Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

Introduction

The following pages contain a brief evaluation of key elements of your birth chart, although it is by no means complete. Astrology can reveal many things about a person's life and personality, and you could study your chart for a lifetime without knowing the answers to all of your questions. The descriptions that follow will give you a "thumbnail" introduction to yourself through astrology.

In interpreting your chart, this report considers the sign of the planets and the north node in your chart, as well as their house placements. It also describes the sign of the Ascendant and the strongest aspects between the planets.

You may note that some of the following descriptions appear to contradict each other--and indeed we are all walking bundles of contradiction. If you examine yourself carefully, you will probably realize that you do in fact possess the qualities of both conflicting descriptions. Even though some parts of the reading may seem to clash, you will see that certain themes are repeated throughout the following pages. These are the themes that will become major issues in your life.

The readings stress that you are the one who ultimately decides your fate. The stars may indicate the hand you were dealt at birth, but it is up to you to play that hand well enough to achieve your goals. Also, bear in mind that every "bad" aspect of a chart also has a "good" side. How it is expressed is really up to you. We tend to work at expressing ourselves more positively most of the time and only lapse into the negative behavior described when depressed, angry or scared. Or it is possible that some aspects may better describe your personality or behavior earlier in life. They may seem alien now because you have already worked through them.

A "Strength" number precedes each aspect description; this number takes into account how exact the aspect is, whether the aspect is a major or minor one, and whether one of the planets in the aspect is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to act it out in your life.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Cancer Ascendant

No matter what sign your Sun is in, Cancer Rising indicates that you are sensitive, cautious and have a strong need for security. You love the water, and if possible you will probably live near a river, lake or stream. No matter what your sex, you are domestic and maternal, and your home life is the most important element in your life. Since you do not crave the spotlight and can be cautious to the point of paranoia, you may have difficulty achieving your material goals in life. Your greatest success and personal satisfaction can be found in an occupation requiring you to deal with the public and to help others.

You have a phenomenal memory and never forget a hurt. Your emotions are very sensitive, so you are overly cautious in matters of the heart. For your peace of mind you require a peaceful and harmonious environment. You will react emotionally to any situation that stresses or upsets you. You become sentimentally attached to mementos and other items of nostalgia, and will never part with possessions that commemorate past memories.

Physically, your problem areas are your stomach, digestive system, skin, chest and breast. Ulcers are a common problem with Cancer Rising. Your emotional state strongly affects your health, and some tender loving care is the best preventive measure you can take.

In appearance you are probably of short to medium height and have a wide chest (or a full bosom). Your face is full and round (and usually beautiful), and your eyes are full-lidded and may be green. Your hands and feet are proportionately smaller than the rest of you. As you age, be careful to watch your weight, especially around the middle.

Sun in Leo

The catch word for Leo is "ego". This sign is well known for its self-confidence, pride, creativity and ability to lead. Just be careful that this combination does not add up to a domineering personality. Remember that others also need a chance to shine. Share the center of the stage with others and it will be much more enjoyable for you as well.

Leo can be a warm, loving and charming kitten but can turn into a ferocious lion when threatened, angered or hurt. They are extremely loyal and generous with their friends and love partners and can be very affectionate. This can be considered good or bad, depending on the partner. Sometimes Leo needs to remember that they can give out too much love and affection. Some people are not prepared to receive love as freely as Leo. Allow your friends and lovers to express their love for you in their own way, even if it is not so lavish as you would like it to be.

Leo natives carry themselves with dignity and convey a regal attitude. They don't like to have their ability or authority questioned. As a matter of fact, the best way to tame the lion is to flatter him or her. Vanity is Leo's one weak spot, and the lion can become downright arrogant. Physically, Leo natives are prone to sudden accidents, high fevers and chronic diseases. Particular areas of weakness are: the heart, back, shoulders, legs, ankles, throat and reproductive organs.

In relationships, you need to be given freedom to be who you are. Anyone who cannot understand this about you will most likely lose you as a friend or love partner. Just remember, you must also grant the same freedom to others.

Sun in the First House

This house placement indicates a very forceful personality. The issue of power will keep recurring in your relationships, and you must learn to cultivate a spirit of compromise. However, you would prefer to dominate your partner, simply because you are quicker to act and react than he or she is. Just be careful not to unintentionally do emotional harm to those whom you love. Be sure that you strive for equality of expression in your dealings with others. Don't monopolize the conversation or make plans without asking their opinion first.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

You are a person who stands out in a crowd. You attract others easily and usually make a good first impression, unless you overwhelm them with your powerful personality. Relax and let your natural charm take over, and you will more easily win friends and influence people.

You are very direct and honest (sometimes brutally). You believe in getting to the point and are not inclined to indulge in elaborate courting rituals. Because of your honesty, relationships can begin and end abruptly. You will not hold on to a relationship that is not working out well.

This house placement also indicates that you are generally healthy. You are also very courageous and would like to be a leader (or ruler).

Moon in Aquarius

With your Moon in Aquarius you are highly imaginative and should direct this energy into creative channels. You are very open-minded about the changing trends in society and can adapt quite easily.

Most of all you love to shock others with your opinions, which often violate taboos. You can see the need for old arbitrary restrictions to be cast aside. Freedom is very important to you, but you must sometimes remember to extend the same freedom to your partner.

You are a mixture of radical thought and conservative action and are sometimes plagued by anxiety and tension. Often you take on others' problems or causes without getting anything in return.

In relationships you seek a person who is somewhat unusual. You look for a companion who can share many interests with you. In business you need a stable partner who can make good practical use of your creative imagination and keep you grounded. Metaphysics and occult sciences are also of interest to you.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

The one drawback of this moon placement is a tendency to gossip and spread rumors. Although this may be done with the best of intentions, you may not enjoy dealing with the consequences when you are identified as the source. Physically, your areas of weakness are varicose veins, eye afflictions and ulcers on your legs.

Moon in the Eighth House

This house placement gives your emotions a Scorpio-like touch (Scorpio rules the Eighth House). You probably saw your mother as an intense individual, and your relationship with her transformed you in some way. You may be plagued by feelings of self-doubt and jealousy of others who have what you want. Being too possessive can also be a problem for you, as well as unreasonable jealousy of your mate.

Many people with this Moon placement come into an inheritance or other financial windfall during their lives. There is a natural psychic ability and an understanding of the cycle of birth and death. You look for a deeper meaning in things; there is nothing superficial about you. When you feel, you feel to the depths of your soul.

You will be drawn to relationships that offer a very high level of emotional intensity. You find the powerful feelings generated in such a partnership very exciting. It is likely that you prefer an older, more experienced lover. Or you may find someone from a different cultural background or nationality who brings you this same wealth of new, exciting experiences that you crave.

Mercury in Leo

You are very self-confident about your mental abilities, and you are an articulate and convincing speaker. You are highly creative and have your own distinctive style of expression. Since not everyone is as talented or confident as you are, you need to allow them to express themselves in their own way. One challenge of Mercury in Leo is to develop patience with others who seem slow or not creative.

Although you are happiest when others are admiring and praising you, at times it is best to learn a little humility. Otherwise, you will encounter disturbing surprises in your interactions with others which will "shock" you and force your attention away from yourself. With Mercury in Leo there is a tendency to be arrogant and demanding. Remember that you are not the only player on the stage of life, and every role is as important as your own because without any one of them the play is incomplete.

Since you are often overly absorbed in yourself and your own view of life, it is difficult to get your attention long enough to make an impression on you. You take in only the information you feel will be useful to you and reject the rest. For this reason you are not very observant and need to develop a greater attention span and eye for detail. Your reactions are usually slow, not because you are stupid, but because of your lack of interest in things which are not about you.

With your strong sense of self-confidence, you are a natural public speaker or writer and can present your ideas clearly. In discussions with others you will attack any statements that seem irrational or contradictory. You love to travel and are enthusiastic about life. With your ability to inspire children, you could be a great teacher.

Mercury in the Second House

With your sharp mind and natural administrative and organizing abilities, you could have great success turning your inventive ideas into material wealth. You are logical and practical, and you value possessions according to their usefulness. You will learn many lessons through disappointments in love and money.

Venus in Gemini

You are charming and witty, and you have a smooth way with words. Because you filter your emotions through your mind, you have the ability to stand back from a situation and look at it objectively. You have a talent for expressing your feelings in writing or public speaking. As a host or hostess you are quite attentive.

Although you enjoy the fun and excitement of falling in love, you are at the same time intimidated by the obligations it brings. Because you tend to change your mind without warning in romantic matters, you may at times appear fickle to others. You need to learn to stand your ground more firmly and be clear about what you want and need.

You are highly sensuous and enjoy the finer techniques of courting and making love. Verbal affection and communication are important ingredients in any major relationship, and you don't mind being "sweet-talked". Sexually, your touch is soft and gentle, and your sexual curiosity is unlimited.

Your love nature constantly changes, and you are very unpredictable in this area. It is necessary that your partner interest and excite you. If you get bored with the affair, you will certainly move on to more stimulating options. You may entertain fantasies of having two lovers at once. Traditionally, this placement of Venus indicates multiple marriages.

Venus in the Eleventh House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

You get along well with others and are at your best when you are a member of a group. Your friends and lovers will be unique and different from the norm, and you will benefit greatly from the loyalty and devotion of those close to you. Since you have friends of many races and cultural backgrounds, you can help promote understanding among diverse cultures. You may meet lovers through political activities.

Mars in Gemini

You have a very sharp mind, and others see you as very witty, perhaps sarcastic. Since you are usually trying to do several things at once, you generate a great deal of nervous energy. With your restless nature, you start many projects but actually complete only a few. Your expectations of yourself are often over-exaggerated, and as a result you tend to make many promises and then are unable to keep all of them.

This placement of Mars also indicates a natural talent for writing or expressing yourself verbally. In order for you to succeed, you must learn concentration and self-discipline. Try to get a handle on your abundance of nervous energy by planning time off to do what you enjoy. Failure to do so may result in physical illness or injury.

With Mars in Gemini you need constant excitement and stimulation in order to maintain your interest in a love affair. You are attracted to partners who have mastered the art of making love with the intellect. Your partner's mind must turn you on; mere physical attraction is not enough.

You are highly inventive and experimental in sex and have a very delicate, sensual touch. It would not be hard for you to have two or more lovers at the same time. This would ensure that you would be constantly stimulated and never become bored. Otherwise, your marriage partner will have to be able to adjust to your constant need for variety.

Mars in the Twelfth House

You tend to put the needs of others before your own, and if you are not careful, people will take advantage of your good nature. It is difficult for you to take an action which could in any way harm others, and for this reason you often find yourself immobilized and unable to act at all. Remember that you certainly cannot please everyone all the time, so you may as well try to please yourself.

Jupiter in Taurus

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

With Jupiter in Taurus, you have a natural ability to apply yourself practically to earn and accumulate money. You are loving and sympathetic toward others, and you probably like to contribute to a charity of your choice. With your appreciation for the finer arts, you collect only those objects of the highest quality. You make a point to enjoy the finer things in life. Avoid a tendency to over-emphasize material possessions.

Jupiter in the Tenth House

You are highly ambitious and have the self-discipline required to achieve success in your chosen career. One or both of your parents instilled in you a strong confidence in your own abilities, and this will help you to succeed in life. You seek the honor and respect of your peers and community, and you feel a strong sense of responsibility toward society as a whole.

Saturn in Pisces

You are very intuitive and highly imaginative. You are tolerant of the shortcomings of others. Peace and quiet are necessary for your peace of mind, and you may prefer to spend much of your time alone. You may vacillate between strong emotional reaction and cold rationalism, or you may encounter such extreme behavior in your relations with others. One of your greatest challenges is to avoid a gloomy, depressed disposition. You cannot save the world and must learn to tell the difference between your problems and the problems of those whom you love.

Saturn in the Eighth House

You are patient, thrifty and hard working, and you enjoy accumulating material wealth. Using your resources responsibly, rather than as a means to control others, is one of the lessons of this Saturn placement. You have a strong sexual nature, but you may tend to neglect your social and sexual gratification in order to concentrate on acquiring greater wealth.

Uranus in Virgo

You have a sharp, analytical mind, and you will use it to find workable solutions to the many illnesses of society. You are interested in alternative forms of healing, such as psychic healing and herbal treatments. Since you are cautious by nature, you will think through all your ideas thoroughly to be sure no details are overlooked. One of your challenges is to learn to listen to your intuition rather than just your rational mind.

Uranus in the Second House

You have unconventional attitudes about love and money and earn your living in innovative and original ways. You don't put great emphasis on acquiring money for its own sake, but rather you see it as a means to increase your personal freedom. You will encounter many unexpected changes in your financial situation, for the better or worse. You'll have at least one unusual lover who will change your life.

Neptune in Scorpio

(1955-1970)

You are driven to uncover the deepest secrets within society, and you have a keen interest in metaphysical sciences. With your strong desire for physical pleasures, you must avoid indulging too much in food, drink, sex or drugs in an attempt to escape the tension of daily life.

Neptune in the Fourth House

You are very sensitive emotionally and have deep-rooted fears and insecurities. With your tendency to idealize too highly one of your parents, you may suffer disappointment when they make mistakes and prove their humanity. As an adult, you seek the ideal home environment, which of course you are unable to find. With maturity you will learn that peace of mind is found within you rather than in any physical place.

Pluto in Virgo

(1956-1972)

Your generation saw the birth of social reforms, such as free medical clinics and food banks. Chemicals also became popular, and many miracle drugs were discovered. There was also renewed interest in organic health foods, vitamins and herbal remedies. You have a strong desire to achieve perfection. Avoid being too critical of yourself or others.

Pluto in the Third House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

You have a versatile and curious mind, and you would be an excellent writer, teacher or counselor. With your keen powers of concentration, you have the ability to get to the bottom of any situation. You search for a deeper meaning behind every occurrence in life and form opinions only after extensive research and profound thought. Avoid negative thinking, which can lead to depression.

Aries Midheaven

You will achieve your greatest success in life through competition, self-assertion, and your ability to start new activities. Not one to sit on the edge of the field, your career shows your need for pioneering activities, combat, challenge, and accomplishment. You are a strong individual who can carry more than your share of the load. You are self-directed and prefer to work independently.

You can throw fresh light on your chosen career field because you are so honest and direct. Less adventuresome souls benefit from and continue the projects that you start. One drawback of this placement is that (unless Virgo is rising) you find it difficult to perform routine tasks for long, especially if doing so does not bring the affection or praise that you desire. If you are not mature, you may surprise others by resorting to brute force to get your own way. Action for its own sake will exhaust you and lead nowhere. When you are indecisive, actively search out the truth.

Occupations consistent with your active, leading style of work include director, instructor, superintendent, manager, inventor, pioneering writer, entrepreneur, athlete, dancer, actor, laborer, driver, policeman, security guard, or the military. For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the tenth house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of Mars, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

North Node in Cancer

You have spent many lifetimes accumulating wealth and managing others. Although you achieved material success and gained the respect of your peers, you did so without regard for the needs of others. During this lifetime you feel compelled to succeed in order to regain the respect you once had. You control your emotions very well and are not easy to get close to. Although you may feel others are neglecting you, you have put up a wall to keep them away. Your challenge is to give nourishment as well as receive it.

North Node in the Twelfth House

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

In past lifetimes you have been a compulsive perfectionist and have been overly critical of others. During this lifetime you will learn to be more compassionate and forgiving of human flaws. You may undergo periods of forced isolation which will help you become more tolerant of differences in other people. Adopting a more positive attitude will help preserve good health.

Chiron in Pisces

You are highly sensitive and intuitive, and probably have keen psychic abilities. With your strong sense of compassion, healing comes naturally to you, and you may enter a career in the healing arts. In your personal and professional lives, you tend to take on the feelings of those around you, and at times it may be necessary for you to get away and find alone time to "find yourself" again.

You are highly idealistic, and you have a sincere desire to somehow help make the world a better place. You truly want to see the best in everyone and everything, and for this reason you can sometimes be misled or deceived. Be willing to question the truth of what someone tells you if your intuition tells you something is not right. Listen to your inner guidance, and you will always appreciate the underlying lessons in life's daily events.

Chiron in the Ninth House

Your beliefs are very important to you, and you enjoy sharing your perspective on the world with others through conversation or writing. You are constantly seeking a higher truth, and you look for answers through travel, education, religion, philosophy, spiritual retreats, or anything else that will expand your consciousness. You believe in living your principles, as well as talking about them, and you are probably quite ethical.

During your early years, your family probably expected you to follow their belief system without question. Yet as you mature, you may find it difficult to continue blindly accepting beliefs without first researching them. As you discover and adopt your own beliefs and philosophies, just be sure to allow others to do the same.

Planets in Aspect

Moon square Jupiter (Strength: 6.24)

You are very generous with others and may even find yourself lacking because you have given your resources away. Because you seek the easiest route to any goal, you often do not plan your endeavors well. Be careful not to overload yourself with credit obligations. You are an easy mark for a fast-talking salesperson because you love to spend money.

At times you are extremely enthusiastic about life, and at others you feel that you couldn't care less. You have strong natural talents but are not always willing to invest the time and effort necessary to develop them. You may complain that you don't seem to get anywhere in life, but you are not willing to put out any further effort to do so.

It would be a good idea to hire a financial planner to advise you on your economic situation. This way you can learn to deal responsibly with your obligations and invest toward a better future. Instead of reacting emotionally to adverse economic situations, you would then have a plan of attack. Learn to be a little less self-indulgent and more emotionally mature. This is your key to success.

In your career you would do well in law, education, medicine, or managing a restaurant. You could also be very satisfied working as a physical therapist or in rehabilitating the handicapped. This allows you to count your blessings in life when you see others who have genuine disabilities. In turn, you can inspire them to make the most of their lives.

In your personal relationships, be careful not to jump to conclusions or make rash judgments. You can be irresponsible and fickle in this area, although you probably feel that it is you who is always deserted. Don't be so afraid to become emotionally involved with others that you shy away from intimate contact altogether.

Moon trine Venus (Strength: 5.88)

You are an eternal optimist about human nature and are hopeful about having fulfilling relationships. You are very trusting of others and believe that your trust will not be violated. Because your motives in dealing with others are usually quite honorable, others open up to you and enjoy your company.

With this aspect in your natal chart, you are probably attractive (especially with the tighter aspects). This may not be merely a physical beauty--in your case beauty truly is as beauty does. Others are drawn to your gentle disposition and creative nature. They find your optimism contagious and feel inspired by you.

You would do well in any career which involves dealing with people on a regular basis, such as public relations. You have a way of injecting energy into a group just when others are feeling discouraged. Because you refuse to adopt a negative attitude about life, others are forced to be more optimistic in your presence.

Although you have good judgment, you never try to force others to accept your opinion. You are polite and gracious and avoid vulgarity and coarseness. You demand honesty and sincerity from those closest to you and are willing to give the same. You enjoy children and will derive much joy from being a parent. Young people are attracted to you by your easy-going, sincere nature.

You are somewhat private about your personal life and don't try to pry into the affairs of others. Yet you will always offer a shoulder to a friend if asked.

Jupiter sextile Ascendant (Strength: 4.73)

You are very congenial and generous and have no difficulty attracting and making friends. Others appreciate your optimism and easygoing nature, and you'll find that you get through difficult times thanks to a little help from your friends. You always insist on seeing the best side of a person, yet you have no room in your life for those who are determined to be pessimistic and petty.

Since you are well-informed on a variety of subjects, you are a stimulating conversationalist. Because of this talent, you would be successful at writing, public speaking, or teaching. In any partnership you can be relied upon to live up to your responsibilities and carry your own weight. You truly strive to be the best you can be at everything you do, and you admire this quality in others as well. If a friend is in need, you will gladly give of your time and your resources in order to help.

As a lover you are very direct in communication as well as in your approach to sex. You have a healthy adventurous attitude toward sex, and you can help your partner relax and share in the adventure. You are most attracted to a partner who shares your optimistic perspective and is willing to be spontaneous and daring.

Sun trine Midheaven (Strength: 4.16)

You are highly ambitious and are willing to work hard to reach the lofty goals you set for yourself. Your parents and other early role models instilled you with a strong moral code and work ethic, and these qualities inspire trust and confidence in your peers.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

Because you are willing to cooperate and compromise with others, your associates enjoy working with you, and this makes you a good supervisor, manager or administrator.

Success may seem to come easily to you, although your achievements are actually the product of hard work and careful planning. With your high levels of self-confidence and creativity, you can achieve virtually anything you set your sights on.

As you climb the ladder of success, you'll remember those who've assisted you, giving credit where it's due. You understand that honoring others contributes to your success rather than hindering it.

Sun sesquiquadrate Chiron (Strength: 3.87)

This aspect increases your self-confidence and wilfulness. You are not a shrinking violet. You live life in a large way. You are a strong, energetic person with good endurance. You are so active that you end up with quite a lot to your credit. Your work may involve giving of yourself to others. You find success by revealing what is inside of you to the outside world. You let people see and know your inner world.

Sun inconjunct Saturn (Strength: 3.66)

As with most inconjunct aspects, this aspect indicates insecurity and a lack of self esteem. You are sometimes downright reckless with your health and may suffer physically as a result. On the emotional and psychological level also, you have a tendency to accept abuse from others. Because of your inability to say no when you should, you fear having demands made on you by others.

You may feel that you are repaying some debt from earlier in your life (or in a past life) for past transgressions. It is wonderful to be a helpful and compassionate person, but be sure you are not driven by a misplaced sense of guilt. Sometimes the best way for you to help someone is to say "no". Then they will have to muster up the strength to do it on their own.

In your career you are not terribly ambitious and may even prefer to work behind the scenes. Although your ability to perform your job well may be impressive, you don't "put yourself out there" enough to be noticed by those in charge. Because of this you may be passed up for promotions or find that others get credit for work you have done. Sometimes it is necessary to cause a little stir to protect your rights, even if it may feel uncomfortable to do so. As long as you allow others to take credit for your achievements, they will continue to do so.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

It is best that you become self-sufficient in life and allow others to be the same. Once you have established yourself as a strong individual, success is possible. You will operate at your own pace, however, and you should not compare the "progress" of others with your own. It's all a matter of perception. Instead of trying to change yourself in order to be accepted by others, to express yourself the way you feel is best for you. Others are not really better than you at what they do, just different.

Be sure to take time out to relax and to recharge your batteries. You are particularly susceptible to tension-related illnesses such as poor circulation and digestion problems. Treat yourself as well as you try to treat others, and you will be O.K.

Moon inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 3.51)

This combination indicates that your Moon sign and Rising sign are very different (read the descriptions of the sign of your Moon and your Ascendant). Because of this, the image that you project to others is very unlike the real inner you. In maintaining balance between these different sides of yourself, you have developed emotional discipline, and this allows you to adjust more easily than many to the demands of life.

You put the needs of those whom you love before your own, and in the process you are often taken advantage of. You are always the first to volunteer when something needs to be done, but you are also the last to ask when you have needs to satisfy. Sometime in life you must develop the ability to say "no" to those who would abuse or belittle your generous assistance. Devote your compassionate energy to those who appreciate your help and who return it in kind.

Your love life is very volatile and subject to frequent changes. At times it may help to slow down your pace on purpose and allow you and your partner a break from your frenzied pace. It may also help if you occasionally spend time away from each other. Perpetual change in itself can become a rut into which you fall. A little distance can give you a better perspective.

Uranus semi-square Ascendant (Strength: 3.38)

With this aspect, there could be sudden changes or dramatic ups and downs in your life. You have an independent mind of your own and could defy your parents wishes. You could do things spontaneously that surprise everyone. At times you can be brilliant or unusual. You can think outside the box. Astrology and the paranormal could interest you. You could try to get people out of their staid comfort zones. This aspect increases the possibility that you will be shocked by a sudden event in your life.

You are a free spirit who will not tolerate anyone placing restrictions on you. You are not quick to make concessions, but you instead expect the other person to give in. Loving you can be difficult since you tend to make many demands (sometimes unreasonable) on your partner.

You have a very strong sexual desire nature. You may tend to be promiscuous and therefore scare off any potential serious lovers. You should attempt to express your strong sexual nature through your relationships. It cannot be bottled up. If you cannot engage in sexual reckless abandon, direct the energy into artistic or social functions.

As a matter of fact, you may find social functions a good place to meet lovers and friends. You are sexually attractive to others--as a matter of fact, you seem to ooze sex. This acts as a magnet to attract many potential sexual partners. You must develop discrimination in this area of your life.

You are emotionally warm and generous and so attract many friends. Some may see you as pushy because you often make the first move in establishing a social contact. You would actually do well in jobs dealing with the public if you can avoid becoming over-zealous. You would become bored, however, if you were completely cut off from the public and made to work alone. You naturally socialize a lot.

Moon trine Mars (Strength: 2.95)

Your emotions are intense, and you may often funnel this intensity into creative projects. You have a large number of friends and enjoy good relationships with those whom you love. Because you are willing to compromise, others find you a pleasure to be around. You have mastered the art of relating to others and are able to be firm without being offensive or abrasive. On the rare occasions that you become really angry, you don't experience feelings of hate.

You respect the rights and privacy of others and expect the same in return. Because you are reasonably self-confident, it is not easy for you to be threatened by associates or competitors. You meet challenges with acceptance and determination to get through them. Because you are highly creative, this is usually not much of a problem. Others respect your coolness in times of crisis, especially children.

Children are especially drawn to you because you allow them to be the age they are and don't expect them to act like adults. You are warm and affectionate and don't suffer from hangups regarding rejection and insecurity. The only people you really avoid are those who are dishonest or insincere with you. Because you are emotionally independent, you find it easy to sever ties which are not beneficial for you.

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

You will be a good parent, although you may be somewhat permissive. You always give others a second chance when they "fail" you and don't expect perfection in those around you. You can see the good in everyone without concentrating only on the flaws they have.

Neptune sesquiquadrate North Node (Strength: 2.69)

This aspect gives you a talent for understanding and appealing to the public. You can innovate methods that are all your own. You are open to other cultures plus you have a sense of humour, which makes you very popular. You will pay your dues as an apprentice, but you will eventually find a way to do your own thing, to express your own vision and creativity. This aspect can lead to deception and mystery, perhaps with all not being as it seems in your world. Your public face may not agree with your private reality.

Mars conjunct North Node (Strength: 2.67)

This aspect gives you the courage to take unusual chances. You can develop the confidence to make your own decisions, for which you are willing to take the responsibility. You could have some ambivalence about how you fit into traditional feminine roles. If you have issues with eating or your body image, it could be caused by underlying anxiety, about which you should not hesitate to talk to a therapist. When healthy, you are probably more into exercising and eating well than you are into being petite and half-starved. Don't be conflicted - just accept that you were meant to be an unusually strong and decisive woman. You deserve to have a good man who treats you as an equal. You should enjoy an active life with your family and kids. When you take ownership of your life, you will be natural and unpretentious. Nature may have gifted you with a powerful singing voice.

Saturn trine North Node (Strength: 2.64)

This aspect gives you grace, dignity, and beauty. You conduct yourself as a lady, with maturity. You could stay youthful looking for a long time. You could work at a secure job that allows you to care for your family, including an aged parent or other needy relative. You might be a cautious person who prefers to research first and apply later. You subject everything to analysis. You do not accept practices, methods, or teachings uncritically. You have the confidence in your own thinking to remake and refashion as seems best to you.

Mercury sextile Mars (Strength: 2.52)

Natal Horoscope Chart Interpretation for Sandra Bullock

You are a very friendly and outgoing person and are not usually shy about making new acquaintances. As a matter of fact, meeting and conversing with people may be one of your favorite pastimes. You enjoy talking, but you are also a very good listener. This talent has allowed you to learn much in your lifetime; you are never afraid to ask when you don't know the answer.

Although you are friendly to everyone, you can be vicious when deceived. You speak the truth bluntly, even when it would be easier not to. And when you make a stupid mistake, you won't hesitate to admit it and even to laugh at yourself. You have an insatiable curiosity and thoroughly enjoy learning new things. In conversation you don't speak rashly or from a shaky base of information; you prefer to know what you're talking about before you open your mouth. By the same token, you don't jump to conclusions concerning others without solid evidence. You can be very persuasive and have a talent for winning people over to your ideas.

You would do well in such occupations as law, teaching, writing, public relations, or any other field which requires you to exercise your intellect. You could also succeed in media work; the constant stimulation and movement would attract you. Communication is your strongest skill, and you should make the most of it. You would also find politics interesting, and you would enjoy giving your opinions to those who are less informed.

In relationships you prefer a partner who is also intellectually stimulating. They should also be strong enough to act as a "Devil's Advocate" and challenge your ideas and opinions. This would encourage you to develop your own mental skills even further.

Moon semi-square Midheaven (Strength: 2.23)

You could be very shy, especially as a child. You can be emotionally sensitive and cautious to avoid being hurt. Find and work with friendly and decent people. Then you can let your own friendly nature come out. With this aspect, you are more likely to appear in the public eye. You could enjoy writing and teaching so much that you do not consider them work.

Mercury sextile North Node (Strength: 2.15)

This aspect increases your mental sharpness. You can easily express yourself through writing, singing, and dancing. You stay slender and youthful looking, especially if you avoid cigarettes.

Jupiter semi-square Midheaven (Strength: 2.00)

You can try something for fun that ends up becoming a career. You could start at a young age. This aspect gives you a zest for life. Your work can make a contribution to society. You are probably socially active. Collaboration can work well for you. You could be your own boss or rise to an executive position.

Saturn opposite Uranus (Strength: 1.61)

This aspect indicates that you have difficulty relating to others. This is partly because you are highly competitive, and partly because you often mistake your friends' concern for interference in your life.

It is very important to you that you be free to express yourself in your own way. At times, however, you expect to receive respect and privileges that you have not yet earned. In your career, for example, you may try to start out at the top. This only encourages others, especially fellow workers, to look for an opportunity to thwart your plans, even if only to "knock the chip off your shoulder". While the ability to compete is an admirable one, an even greater talent is the ability to know when to cooperate. With this aspect, this is one of your challenges in life.

You could do well in fields such as research, mathematics, and other sciences. There is no question that you are talented and qualified, but you will never have a chance to succeed and use your talents if, on your way up, you alienate others such as employers and fellow workers. You are likely to encounter many "teachers" outside of conventional classrooms who will help you gain enlightenment from your seeming "failures" in life. Until you gain some humility, you will be unable to learn the best lessons. It's very difficult to open your mind to learn new things when you think you know everything already.

In your love life, you should seek a partner who is both stable and impulsive. Be sure to include excitement and new discoveries in your relationship. Otherwise, you will seek release of your pent-up desires through unexpected love affairs or the break-up of relationships.

Neptune sextile Pluto (Strength: 1.53)

This is the only aspect Neptune has made to Pluto during this century, and the planets will remain in sextile to each other for another hundred years, although the signs the planets occupy will continue to change as time passes.

For those born between 1942 and 1956, Neptune was in Libra and Pluto in Leo. These people were born at a time of global war. Governments rose and fell; kings were ousted from their castles. There were breakthroughs in air power (Neptune in Libra) which helped establish the balance of power between the U.S. and the Soviet Union. This time was filled with meetings and peace conferences between global leaders. Those born during this time know that compromise is not enough to achieve peace; you are naturally suspicious of your leaders, and this will help to promote greater honesty and accountability on the part of political figures.

If you were born between 1957 and 1970, Neptune was in Scorpio and Pluto in Virgo. There were new advances in health and medicine, as well as rapid spread of illegal drugs. Our long-held conservative attitude about sex began to dissolve, and we began to realize that marriage was not essential to maintain a committed relationship. Those born during this time seek to serve and improve society. You are also angry about the current state of our environment and natural resources.

If you were born between 1971 and 1983, Neptune was in Sagittarius and Pluto in Libra. Your attitudes about religion, education and human interactions are most likely different from those of your parents. Your religious beliefs, or spiritual practices, are important to you, and you are deeply concerned for the fate of your planet and the race of man. You will insist that your leaders be straight with you and will not accept excuses or manipulation. You are also interested in occult sciences, and many advances in this area will be made by members of your generation.

If you were born between 1984 and 1998, Neptune was in Capricorn and Pluto in Scorpio. You are part of a generation which will make great progress in dealing with power responsibly, both in terms of interpersonal relationships and as protectors of our Mother Earth. You will seek to transform society and replace rampant injustice with compassionate guidance.

Uranus conjunct Pluto (Strength: 1.53)

Freedom is very important to you, and you will go to great lengths to preserve it. This is true not only of personal freedom, but also includes freedom from corrupt power, disease, pollution, unemployment, etc. You are not afraid to work toward causes you believe in and enjoy the feeling that you are contributing something to the betterment of mankind. You know that this takes hard work by everyone and are willing to do your share.

This aspect appears in the charts of persons born during the 1960s. This period in time was one where great attention was being paid to health and environmental issues. You and others born during this time feel a responsibility to work toward improvement in these areas. It is important to you that the legacy you leave for the next generation be a better one.

Although you have a strong need to "do your own thing," you are not selfish in your pursuit of freedom. You believe that everyone is entitled to the liberty you seek and will work to help others realize their own power. The issue of social responsibility will be a prominent one for you. It is up to you whether you will shirk your duties in this area or work to bring about a reversal in the decaying quality of life.

Moon opposite Mercury (Strength: 1.48)

It is difficult for you to achieve balance between your emotions and your intellect, and you often feel confused in your relationships with others. You may "fly off the handle" rather easily, and at times you can be difficult to reason with. At other times you will react in a cold, distant manner. If this tendency gets out of control, you can alienate all but the best of friends. It's not that you are intending to do so; you have a talent for offending others without meaning to.

Before making any decisions involving your relationships, be sure you listen carefully to everyone else's side. Learn the fine art of compromise and you will find it easier to peacefully coexist with others. Don't be so quick to jump to conclusions; remember to give others the benefit of a doubt. If you can consciously become more tactful and patient with others, you will feel better about yourself--and so will they.

You may have difficulties in your chosen career unless you can develop more skill at negotiation and compromise. Learn to accept your failures gracefully and admit when you are wrong. Making mistakes is the way we all learn; instant perfection is impossible. When others criticize your work or point out your mistakes, don't take it so personally. Welcome the feedback of those who would like to help you sharpen up your skills and become more professional.

You may encounter conflict in your domestic life, for you do not back down easily from an argument. Worry is one of your favorite pastimes, and you may cry on the shoulders of your friends rather frequently. Resist any temptation to spread gossip (even if it is founded in truth). This could backfire against you and alienate you from your neighbors. Also, resist any urge to lavishly spend money; getting in debt is easy for you--getting out is not.

Uranus inconjunct Midheaven (Strength: 1.11)

The way this aspect manifests itself in your life depends largely on your early childhood upbringing. By nature, you are rebellious and disruptive, and the way your parents, teachers and other role models responded to your behavior greatly influenced the way you expressed this energy later in life.

If your parents and others were willing to allow you the room to go against their guidance and make mistakes, then you had the chance to discover that at least some of what your elders told you was true. Eventually, you would become less aggressive and resentful of authority as you understood the logic and reason behind their rules.

On the contrary, if your parents and others were very restrictive and controlling, without helping you to understand the meaning behind the rules they enforced, you would develop a deep loathing for authority. After a while, you'd stop listening to their advice altogether. If you're not careful, this attitude could cause continual disruption in both your personal and professional lives.

Mercury opposite Saturn (Strength: 0.79)

You are very defensive and hold strongly to your opinion when it is challenged. Your intellectual capabilities are well developed, and you can accomplish anything that you set your mind to. Be careful not to "bend" the truth and deceive others in your efforts to succeed. If you do, you will lose friends and end up being alone and depressed.

Since you are a loner, you often overlook the importance of your friendships. You alienate others with your criticism and strategies and seem to be unwilling to just mind your own business and let them be who they are. If people don't hold the same opinions as you, allow them the freedom to express their own individuality.

Your greatest feelings of security will arise from a job well done. You could succeed in such fields as science, research, education, government, politics, architecture, conservation of natural resources, or accounting. If you can apply yourself to your career, you will become known as an expert in your field. Don't expect such recognition from co-workers but rather from the general public. Be careful that you don't become so engrossed in your work that you are not aware of what the competition is doing or miss opportunities that come your way.

Be sure to exercise caution in entering into contracts. Don't overlook the important details that can boomerang against you later. It may be best to hire an attorney or other advisor to help you with these tasks. Your reputation is very important to you, and you don't want to muddy it through misunderstandings and oversights.

Saturn sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Strength: 0.22)

With this aspect, you could have been precocious, with an adult mentality. You tend to be unpretentious and to age well. Your career should increase as you get older. You could have been the oldest child. You can become independent and self-reliant. You tend to be intellectually interested in how the world works - via politics, science, or business. The aspect gives you a sense of moral responsibility. It can indicate wealth. Not the impulsive or extroverted type, you could be slow to marry.

Midheaven square North Node (Strength: 0.14)

This aspect tends to make you a social leader. You might conduct yourself as a lady because you feel the weight or responsibility of your leadership position. This square is more difficult for a woman to handle because the Midheaven rules the domain of the public world, which is traditionally reserved for men, as opposed to the private world of the home. It is as if you are thrust into the public world. You believe in yourself, however, which gives the persistence that can be needed to finally open closed doors. This aspect tests your mental toughness. It gives you a broader awareness of the world at large.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Air

You seem to live for mental exploration. Discovering and communicating the connections between ideas, people, and places is your function in life. Your active mind is good at identifying new frontiers whose basics you quickly master, so that you end up knowing something about almost everything. You have a dispassionate nature that coolly considers the pros and cons of a situation, able to place logic above personal emotion. From your mental viewpoint, emotions look irrational. You make a good negotiator, sales person, communicator, arbitrator, analyst, and information processor. Ideas flow quickly for you. While impersonal and dispassionate, you nonetheless thrive on communication and social interaction. At your best, you strive to understand and accept people, not to change them. Courageously, you adhere to principles. You appreciate culture, structure, and systems.

Your greatest strength is also your weakness, namely too much coolness from placing head above heart. Leaders must be able to follow their hearts without being indecisive or equivocating. And you ignore your real connection to others if you use your mental gifts to coldly manipulate them. Try to avoid isolation by functioning as part of a team in which your logic, analysis, and communication skills are put to good use. Work with others who may be more practical, sensitive, or passionate than are you. Don't keep your good ideas inside, but write them down and communicate them to others.

Abundant Endings

With abundant planets in the houses of endings, you are probably sensitive, moody, and introspective. You are not afraid to show your feelings and make an empathetic listener to the problems and feelings of others. You have been around the track enough yourself to sense what others are going through and to show that you care. You are not the most intellectual or practical person. You can be easily swayed by an appeal to your emotions.

Lack of Relationships

Relating to other people probably plays a minor role in your life. You could remain unmarried, be a loner, or even be an orphan. Your thinking is probably subjective or personal, without the objectivity that comes from having communicated with many people. Let others teach you by showing you and if they give you any feedback on your thinking, see if you can learn from it.

A lack of planets in the houses of Relationships can be offset by abundant planets in Air signs.

Lack of Life

You could have difficulty envisioning or planning for the future. You are likely to accept the status quo, living in the past and present, but not actively striving to create the future. Lacking your own passionate goals for making the world a better place, you are more likely to be a follower than a leader.

A lack of planets in the houses of Life can be offset by abundant planets in Fire signs.

Abundant Fixed

With an abundance of planets in Fixed signs, you have the staying power to complete a project, grow a family, or expand a business. Your strength is what friends notice most about you. You have definite values; you focus your affections on the people and things that are part of your team. Friendships formed over time are important to you. You may be found at the center of a circle of friends, a large family, a government agency, or a business. You understand the contribution that stability and security make to prosperity and growth. It throws you off-balance when friends are not as reliable as you are or when love and ideals are not part of your life. Concentrate on developing confidence in yourself, a wholesome world for your family or group, and binding others to you with love. If you have a weakness, it is trouble changing or listening when people tell you a better way to do things. You can handle this weakness by empowering your team, as among them will be individuals who are good at reacting to a constantly changing world.

Lack of Cardinal

With a lack of planets in Cardinal signs, you may have trouble starting things. You may be timid about developing and carrying out plans. You would prefer to let others break the first ground of a new venture, so that you can pitch in and help once the outlines of the venture are clear. You probably lack confidence in your mastery of the real world and survival in it. You may substitute a rich inner life for your lack of action in the outer world. In its highest form, you may be unusually creative or spiritually committed. Ideas filter up as you focus on 'being' instead of 'doing'. Watch out for the lower manifestations, which are delegating tasks to others and pitying yourself over the lot that befalls you in life as a result of your lack of direction and initiative. Your different perspective on life gives you valuable insights that let you make real contributions wherever you are.

A lack of planets in the Cardinal signs can be offset by a Cardinal sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the Angular houses.

Abundant Succedent

An abundance of planets in the Succedent houses increases your ability to enjoy life. In turn, you can give others pleasure. You are a basically stable person with strong values, feelings, and attachments. You enjoy working to build the structure of your life. As you gain confidence in your self, you bind others to you with love. You have a strong physical presence.

Lack of Cadent

A lack of planets in the cadent houses tends to reduce the time that you have to yourself. You may feel that you are always in the limelight or somehow involved with others. This leaves you little time for solitary reflection. The life of a spiritual recluse is not for you. You don't change quickly, but must gradually grow into changes.

A lack of planets in the Cadent houses can be offset by abundant planets in the Mutable signs.
