21)

This aspect shows that you give greater importance to the needs of others than to your own. You are always the first to make concessions, even though others are not expecting you to. You are not able to judge your own worth and the worth of others because of your intense emotional reaction to others. You need to detach yourself emotionally and then logically decide how competent and valuable you are.

Because you are naturally self-effacing and submissive, you attract others who would take advantage of your lack of self-worth. If it seems to you that others are constantly taking advantage of you, just remember that they cannot take anything from you which you do not freely give. In other words, you must simply learn to say "no" to others' needs more often and "yes" to your own.

Your extreme desire to please others can obscure your perspective of fairness. Don't allow fellow workers to dump their unwanted duties and responsibilities on you, and don't be afraid to speak up when someone tries to take advantage of you. Remember to make it clear that you deserve to be compensated for your time and effort, and don't allow others to keep expecting you to help them as a favor.

In love relationships, you seem to attract partners who constantly demand that you prove your love to them. This often puts you, a "giver," in relationships with "takers". Again, remember to keep the scale more balanced in your dealings with others. Otherwise, you'll only end up feeling used, and you'll be right.

Mars sextile Ascendant (Strength: 1.10)

You approach life with a great deal of enthusiasm. With your overabundance of nervous energy you become restless if you're not constantly on the move. Your tremendous creativity can be enhanced by developing a little self-discipline in asserting yourself. It would also help for you to learn the art of compromise. You usually state your opinions forcefully and then demand that others go along with you. This is not the best way to win friends and influence people.

In your career you will always do more work than is asked of you, and for this reason you gain the respect of your supervisors. You need a challenging job which allows you to continuously prove to others (and to yourself) that you are competent. You readily take on new responsibilities even without being asked to do so.

You enjoy being physically active and appreciate a partner who can keep up with you. Even though you can be quite stubborn and seldom "give in" once you have dug in your heels, you have a strong sense of fairness and will fight to correct injustice when you see it. You enjoy your independence and will vigorously resist any attempts to restrict your actions. Because you are very comfortable with your sexuality, you can help your partner overcome any sexual hangups they may have.

Saturn conjunct Midheaven (Strength: 1.09)

You are highly ambitious and fully understand that hard work is required in order to succeed in life. It is very important to you that your peers respect and admire you, and you will try to establish a good reputation in your community. With your natural leadership abilities and your strong sense of self-discipline, you are attracted to management positions in any career you choose.

Even when you do not agree with authority figures, you respect them because you understand they have worked hard to earn their positions. You set your goals very high and push yourself to achieve them. If you fail, you are your own worst critic, and if you are not careful you can become so discouraged that you may consider yourself a loser and stop trying altogether.

Others look to you for guidance and inspiration, and you tend to be regarded as a teacher by others, whether in school or in day-to-day life. It is important that you have a positive relationship with your father, for this will give you the self-confidence and sense of inner security you need in order to succeed.

Mercury sesquiquadrate Chiron (Strength: 0.92)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

You could learn to speak and sing with good diction. You might be opinionated and outspoken, especially about issues of fairness and justice. You can excel at sports requiring precision targeting. Math, science, astrology, and writing probably come easily to you. This aspect can make you precocious as a child. You can juggle finance and business matters shrewdly.

Pluto inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 0.91)

You will encounter situations through your relationships with others which will force you to go through major transformations in life. You are subject to compulsive or extreme behavior and seem to attract others who are similarly inclined; this can create difficulties for you. At times you take your responsibilities toward others too seriously and forget that your needs are just as important.

Financial security is important to you, and you will plan carefully for your future. You form strong opinions which you will gladly share with anyone and hate having to admit you were wrong. You insist on perfection in every way, from yourself as well as from others. While you are very creative and have many solid ideas, others will not take you or your ideas seriously if you insist on cramming them down their throats.

Be careful not to become possessive in your relationships. This can result in your partner feeling stifled and disrespected. You want to be the dominant partner in every relationship, yet you feel that those you love have some power over you to do whatever they ask of you in order to satisfy their desires.

Saturn trine Ascendant (Strength: 0.66)

You are willing to work hard to achieve your goals and feel obligated to develop your creative talents fully. You don't expect overnight success and you don't take unnecessary risks. It is possible that your parents were not able to lavish you with gifts as a child, yet you are thankful that they taught you to take care of yourself.

Material success is very important to you, and you may even judge others by their net worth. You seek respect from your peers and like to live out the legend of the person who fought their way to the top against all odds. You want depth from those around you, not pleasant superficiality.

Your friends may be few, but you are quite loyal to them and for the most part your friendships probably last over the years. Before entering into a romance, you will check out the references of your prospective partner before making any commitment. Again, you seek depth in your lover; you are not interested in a purely physical affair.

Others may consider you to be a loner, and it is true that you isolate yourself from others at times. You do not appear to be a warm, caring person on the outside--unless a person gets to know you very well. You need to lower the walls you have built between your inner self and others to allow them to get to know you. Your cool exterior can be intimidating.

Mercury sextile Mars (Strength: 0.61)

You are a very friendly and outgoing person and are not usually shy about making new acquaintances. As a matter of fact, meeting and conversing with people may be one of your favorite pastimes. You enjoy talking, but you are also a very good listener. This talent has allowed you to learn much in your lifetime; you are never afraid to ask when you don't know the answer.

Although you are friendly to everyone, you can be vicious when deceived. You speak the truth bluntly, even when it would be easier not to. And when you make a stupid mistake, you won't hesitate to admit it and even to laugh at yourself. You have an insatiable curiosity and thoroughly enjoy learning new things. In conversation you don't speak rashly or from a shaky base of information; you prefer to know what you're talking about before you open your mouth. By the same token, you don't jump to conclusions concerning others without solid evidence. You can be very persuasive and have a talent for winning people over to your ideas.

You would do well in such occupations as law, teaching, writing, public relations, or any other field which requires you to exercise your intellect. You could also succeed in media work; the constant stimulation and movement would attract you. Communication is your strongest skill, and you should make the most of it. You would also find politics interesting, and you would enjoy giving your opinions to those who are less informed.

In relationships you prefer a partner who is also intellectually stimulating. They should also be strong enough to act as a "Devil's Advocate" and challenge your ideas and opinions. This would encourage you to develop your own mental skills even further.

Saturn trine North Node (Strength: 0.59)

This aspect gives you grace and dignity. You conduct yourself as a gentleman. You proceed through life in a careful, methodical way that can bring you close to perfection. You may have appeared slow as a child, but that is because you are learning for the long term. You prefer to research first and apply later. You can end up mastering an almost encyclopaedic repertoire. You are not a big risk taker. You subject everything to analysis. You do not accept practices, methods, or teachings uncritically. You have the confidence in your own thinking to remake and refashion as seems best to you. This makes you inimitable -- one of a kind. You can turn dreams into reality.

Moon sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Strength: 0.41)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

This aspect gives you a voracious appetite for learning. It seems to be a successful aspect for a musician. You could be known for your rather elaborate creations. You set high goals. No one will ever describe you or your work as small potatoes. You could master a large vocabulary, using it to become a fluent conversationalist, speaker, or writer. You would be a good spokesman because few can match the coherence and economy with which you are able to express ideas. You can combine words in unexpected ways. You tend to be optimistic and ebullient. A drawback of waxing so enthusiastically about so many ideas, policies, and projects is that inevitably you will precipitously drop one interest in order to move on to the next. This can disappoint those whom you have drawn into your orbit. You might be happiest in a creative field that allows you to move on from one avant-garde project to another. You have high standards and will not put out anything shabby. You put in the time to craft your creations well.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Water

In your case, the heart rules the head. Your emotional drives are strong and you act primarily on the basis of your feelings. Whether your feelings are purely personal, interpersonal, or transpersonal is up to you, but generally you are a life-oriented person who feels keenly and who acts to support your family, friends, and community. You are happiest when you are in a caring relationship with a significant other. That person should be comfortable with the emotional closeness that you bring to relationships, while providing the structure or inspiration that you need. Some of your friends will not be as comfortable with emotional closeness as you are, and you will have to respect their boundaries. You have probably learned over the years how to keep your sensitive nature from being hurt. Don't permanently withdraw, but find the people with whom and the environment in which you can be yourself.

Because of your sensitivity, you easily pick up others' thoughts and feelings. You can anticipate others' needs before they have expressed them. You can usually rely on your intuition when it comes to forecasting the outcome of personal and career decisions. If you decide to use your psychic abilities for healing, learn to let go of the negative feelings that you process from others. Since you are so sensitive, find quiet moments for private introspection in which you can reconnect with what you feel instead of what others feel. You also find it revitalizing to be around large bodies of water.

You do have a need to stop and think things through before acting. Make the effort to communicate with others who may have a more objective viewpoint or who could see solutions that elude you. You can sometimes be criticized for acting from a purely personal perspective, which you could avoid by learning and respecting society's larger viewpoint. You can be very creative in finding paths to your personal goals. Keep the larger viewpoint in mind and later you will not have to try to rationalize to others why you chose those paths.

Abundant Fire

You are an active, future-oriented person who is not weighed down by past commitments. You take advantage of new opportunities better than most. Life for you can be a vibrant affair in which you passionately pursue causes, lovers, and experiences. You have the self-confidence to be a leader. Competitive and flamboyant, you have little patience for slow people or unexciting work. When an activity interests you, you can be very generous with your time, energy, and money. Find outlets for your gifts of creativity and intuition.

Watch out for a tendency to exaggerate or to be insensitive to others' feelings. More cautious types may envy and resent your free spirit and competitive nature. You get bored easily and may depend on others to finish the projects that you start. When your warmth is guided by love, wisdom, and positive goals you have the ability to heal and inspire others, but when you focus on your self or lack direction, your short-lived passions can affect others in destructive ways.

Lack of Earth

You may be so focused on the "bigger picture" that you have difficulty managing the many details of life. Balancing your checkbook or leaving your bedroom clean may seem beyond your abilities. Other tasks may be important, but you find it hard to concentrate long enough to complete them. Knowing your own lack of concentration and self-discipline, you may cling to established routines because you know that you are able to do important things through force of habit. If you do not flit from job to job, you could hold onto a job or a relationship for too long because you do not trust that you will be secure without it. Your lack of real world perspective may make it hard for you to distinguish that which really matters from that which is unimportant, so that you sometimes focus on small things while leaving the really big things undone. You may say that you care about money, but unless you have abundant planets in the houses of Substance, you will not execute a detailed plan to get it. If you can avoid driving them crazy, enlist the help of those more grounded than yourself in order to turn your inspirations into reality.

A lack of planets in Earth signs can be offset by an Earth sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the houses of Substance.

Abundant Endings

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

With abundant planets in the houses of endings, you are probably sensitive, moody, and introspective. You are not afraid to show your feelings and make an empathetic listener to the problems and feelings of others. You have been around the track enough yourself to sense what others are going through and to show that you care. You are not the most intellectual or practical person. You can be easily swayed by an appeal to your emotions.

Lack of Substance

You are not the most grounded or practical person. The rules of this material world are not well known to you. Others may admire your dreams, but they could be impossible dreams. You may find it difficult to choose, plan, and work towards a career or vocation.

A lack of planets in the houses of Substance can be offset by abundant planets in Earth signs.

Abundant Fixed

With an abundance of planets in Fixed signs, you have the staying power to complete a project, grow a family, or expand a business. Your strength is what friends notice most about you. You have definite values; you focus your affections on the people and things that are part of your team. Friendships formed over time are important to you. You may be found at the center of a circle of friends, a large family, a government agency, or a business. You understand the contribution that stability and security make to prosperity and growth. It throws you off-balance when friends are not as reliable as you are or when love and ideals are not part of your life. Concentrate on developing confidence in yourself, a wholesome world for your family or group, and binding others to you with love. If you have a weakness, it is trouble changing or listening when people tell you a better way to do things. You can handle this weakness by empowering your team, as among them will be individuals who are good at reacting to a constantly changing world.

Lack of Mutable

With a lack of planets in the Mutable signs, you probably go your own way in life without caring too much what other people think. You know what you want and see little need to compromise. You lack flexibility and adaptability. You do best when you can establish a pace and stick to it. Leave those sports and activities that require fast reactions and adaptability to others.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Nelson Mandela

Sometimes you say things that offend others, because you are not especially concerned with the feelings or opinions of others. In fact, you sometimes appall your friends with your single-mindedness and lack of sensitivity. Because of your individuality, people who are attracted to change and variety may find you stimulating at first, but after a while might find your predictability to be boring. This is unlikely to keep you from pursuing your path. Your path involves being yourself and changing the world. Just don't insist that others be like you.

A lack of planets in the Mutable signs can be offset by a Mutable sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the Cadent houses.

Abundant Cadent

An abundance of planets in the Cadent houses helps to make you versatile and adaptable. You are flexible in your plans, adapting easily to changes or to the people whom you meet. You may travel a lot or move frequently. You are a good listener and communicator. You will use your mind a lot or frequently spend time alone during your life.
