INTRODUCTION

This is an analysis based on the exact time, date, and place of birth calculated on the details supplied.

It is not intended to predict a budding mega-star or a future world leader - the objective is to provide some insights into the psyche of Princess Charlotte to give everyone concerned a better chance of understanding, and hopefully helping this special child through the difficult growing times that they will face.

The astrological Chart is a little like a jigsaw puzzle without the benefit of a picture to follow. Some pieces are easy to recognise and they fit together beautifully. Another batch might fit well - but seem unrelated to the first "batch". Several straggly bits probably seem to belong to another world altogether, but that is the human psyche. The depths are immeasurable with many, many forms, faces, and dimensions.

Any Astrological chart will have seemingly several contradictions - again - just like human nature and our psychological make-up. But these apparent differences are all shades, shapes, and forms of the full picture. These "contradictions" should be seen as a balancing factor, knocking some of the edges off our sharp corners or, sharpening up the "softness" in the areas defined.

It should also be recognised that all of us have our own very personal lessons to learn in this life and these lessons unfold throughout the span of our entire life on earth. The learning experiences will not be systematic - they will be random episodes and experiences. Some interpretations of this Chart will give a glimpse of these very personal lessons that are an obvious part of this little one's character. Others may be so private or subtle that the child "learns" all by itself. And then there will be further lessons that will not have emerged or even seem significant yet.

It is hoped that the brief explanations throughout this analysis will help to explain the meanings and terminology of basic Astrology to give as much understanding as possible.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Cancer Ascendant

The Ascendant is the exact degree in the zodiac, which was rising on the horizon at the time of birth. The term Ascendant and Rising sign are the same. Every 4 minutes the degree of the Ascendant changes. This is why it is so important to know the exact time of birth. This is the starting point of the astrological wheel and defines the signs on each house cusp in an anti-clockwise direction.

The actual houses and their meanings are just as important as the signs on the cusp. The sign of the Ascendant is as important as the Sun sign, and its effects are often more obvious to other people. The Ascendant represents how the personality appears to others. Each sign has its own potential strengths, which should be developed, and weaknesses, which should be minimised through understanding.

Princess may run into problems if the rising sign is quite different in nature from the Sun sign. There will be conflict between an element of the inner self and the projected image. So, if any recurring social problems do occur, it is necessary to look within.

The Ascendant in the chart is very important. It indicates the ways in which we interact with the world around us, the energies we put out, and the energies we receive from others.

Aspects to the Ascendant indicate what kinds of interaction we experience with others, the impressions we make on people, and the areas of our life that most involve other people. Often these aspects tell us about ourselves.

Princess has Cancer as the Ascendant, or Rising sign, which is a water sign. These kids are emotional, sensitive, moody and very receptive. Cancerians love to nurture. They like a warm friendly home that they can call their own. They can be very sentimental about memorabilia, photographs etc. - they like to keep the past in their sight. This is a very traditional little person, very attached to familiar surroundings. Where these kids live during their childhood will always be important to them. Even later, when they have grown up and perhaps moved to a new area, Princess will prefer places that "feel" like home.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Princess will make a wonderful friend that can be relied on for tea and sympathy when problems arise. These kids instinctively know to treat all disclosures in the strictest confidence. They do take being a friend very seriously and can be quite hurt if they are not appreciated. Because of this, they are somewhat cautious and prefer any changes in their personal environment to happen slowly. Princess will like to have time to adjust - and will actually prefer no changes. When these kids meet new people, they are friendly enough, but they are reserved until they get to know that person quite well. Princess will actually be quite shy. However, once trust has been established, they trust completely. Consequently, the friends made while young will probably be there forever.

Princess has a sensitivity that makes it difficult to take criticism or harsh words from anyone - especially from loved ones. These children respond to life and situations through their feelings. They are touchy, and tend to take things personally. Like the crab, the protective hard shell is their haven, or their house that hides a very vulnerable and soft underside. Like the crab, when confronted the Cancerian will often retreat into its shell and scuttle away to think things over. When this child feels hurt, they will tend to withdraw and avoid others. They will probably sulk. However, the crab will never forget. And the crab does not give up - they wait their time. Sometimes these kids pretend not to care, so that they do actually seem very insensitive. But this is just the shell they are showing - Princess will hate every minute of being cold and unfeeling.

The home environment that Princess grows up in is likely to have all the trappings of being as beautiful and as elegant as the financial situation permits. But one parent is likely to be rather aggressive and impatient whilst the other seems to be continually trying to keep the peace. One parent may have an active life outside of the home while the other is left to keep the home fires burning. Whatever, this sensitive little person with the Cancerian Ascendant might spend a lot of time waiting for the bubble to burst. This could be why they become so attached to familiar things, why they will love their home and love their family, but could also feel that their security can be threatened at any time.

If the childhood home is not a stable and secure place, this sensitive youngster will feel that void most of their life. Therefore, it is important that Princess does have security from the beginning.

The ruling planet in this chart for Princess is the Moon - the ruler of Cancer. So, pay special attention to the very emotional and sensitive Moon, as this will be a very strong and noticeable part of the personality. The house that the Moon falls in will indicate where the light and the shadows of the Moon are the strongest.

Sun in Taurus

The Sun in the Chart is our personal light. It is our vitality, our creativity, and our basic ego. The Sun represents our individuality. Within the Sun sign is our reason for being, our sense of pride, and our confidence. The sign occupied by the Sun at birth describes the nature of these basic drives and patterns. It describes the desire to be important to the people that matter and the ability to be independent and self-reliant. The House will describe the areas of life that will be important and play a major role in our lives.

Positive aspects to the Sun (trines, conjunctions or sextiles) are good indicators of self-reliance, confidence and the ability to stand on one's own two feet. The difficult aspects (squares, oppositions, and inconjunctions) will suggest psychological problems which can have a profound effect on life. However, learning to deal with these difficulties ultimately produces strength and understanding of the self. The rewards of working through these problems are great. The efforts will be productive. Sure, work is needed, but it is worth the effort. However, whenever the planet Saturn brushes up against the Sun, it will suppress and depress the energy of the most exuberant Sun sign.

The Sun is the "self", the "life path", the "true" personality behind all the facades and defences we all put up.

The child will start to grow into the Sun sign during adolescence which can be another reason why these years can be so dramatic and traumatic - this is just another set of growing pains that we all have to endure. The actual Sun sign is often not fully developed until nearer 30 years of age, but the inner spirit will emerge and glimpses will be seen throughout the growing years.

Princess has the Sun sign in Taurus, which is symbolised by the Bull. The Taurus child is a patient and deliberate worker that can seem to be a "plodder". But do not try to rush this child. The learning process is thorough, and all that is learned will be retained.

These are generally good students. They will work for as long as it takes to complete any project, and the result will be their very, very best. Do not forget to heap on the praise for effort and achievements. Princess will be just bursting with pride waiting for your approval. The Taurean child is loving and will need lots of cuddles and a bit of "special" time with Mum or Dad that is exclusively "for them".

These kids prefer a routine; in fact, they do not like change. So, if there are ever any major changes coming up, give plenty of warning and a few explanations so that they have time to adjust. Even minor changes, like going out on Saturday night, will go down better if you "advise" this little one in advance. Princess will thrive on basic security and worry more than most if that precious personal security is threatened. These kids like to feel trusted as much as they like to feel totally involved in all that is happening around them.

Generally these kids are very placid but when aroused - just think of the bull in the China shop. Princess will come out with all guns blazing. When these kids do "lose it" it can be a shattering experience because it seems quite out of character. And when the bull puts its head down and charges, there is little time to escape. Be warned of a very long memory. This little one never forgets. Watch for a very stubborn and a rather self-righteous nature.

These children can also want everything they see and will keep the pressure on until they get what they want. However, they will also be willing to do little jobs to "earn" the money to pay their own way. These kids do prize their possessions and will look after what they have. Possessiveness is a common problem, so you will need to put a bit of effort into training how to share. Maybe drop in the hint that in sharing with others, their friends will share too, making the available pool much "bigger".

As a young child, Princess will probably respond well to soft toys and lots of colourful things. These kids respond to the sensual - smells, sounds, touch, and, of course, taste. Princess is bound to just love food. Any interest in artistic or musical ventures should be encouraged as these children have natural creative bent.

If there are several planets in the signs immediately before or after Taurus (Aries or Gemini,) Princess will be more volatile and more active.

Sun in the Eleventh House

11th House: School friends, acquaintances, and any interaction with groups outside of the family environment - the developing of skills within social and sports clubs where expanding and sharing ideas and ideals is the issue. This House includes influential peer groups and help received along the way, which includes Hopes and inspiration.

This little person with the Sun in the 11th House will love to be part of the crowd. Princess will want to "lead the pack" and will be a natural leader. These kids will have original ideas, and the enthusiasm will be spontaneous. They will have a natural ability to get others working together. Group activities do the trick - as long as Princess is in charge and as long as those brilliant ideas are being recognised and used. In many ways, these kids need and seek approval and acceptance. The character is strong, but it does need the nourishment of acknowledgement from the parents too.

Princess will be a popular child, but expect a few neighbourhood arguments as well. These kids are quite passionate about their ideas and a bit pig-headed. They tend to like their own ideas best and get a bit awkward when they are opposed. Princess will need to learn to compromise which should happen quite naturally with maturity. Generally, these kids are very social and enjoy being with friends so will question themselves anyway if hostilities are felt.

This child will also be idealistic with high hopes for life that might seem impossible. There will be little satisfaction with small achievements and accomplishments. The ambitions will be quite bold. Especially as Princess gets older, there will be an understanding of the limits - of what is possible and what is not. With maturity, these kids develop a natural ability to be able to recognise the boundaries and make optimistic but possible goals. The aims and the vision are in the same ballpark. Princess will be stubborn, and quite self-righteous so will not want to have to admit defeat. That is why the planning and visualisation will be far more relevant than will be apparent. These kids make it look easier than it actually is for them.

Friends and groups will always be an integral part of this person's life. The personal ambitions will seldom be selfish. Notable achievements are likely to come from combined efforts. This child in adulthood will want recognition but not particularly for personal satisfaction. Princess will want something to look back on and say, "I was a part of that". The preference is popularity, not power.

Moon in Libra

The Moon is our instinctive, emotional response. It is the innermost feelings and sensitivities that stem from the subconscious. Our Moon will always be our natural reaction when our defences are down. The Moon reflects our early conditioning, our habits, and the automatic responses that come from our early environment. Often all of this relates directly to the "Mother" figure. It is perhaps the "child" in all of us.

In reading a child's chart, the Moon, in the house, the sign and the aspects, needs to be given special understanding. These are the indications on where Princess could need special attention very early, to cope with feelings of insecurity, lack of confidence, or a low self-esteem. Recognising these needs, and working through them, will help to produce a secure and confident adult.

The Moon often reflects the "Mother figure" in our lives, which is consequently why the Moon figures so strongly in a child's chart. The placement of the Moon often describes the relationship with the Mother, which is why the "Mother" is mentioned in many areas of the Moon explanations.

The Moon sign is the more noticeable personality trait in the formative years. We tend to "grow into our Sun sign as we develop and become the person we were meant to be. The Moon in the Chart signifies the unconscious attitudes and feelings and whether or not we feel supported and accepted. It is also the accumulated attitude reflected by our own past and the historical past. The Moon will echo values and instincts that are picked up from our early environmental experiences.

This luminary is the most important factor after the influences of the Sun and the Ascendant. It describes how we express our emotions and how well we deal with them. In some cases, the ever-important Sun can put up some defences against the Moon. When very different, we can struggle to assimilate our emotions and our reason. Like the other planets, the Moon has strong and weak points in any sign, and we should try to develop the strong points. If the Moon is in compatible company, we will express our emotions very easily and we will be sensitive to other people's needs and feelings. With competition, the Moon can mean that there can be difficulty letting our feelings flow. The Moon and the Ascendant can be of an awkward mix, making the projected personality, and how we actually feel inside, quite different. But, this is all a part of the character and we are well able to bind the differences and round off the disposition.

The Moon and the emotional problems it produces can sound negative but this is not so. This is a beautiful and fundamental part of our deepest psyche that we must all accept and use to its fullest advantage.

Princess has the Moon in peaceful Libra, so will have a "make love, not war" attitude. This youngster will try to make life as beautiful and as harmonious as possible. They will overlook people's faults in order to keep the peace. These kids are warm, affectionate, and loving, but they do tend to give in too often and can be naive. Princess will need to realise that not everyone is as nice as they should be, so teach this child to be a little more assertive - to learn to say "no" if that is how they feel. Or speak up if they disagree.

These kids do not just enjoy company -- it is a vital need in them. They will break their neck to get to nursery school, and later to "big kids" school, so that they can be with all those other people. In fact, these kids have a lot of difficulty in coping alone. They will be bored and awkward, and not seem to be the usual bright, sunny natured child that they are. Princess will need another person to interact with. No amount of books, toys, or puzzles will compensate for a lack of company. And yet, these children do prefer a "best friend" rather than a group of friends. In a close knit group, the child with the Libra Moon will be settling the arguments, making sure that everyone is getting a fair deal, and making sure that everyone is happy, simply by doing what Princess will do so well - being the diplomatic mediator. These kids love this role, but they also like to "enjoy" the interaction of friendship too. The choice of play will be the more gentle activities rather than a whole lot of rough and tumble and sliding in the mud stuff. These kids are quite refined and from an early age, they like to "look nice".

Princess will love the activity and the verbal exchange within a group, but chatter tends to dry up a bit in the company of strangers. It can take a little longer for these kids to feel, with confidence, that they are accepted. They will probably want music lessons, dance lessons, art lessons - all those gentle outlets, but it can be a bit of a problem to motivate these kids to do "real" work. Again, it is the company they seek, rather than a passion to be brilliant.

Watch out for the charm when it comes to their share of the chores. Princess will wander off and forget to come back until the boring stuff has been done. Or will gladly pay a brother or a sister to do the mundane stuff. Often it is said "lazy Libra", and for good reason. These kids figure that if they rush, they may sweat, and that does not look good and does not feel that good. In a work situation, anyway. But, of course, they must learn to pitch in - life is not entirely social.

This child will be the true romantic. The charming manner is a great asset. Princess will use this charm to get out of any difficult or unpleasant situation in a diplomatic and clever way. Often a beautiful and winning smile will have done half of the persuading anyway.

Never give this child a choice of two things if you are in a hurry. They will not be able to make up their minds. Indecision is their major problem, along with a real fear of offending.

Moon in the Fourth House

4th House: This House is about the early home environment, the "Mother" influence, and the family. This is the House where traditions are set and preserved. This is where basic development begins and where lifetime habits are formed. This House is all about nurturing.

The Moon in the 4th House is a child who places a big importance on the home and the family. To function well, Princess will need a peaceful haven that is "home". This provides a real security blanket. When tiny, this child will probably prefer to have their friends "in" to play, as they love to show off "their house". Besides, they cannot possibly come home to any surprising changes if they stay put. The greatest fear is that one day they will turn around and all the familiar things will have gone.

There are strong maternal and highly protective instincts here. When these little people feel good within, they feel strong. They will be there for anyone that needs a bit of support or comfort, being extremely sensitive to other people's feelings. Princess will know when help is needed. However, when things are not going so well, this child feels vulnerable. They will retreat into a deep and private shell, which is their "safe place". They will lose their confidence and cut off everyone completely. If these kids do not find confidence within the family and home environment, they can spend the rest of their lives looking for Utopia. Princess will have a very definite need for stable and dependable personal roots.

The Mother is the most important person and Princess will need a truly solid emotional foundation here. The whole of the early family life will remain a blueprint for the future. It is highly likely that Princess will never go too far away from the original neighbourhood that was an essential part of growing up. If this does happen, those memories will always remain very dear - always remembering the past. In fact, these kids will have a strong interest in history generally, and maybe, genealogy. Family photographs will be kept as a source of pride, being seen as indestructible proof of heritage and lineage.

A very strong intuition will develop with age, which will form a powerful part of the basic personality. These kids will instinctively "know" things and they should learn to trust this. It can be a very valuable tool.

Mercury in Gemini

The little planet Mercury is the mythical Messenger of the Gods. This planet is never far away from the Sun, often falling in the same sign at the time of birth, so it does tend to add emphasis to our Sun Sign. Even when Mercury is in the sign before or after the Sun, this is always considered a very personal planet.

Through Mercury, we learn all the basics in life. It indicates how we communicate, because it is here where we begin to watch and copy the rest of the family. This is the very beginning of questions and curiosity that fires up and fuels the learning process. From that point, we move on to recognising the senses, and so our personal tastes and style develops. We learn how to exchange ideas and show how clever we are. We start to question and analyse. We learn to reason and classify what we have absorbed and then stretch for more information.

Mercury is our first experience of moving out into the world beyond the back yard, armed with all that we have learned. Through this planet, our flexibility and dexterity is revealed. This planet covers the intellectual stimuli but it also has a say in how clever we are with our hands and how well balanced we are physically.

Mercury is also associated with the nervous system. This is a busy little planet at the best of times, and responsible for a big part of our intrinsic character. When put under too much pressure, the nervous system buckles. Mercury is indicative of our sense of humour, the body language we exude, and our powers of expression. This is the planet of logic and reason. So, Mercury is indeed a very important planet. It might be tiny, but it is very potent.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Princess has the planet Mercury in Gemini, which is a lightning quick thinker. Mercury rules Gemini so this adds a whole lot of weight to this placement. These children usually learn to talk early, and from that moment on, their vocal chords will be well used. Princess will probably talk quickly and quite loudly. This expressive child will "talk" with the hands to add to the dramatic affect of any story. There is also the ability to pick up other languages easily too, especially if exposed to different cultures and dialects early on. You have an excellent mimic on your hands, and copying is often how these kids learn new stuff.

The Mercury child here is very logical. Their minds move quickly, so often there will be many ideas on the go at once. Princess will need to be taught to complete one project before starting another, as this can be a true failing in this type of nature. Try to instill this discipline early, and give praise and encouragement to complete any project that is started. This will be a major accomplishment, so make sure to give credit where it is due. And congratulate yourself on being patient enough to teach such a valuable lesson. Ennui will set in easily for Princess. The mind is so easily bored, so keeping this child's interest alive can be difficult.

These youngsters can have a sensitive nervous system that can break down mainly because they just do not know when to shut off. So, try to coax Princess into taking a rest. Read a story together, or put on some music, but "wind-down" time will need to be taught.

These superior communication skills do need your support, as this is a gift. However, can be hard on the rest of the family with this little one dominating the conversation every inch of the way. This gift of expression could be utilised in speech or drama lessons, or perhaps, creative writing. Any expressive form can actually be very productive and can be such a valuable outlet. Princess should be read to and encouraged to read a lot while young. This busy and inquisitive mind can learn a great deal in this way. It is also valuable, but subtle, "quiet" time.

Mercury here has the making for an excellent teacher or reporter later in life.

Mercury in the Eleventh House

11th House: This house focuses on school friends, acquaintances, and any interaction with groups outside of the family environment. It involves the developing of skills within social and sports clubs where expanding and sharing ideas and ideals is the issue. This house includes influential peer groups and help received along the way, which includes hopes and inspiration.

Princess has Mercury in the 11th House will gravitate towards friends that provide stimulation and fun. The choice of company will always be based on interaction and learning - friends that are competitive and prepared to share ideas, ideals, and information. These children will like a game that makes them think, like puzzles, word games, chess, or bridge. Princess will operate a whole lot better in a group than alone. These kids love being with other people. They are totally social and like to feel part of where the action is. However, at times Princess can be a pure rebel. The persuasive powers to coerce others will be quite powerful and a weapon of which this child will be aware. This can make for a natural leader or a natural agitator.

Princess will want to join all sorts of sports groups, dance classes, gym activities, and the outside interests will be wide and varied. But much of this attraction is the need to meet as many people as possible. And this will probably always be an important part of life for Princess. This position of Mercury often suggests a real humanitarian who will get involved with global issues. There will be the ability in adulthood to work tirelessly for a cause. Princess will be persuasive and able to effectively draw in helpers. The ability to see the big picture, and visualise an end result, is the sign of this expansive little mind.

Their attitude will be impersonal and sometimes cool, but always friendly. This child will be comfortable in any sort of company, regardless of background, race, or creed. Their attitude is totally non-judgmental. However, any rigid establishment may hold little respect for Princess. Any red-tape that proves prohibitive or unreasonable will be blown away with no conscience at all. Much of the thinking here can be a little off the beaten path or unusual.

Venus in Gemini

Venus is the planet of love. This tiny planet is responsible for the stirring of the soft and sensual pleasures of nature. Venus opens the doors of appreciation to beauty, harmony, creativity, and of course, love, and affection. Venus arouses and stimulates our senses.

Venus is important because it shows how youngsters interact. It is where children learn to share and give. Venus shows how Princess attracts love and attention and also what and who Princess is attracted to. This planet will indicate whether the basic nature is warm and affectionate or whether there is some reserve attached.

Venus is also about our creature comforts and possessions - what we need in life to feel good. Venus indicates our creativity and artistic talents and the ability to appreciate beauty. Good, bad, or unusual taste will be seen through Venus.

The house that Venus is in indicates the area in which artistic talent is expressed. This is where the expressions of sensual understanding will be valid and utilised. It can also suggest where Princess may need special attention and nourishment, in order to learn how to interact with others.

For future reference, Venus in the signs, houses and aspects will be quite revealing about relationships with the opposite sex and matters of the heart.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

With Venus, the planet of love and comfort, in the energetic sign of Gemini, Princess will be a real little social butterfly that flits, charms, and chatters. This energetic and naturally curious youngster thrives on variety. Also, a natural restlessness makes them hard to pin down. They go from one interest, one friendship, and one conversation to another at lightening speed. Delightful as they are, these children do need to be trained to slow down a little, to finish off before darting off on a new venture. No one would want to clip these entertaining wings completely, but just a little gentle guidance could make life easier in the long run. Princess will like to meet all and everyone and have as many friends as possible. The more people in their life, the less bored they will be.

These children express themselves in a lively way. Others will probably enjoy the sense of humour and clever wit because Princess will know how to amuse people. As this child grows up, they can find it hard to form a deep attachment to someone. They will play the field rather than settle down.

These children could well be interested in art and poetry when they are older and should always get a lot of pleasure out of reading. Their choice will be of the lighter, entertaining stuff because they don't like stories that are heavy and complex. Princess will love company, but the natural preference is for 'casual' - without the complication of an intense emotional commitment. However, there will never be a shortage of friends and company. This highly entertaining child is well able to pick and choose who their best friend is and still remain in high demand.

Princess will love all sorts of electronic games that call for speed of wit and dexterity of the fingers. String instruments - guitar perhaps - might appeal for the same reason.

This highly entertaining and charming little party animal will simply love to feel the pulse of life at all times.

Venus in the Twelfth House

12th House: This is a rather abstract House. It is the place of retreat - and rejuvenation. It is the dream world. It is where and how the child escapes. This is the House where learning and getting in touch with the inner self occurs. This House can harbour fears and phobias. In many ways, the 12th House can be a lonely place, but many lessons are learned from this area and many talents emerge. The realms of the deepest imagination are touched through this House.

This child with Venus in the 12th House is likely to be reserved and rather quiet. They can be rather private about letting their feelings and emotions hang out for the world to see. These children are affectionate. They are warm and friendly, but they often do not have the confidence to trust. There is often a big fear of rejection. These passive children watch what is going on, they 'feel' the atmosphere and read the subliminal messages, and they wait to be recognised and included in whatever is happening. Try to encourage Princess to be a little more outgoing and confident. From an early age, introduce groups where creative interaction is the objective. Never push this apprehensive child. Allow Princess to accept a new situation, but gently nudge early interaction. If this confidence is not dealt with, Princess will miss out on valuable friendships. The most beneficial company will be similar type children - children who are refined, gentle and, probably, equally shy. They could all sit around waiting for someone to instigate the first move. Teach Princess how to do just that. When trust has been established, Princess will be utterly and completely loyal and giving. At times, these children will acquiesce in order to maintain a friendship when they should stand up for their own beliefs. But again, this child could fear rejection. Obviously, they must develop a confidence and a belief in themselves. These children are beautiful, gentle souls who are capable of giving so much. There could well be quite amazing creativity hidden away here because there will be a strong sense of fantasy and a vivid imagination which will need some air. Photography or the likes could prove to be a source of fascination and talent.

The twelfth house Venus shows a solitary child - a child who needs a certain amount of time to be alone. Princess will be very compassionate. This little one will need a lot of drawing out because there is a lot of depth. But often there is not the confidence to let the true light shine through. This needs lots of love and encouragement.

Mars in Taurus

Mars is essentially the "I am" in us. It is the "I -me -and -mine" - the basic, subjective ego. It is our energy, our initiative, and our drive. It is our aggression, our temperament, and our passion. Mars is the physical side of our psyche. A strong Mars makes for great sports people because they will be competitive with a real desire to win. Later in life, Mars indicates our sex drive.

This is a fiery little planet, so a strong Mars is a "fiery" little person who runs on high octane - one who will never know when to stop. The "water signs" can dilute this energy somewhat, or can perhaps drive the passion inward. The "fire" will then not be so obvious. However, once we get the hang of our Mars sign, it is an important part of us. It is the fuel on which we run.

Princess has the energetic little planet Mars in the sign of Taurus. This child will be built for comfort rather than speed. These children work quite slowly and patiently, and they hate to be rushed. Anything that they attempt will be done thoroughly and they will not give up. Princess does have great staying power and good levels of concentration. The meticulousness that Princess takes to complete a task more than makes up for the lack of speed. There will however, be strong resistance to a stopwatch approach. This child will be quite stubborn. Their nature will generally be placid and content but don't be fooled by this. If Princess is pushed too far, the "bull in the china shop" will emerge. And Princess will have a very long memory if crossed, too. This is the classic "don't get mad, get even" syndrome. It is important that these youngsters are encouraged to not hold emotions in. They need to express how they feel. They can sit back too much and then get very cross about it all. The reason for the odd blow-out is often due to the straw that broke the camel's back. These weighed down little ones get to a stage where they have simply had enough.

Princess might need to have a few lessons on how to share. These children can be possessive and take all that they own very personally. They like to own things - and lots of things. Possessions can be this child's security blanket. But Princess will also hate to throw anything away. The bedroom can get to look like a market place if this is not addressed early on. Appeal to their caring nature. When clothes or toys have outgrown their usefulness, suggest Princess gives them to a charity or to someone who is in more need. This appeals to their superiority, and will make this child feel "good."

This child can be a little jealous and possessive of family and friends. They will need to learn that friendships and relationships do not run on ownership. Princess must learn to trust that sharing does not mean losing. That is the underlying fear - that by sharing, all will be lost. These kids are not particularly competitive either. A very good way to solve many of these insecurities would be to encourage Princess in sport or a hobby that involves a bit of healthy competition. Then Princess will learn that give and take, win or lose, is all part of the game.

The onset of puberty could take Princess a little by surprise. The physical changes can be disturbing and the fact that special friends can all of a sudden start "falling in love" will seem threatening. But this is an earthy sign so generally, Princess will find this sometimes difficult transition quite an easy path.

Mars in the Eleventh House

11th House: This House focuses on school friends, acquaintances, and any interaction with groups outside of the family environment. It involves the developing of skills within social and sports clubs where expanding and sharing ideas and ideals is the issue. This House includes influential peer groups and help received along the way, which includes hopes and inspiration.

Princess has Mars in the 11th House. These children like to be around people who are active, vigorous, and independent. Probably Princess will prefer being with boys rather than girls.

Princess will like to work and play with friends, or in any group activity. It seems much easier to do chores and to keep on working when with other company around. At the same time, this child will be very independent. They will have their own opinions and they will stand up anywhere and say just exactly how they feel. Princess can go it alone, but these children do prefer company. And yet, Princess may have to try harder than most to be fully accepted. In many ways, these youngsters do not know how to conform and do not really want to. Princess is not a follower. They like to be a part of the action but they want to do it their way. Princess will not be afraid to put in a great deal of effort in any group activity, but the manner in which they participate can sometimes come across as being disruptive.

These children tend to attract quite dominating friends - friends who will oppose Princess and try to dominate. But in many instances, Princess will benefit from some influential and powerful people along the way. These kids seem to attract strong people in one way or another.

This little one will try to burn the candle at both ends. Lessons will need to be taught that we all need rest. And Princess may have to learn to accept that their basic "inner character" is a little different. These children are, in fact, quite unique individuals, no matter how much they want to be "one of the crowd."

Jupiter in Leo

Jupiter is a slower moving planet that stays in the same sign for about a year. Its sign has a direct personal effect only when it is in close aspect to the Ascendant or Midheaven, or forms a strong aspect with one of the personal planets. Jupiter is the planet of expansion, growth, and often, luck.

The house position of Jupiter relates to areas of life in which we will want to grow. It shows the area in which we are likely to think positively and optimistically. In a general sense, things work well for us in the house that Jupiter occupies. The keyword for Jupiter is expansion. That can be physically, mentally, or spiritually. Jupiter's position can relate to the expansion of assets relating to financial freedom, or perhaps, even, weight.

Princess has Jupiter in Leo so will have an enormous sense of pride. This child will think big. There will be a huge imagination. Princess will like to be the star of the show. In fact, this is quite an entertainer. The nature can be quite pushy, but these kids need to be in the spotlight. They feel good being watched and noticed and they do like to make others happy. The ego can be a bit out of proportion but do not try to squash this too much. Certainly, Princess cannot hog the scene all of the time. Appeal to their generosity in correcting faults. If anyone knocks the precious pride, Princess will be wounded to the core.

Princess just loves a spectacle and has a great love of grand and glorious fun. But sometimes it may be necessary to convince these kids that biggest is not always best.

While young, there is a tendency to play to the audience because they like to identify with adults that they respect, such as teachers, parents or perhaps grown ups in general. They will want their peers to notice them. This little one is inclined to boast and perform to the hilt when they feel most sad and lost inside. When they are feeling good, they are content to let their abilities and achievements speak for themselves. In many ways, Princess simply thrives on attention.

But as an adult, Princess should be a very capable and organised leader. There will be a real optimism and a belief in humankind. There will also be a love of beautiful things. As a successful adult, Princess will like to display any wealth and success. The attitude will be "if you have it - flaunt it". This child will always like to be liked, - if not admired. This can be quite a gambler that spends with great ease in adulthood. Money will be for spending and enjoying.

Jupiter in the Second House

2nd House: This House is about values and possessions. It is the "my things" attitude. It is where nourishment is needed to feel confident and secure. This House is about experiencing the sensual fundamentals in order to feel fulfilled and loved. This House puts a real value on tangible assets and it is where real fears are born with respect to deprivation. It is also where we learn to provide for ourselves if we must. It is where we discover our "comfort zone".

Princess has Jupiter in the Second house. These kids respond with their senses to the many sensual experiences. They will tune into music, enjoy nice smells, soft toys. And, of course, taste. They will probably really enjoy their food.

Princess will be very warm and affectionate wanting lots of love and cuddles. Princess will also like to collect things. These children can compensate their insecurities by amassing far too much. If they feel threatened or abandoned, possessions will be their comfort zone. The more insecure they feel, the more extreme this trait will become. Quite a selfish streak can emerge when this little one "feels" neglected or denied. But if this child is loved and showered with warm affection this will not be a problem. They will share what they have quite gladly and in fact be quite generous.

When older, Princess could work hard to earn the money to travel. As an adult, making money should be relatively easy, but these people are considered to be big spenders too. Everything they buy has to be large and elegant. Jupiter in the 2nd House often indicates rather privileged finances and spending powers. As a child, these kids just like to spend. What they buy may be a waste of money, but as they mature their taste and discretion improves. They will become confident in their own abilities, both with finances and with vision. Speculations will often pay off.

Saturn in Sagittarius

There are always two sides of Saturn - what is, and what can be. Saturn stays in the same sign for approximately two and a half years, so all of the children born around the same time as Princess will show the same characteristics. Saturn in the sign is therefore personal only when forming one or more aspect(s) with the personal planets, the Ascendant, or the Midheaven.

Read these aspects thoroughly to be more aware of Saturn and what it has to teach this child.

Saturn is all about progress, but it is the slow and sure progress - nothing happens quickly with this rather severe planet. This is where we learn the art of survival. Saturn makes us stop, look, and listen and not go rushing in. This is where we come up against brick walls, where we have to review the lessons learned and modify the next move.

Saturn makes us accept responsibility, accept a challenge, and move forward. Saturn is the reason behind many of our fears, our sense of guilt and our sense of failure, but, again, when we beat these obstacles, we are so much wiser and stronger.

The House in which Saturn falls signifies the areas where life can be tough. Nothing seems to come easily, and yet the prospects are of significance. This is the area where our fears will have to be addressed, and where our confidence will need to be lifted.

Discipline and patience will be badly needed here in order for us to gain control. It is where we must stop and think, but ultimately we learn from Saturn - he is a great teacher.

Saturn is often related to the father figure, or the "authority" figure that influences Princess. Difficult aspects with Saturn often indicate problems in this area.

Saturn often sounds rather negative which is not accurate. Consider Saturn as a hurdle that is there to be conquered - not as an obstacle to fear.

Princess has the planet, Saturn, in bold sign of Sagittarius. Saturn puts some limitations on the exuberant Sagittarius. The attitude will be quite serious. The ethical and moral approach to life will always be very strong, in fact, almost staunch.

These kids will have quite a deep and penetrating mind but will put a whole lot of thought into their work and theories. Once an idea is formed, the attitude can be dogmatic with a stubborn reluctance to expand or move on those opinions. So much effort goes in to reaching a conclusion that Princess will be horrified to think that even the smallest point could have been missed. There can be an almost self-righteous approach to life and philosophies.

Princess will live by a set of principles that are very high. There will be a natural respect for authority and the establishment. The basic belief structure will be in tune with traditional. Later in life, Princess could need to face a major challenge with religious or philosophical views.

The ambition will be to learn and to reach out intellectually, but the necessary openings might not come easily. Maybe Princess is too hesitant to grab the chances that crop up, or perhaps the right time and the right place just simply does not happen. Reputation is very important.

This combination can be helped with encouragement to broaden the outlook. Teach Princess that true learning comes from an open mind and being receptive to alternative ideas. If this child can widen those horizons and reach for the stars, the intellectual mind will be as expansive and as limitless as the universe that is out there.

Saturn in the Fifth House

5th House: Creativity, having fun, playing with, and mixing with others - the essential social interaction. This is the house of developing life skills that involve contact with company. This house is about developing the skills to become popular, confident, and socially accepted. This house also relates strongly with children.

Princess has the planet, Saturn, in the 5th house. These kids will try very hard to make a good impression, but they can in fact try too hard. Princess will seem to be reluctant to let expression flow naturally, and yet there is a deep need to turn on a good performance. There is a fear of being wrong, so a whole lot of time and effort will be put into getting all the legwork done before any attempts at anything is initiated. Princess will be armed with all the facts before taking a chance and showing the hand. This can be due to low self-esteem, which will need to be built up.

Princess can struggle to fit in with other kids, tending to stand on the sidelines watching wistfully as everyone else has fun. But of course, Princess has to play and have fun just like everyone else. They have to mix in with their own age group and feel a part of the crowd. They have to learn to relax. The preference will be for games that teach something but ensure that the emphasis is put on word "game". Do not let Princess confuse leisure with work. In many ways, these kids can constantly be seeking approval from the parents, and if this is forthcoming, the courage to act out naturally will just happen.

Saturn in the Fifth House is often a person who seems to be rigid and uptight. They like to be in control and they are competitive in whatever they do. In sports, hobbies and school - they want to be the best. When they are older, these patterns will continue in relationships. Princess could well look for older or more serious partners and close friends. But also with maturity comes the realisation of talents too. Often a hobby can turn into a money earner for these people, which could well be operated with some success within the home.

Uranus in the Tenth House

10th House: This House points to the dominant parent. That parent's attitude, expectations, and ambitions for the child are reflected here. Here is an indication of how the child deals with responsibility and with authority. An ambition to "be someone" or to be recognised in this life is associated with the powerful 10th House. The sweet smell and taste for power and success emerges from this very zenith of the natal chart.

Princess has the erratic planet Uranus in the Tenth House. This very restless child will want plenty of freedom but will be quite inconsistent and difficult to follow and understand. Princess will not accept discipline readily, so Princess will automatically challenge authority. But the reasons are not sinister. This rebel can rattle the traditional with relish and ease, and this does become a bit of a game. However, this same character will attract respect for being open and honest, and not being afraid to express opinions that are different. Princess will want to be acknowledged as being quite bright and an innovative thinker. These children need to challenge in order to learn and grow. There is a heap of independence and a strong will to be 'unique' but this is a part of the nature.

An important role model (parent) will probably be considered a little unorthodox which can be the origins of Princess being the non conformist. In a way, Princess as a child may be disillusioned and feel a sense of disappointment from the lessons learned from this important person. It could be felt that the traditional nourishment is not provided. But this parent, or role model, is playing the part that was intended.

In adulthood, Princess will have a unique and offbeat approach. Powerful and very clever creativity can be present, coupled with a colourful turn of expression. However, compromise and patience will cause problems. Great ideas and the powerful intuition will be a guiding light that motivates this child, and having to fit within a set of rules or established procedures will be another challenge that will be impossible to resist. Consequently, sparks will fly and Princess will go it alone anyway no matter the cost. This personality will never be afraid to make decisions and take authoritative action, either with or without the support of others.

There could be many career changes because Princess will just hate routine and any sort of 'sameness'. There will be a strong interest in modern technology, communications, or even the scientific fields. Astronomy, astrology, or the more complex occult subjects could be of interest.

Princess will have to learn a little discipline though. Without a bit of compromise and daily routine, it will be too easy for Princess to simply dart from one activity to another, getting nowhere. This would be a sheer waste of a whole lot of unique ability.

Neptune in the Tenth House

10th House: This House points to the dominant parent. That parent's attitude, expectations, and ambitions for the child are reflected here. Here is an indication of how the child deals with responsibility and with authority. An ambition to "be someone" or to be recognised in this life is associated with the powerful 10th House. The sweet smell and taste for power and success emerges from this very zenith of the natal chart.

Princess has the planet Neptune in the Tenth House, so will have quite a charismatic nature with a big open smile. The dominant parent will have quite a powerful influence over this child. Princess could expect too much of this parent, or perhaps, the parent could expect a bit too much from Princess. Either way, there can be a danger of an unrealistic or one-sided relationship. It is important that this child be allowed to develop in its own way. These children must be able to make their own decisions, choose their own directions, and plot their own path. They can be too easily influenced by outside pressure and simply let personal ambitions slide. Princess will have some wild and wonderful ideas of who or what they want to be "when they grow up", and this can be fun. But later in life, Princess could find it difficult to decide what to do in reality. It can be particularly difficult for Princess to settle on anything that truly appeals. The sense of image may not clearly reflect the actual ability. This child may well want to aspire to higher than what is possible. Perhaps Princess will just simply not get the recognition that is deserved. So these kids do have to be very careful in the choice of what they want to do with their lives. Learning to set attainable goals will help this process. Dreams are fine, but the feet still need to stay on the ground. Teach Princess to let the illusions flow on paper, or creative expression of some sort, but also guide the need for practicality. When the time comes to find the right path, Princess will have to put in more effort than most. This can be helped if decision making is a part of life from an early age. Try to insist that Princess feel free to decide even if the choice seems very wrong. Talk it through, encourage ideas, and push open discussion on every alternative.

Neptune in the 10th House suggests that Princess may well head for a career that utilises sensitivity and caring. Often there will be little thought of reward - maybe a career in religion, nursing or another profession which involves taking care of the sick, disabled or disadvantaged people. Whatever the profession or whatever force drives Princess, it will not be ambition - but rather a sense of service and duty that will be the driving force. These kids must live their own lives for themselves.

Pluto in the Seventh House

7th House: This House is about close friends and best friends. It involves relationships and learning to interact with others. It is about sharing and receiving. The lessons from this House will mould the character that will evolve into the "outer self" through interaction. The seventh House will always involve "intimate associates or friends".

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Princess has the powerful Pluto in the Seventh House which means that relationships and friendships with others will play a significant role throughout life. Most of the major changes that Princess will go through will be the result of the company that is kept. Many of the friends these kids attract will be very strong willed and powerful. These friends may try to change this little person. It may be quite a struggle to be independent - often giving the feeling of being overpowered. Princess does have to learn to enjoy friends but not be quite so gullible. These children will need to learn to think independently, make up their own minds, and develop their own ideas and ideals.

But then Pluto in the house of relationships can mean that this child will try to dominate their friends. It is entirely possible that mind games and power struggles will actually come from them. So, whatever way this powerful planet works for Princess, the lesson has to be in the realms of compromise and independence. The lesson is that ownership does not come into love and friendship.

When older, this will have a strong effect on the relationships with the opposite sex. Princess will always look for relationships that are very intense emotionally and so again - there will be the seesaw of power struggles - about who is going to control whom.

It is likely that later marriage or personal relationships will drastically alter this child's life. No doubt, the partner will be especially strong-willed, and there will be some major tests of wills. But, when this "power" thing is put into perspective, Princess can be a very wise counsellor who will be able to give good, constructive advice. The lessons learned will be sound.

Planets in Aspect

EXPLANATION OF THE ASPECTS

An explanation of the Aspects: These are very important in any natal chart. It is when 2 or more planets "make connection" with each other. To be of significance, the "orb" or degree of this connection, must be relatively close. All the Aspects are of significance, but some are more powerful than are others. And, of course, they all have different meanings.

All of the aspects that are relevant are automatically listed in order of strength. Obviously, the higher the strength the more relevant and potent the aspect.

Conjunction: A powerful and dynamic aspect. This is when two or more planets are sitting right next to each other and they will either back each other up, or compete against each other. Being in the same sign and same house adds up to a lot of weight.

Trine: A distance of 120-degrees between any planet forms a "Trine". These planets will be in the same Element so they will blend well and flow. The Trine brings comfort, ease, and benefit with little effort.

Sextile: The distance between any planets involved in a "Sextile" is 60 degrees. This aspect brings the opportunity to be productive or creative. But the energy of the Sextile must be used - it will not just "happen" Both planets will fall in either Masculine or Feminine signs, so they are compatible.

Square: There will be a 90-degree separation between any planets involved in a "Square". Here is an indication of obstacles and stress that need to be worked through. The planets "square off" against each other but - these are personal learning curves of life. These are hurdles for us to jump but through them we learn and grow. The lessons from Squares tend to be subjective. These aspects will be in signs of the same quality.

Opposition: As the name suggests, any planets that form an "opposition" will be smack, bang opposite each other at 180-degrees apart. This is where one learns to compromise and give a little. The opposition usually involves other people. These lessons are quite objective. Being in polar opposite signs of the zodiac, these planets mirror each other.

Inconjunct also known as the Quincunx: This is considered a "minor" aspect but is about our personal growth and long-term development in the area of the personality. It shows us our limitations and how we can expand a little. The distance between the two celestial bodies here will be 150 degrees apart. Being relatively minor, the orb used is generally rather tight. This aspect would be almost exact to rate in this interpretation.

Mercury square Midheaven (Strength: 5.50)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

The inquisitive planet Mercury is square to the Midheaven, so Princess will have a very active mind. And there will be a careful eye, from a young age, on the future and the many prospects. But these kids will change their mind a million times about what they want to do "when they grow up".

The mind is very active. Each new venture will give fresh ideas. But, Princess will tend to spread the energies too thin. A lot of ground gets covered, but finishing off or learning a subject thoroughly will be a big problem. For this reason, self-discipline must be slipped into the itinerary very early. Princess must learn to stay with an idea long enough to understand it.

These children will enjoy games, especially games that involve the mind. They may be very good at puzzles and other activities that require cleverness.

Princess will be quite restless and will need plenty of mental stimulation. The mind needs to be kept busy. These kids like to talk with others and to feel that life is moving quickly - otherwise they get bored. And if this little one gets bored, it will drive everyone insane.

But Princess is quite capable of being able to think very clearly, and slowing the pace. Patience can indeed be taught. It is all discipline. If this is not done, Princess is likely to drift from one career to another rather than settle and take full advantage of the potential available.

Another problem in adulthood can be verbal expression. Words can be too hasty and rather caustic which will offend. Often this can be due to frustration but it can be a definite disadvantage in the work place. Learning to monitor and register how the attitude sounds to others can be a great help. Being frank and honest is great, but when this comes out as an accusation or as sarcastic, the benefits dwindle. And much of this problem will relate to frustration - all of which can be cured with learning the art of patience and consideration very early on.

Sun square Jupiter (Strength: 5.15)

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

The Sun squared off to Jupiter makes for a potentially egotistical child. But this is a great aspect if toned down just a little. Without some training in the area of restraint, this child will have little respect for anyone in authority. This can lead to major difficulties especially with the onset of adolescence. These kids need to learn respect. And with this aspect, they will indeed be willing to learn. They are not hostile or anti-social. They are just very open and very honest and simply do not stop to think.

Princess will probably always have the natural impulse to overdo everything. Moderation is the major lesson that needs to be learned. On the plus side, there is excellent foresight and intuition that will be a great help when making decisions. Princess will instinctively recognise the good moves which will be seen as a bit of a gamble, but lady luck is often with this character. However, the best way to utilise this gift is to also plan and have an alternative in sight. No matter how invincible these kids think they are, they can mess up as quickly as the next person.

Princess could also be over the top in the sense of self-worth too. This kid can stretch the imagination when relating a success story and exaggerate just how good they are. This can become the "braggart" that we have all known at sometime in our lives. If this is so, it will make for a much more popular and credible person if this is nipped in the bud.

"Big" will always be better as far as Princess is concerned. These people do not place a big importance on amassing money. They like to spend it. They can be a lot of fun and great company if they learn very early to respect other people and water down that ego a little.

This is one of the "better" squares.

Mercury opposite Saturn (Strength: 4.60)

The oppositions bring about awareness through compromise. Conflict within the opposition can involve either internal or external issues.

With the busy little planet Mercury opposing the limitations of Saturn, Princess may have difficulty communicating with people. These kids can struggle to find the right words although their word power is very strong. The problem is finding the confidence to spit it out. They know that they get it wrong and this makes things worse. These kids have to learn to stop, listen, and think carefully. With this aspect, they will tend to take a pessimistic stance with no provocation at all. These questioning children seem to want to expect the worst. Princess can work on this problem by listening more carefully and learning to see two sides to an issue. The next step is to train Princess to give the better alternative some air rather than to expect the worst. Also train in letting others have the same privilege. This communication problem comes about because, in a way, these kids try to be too precise. They try to be too superior perhaps, rather than just being average. Often there is a deep need for recognition and so these kids try too hard. Their standards of work will be very high, but their expectations of the self are high too. Princess can be seen as a rather negative influence because the standards set for self and others are simply right out of the ballpark. Again, this can be curbed with a bit of early training.

These children can be prone to depression and mental anxiety. Princess must learn to relax and not take life quite so seriously. There is a need to realise that we are all the same. We are all good at some things and not so good at others. Who cares?

Mercury challenging Saturn can be beneficial for the adult personality, but it can be difficult for the child.

Moon opposite Uranus (Strength: 4.16)

The oppositions bring about awareness through compromise. Conflict within the opposition can involve either internal or external issues.

With the emotional Moon opposed to the disruptive planet Uranus, Princess is likely to be very moody and very stubborn. These kids like to think for themselves. They prefer to do whatever they want, when they want. Uranus is not an emotional planet. It is full of surprises and quite impersonal, so this opposition drains a lot of the sensitivity from the Moon.

But, Princess may well feel that the relationship with the Mother figure is too remote, not providing the stability and warmth that is needed. It could be that the Mother figure has a career, or strong interests. Or she may not be a true maternal type, and this is what Princess picks up on from an early age. However, even with the most loving Mother, Princess will be fearfully independent and quite unique. So, accept that this is a hallmark of this aspect.

Lots of love and a warm environment will help to teach this little one to accept and project a warmer image. But too much of the over-emotional will send Princess heading for the hills. Princess will feel uncomfortable. Heap on the praise, smile indulgently at some of the eccentric things that this kid will do and they will get the sustenance they need.

And you will be proud of the inventiveness and the originality that will be uniquely Princess.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Saturn square Midheaven (Strength: 4.10)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

With Saturn square the Midheaven, Princess could have problems dealing with authority. These kids feel that teachers, even parents, do not accept them and are just out to make life hard. Often this child will feel very much alone and that no one really cares about them, so they withdraw. But this is not usually true. These kids get a bee in their bonnets and make it impossible for anyone to get close to them.

Princess needs to learn to cooperate and fit in. It is also possible that this little soul is not getting the emotional support and love they need. It could stem from the home where affection is not a part of life or perhaps too many burdens are put on for some reason. Maybe expectations are too high. Somewhere along the line, this little one does need to go out into the world and find people who are warm and loving. Friends who care, share, and offer support. The bottom line is that Princess needs to feel "good" within - to develop some confidence in the ability to achieve, and to be totally accepted by friends and peers without even trying.

It will be too easy for this child to simply retreat. If this problem of loneliness and non-acceptance is left for too long, it will be so difficult to shake. The loneliness will become a way of life which will diminish the ability to interact in any way at all.

Even in a warm and loving home environment, these kids can still prefer to remain aloof and isolated. They can actually simply prefer to be alone and feel comfortable within. This can be quite OK, but it is imperative that this is a personal choice rather than a whole set of hang-ups that have driven this child away.

Moon trine Venus (Strength: 4.02)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Princess has the soft and sensitive Moon in trine to the planet of love and harmony, Venus. The nature will be gentle, utterly charming with an aura of serenity that spreads to those in the environment. These children will express themselves in such a way that they are almost irresistible. Even when they get mad, they do it nicely. Princess will experience little difficulty in getting along with anyone at all. These kids like the world and everyone in it and the whole world will like this child.

Princess will hate arguments but will not ignore confrontations hoping they will go away. These kids will get stuck into trying to understand the problem and then take on the role of the arbitrator. They can calm any ruffled feathers with grace and dignity.

A problem with this pleasant aspect can be that Princess is too laid back, too content, and so resists applying any effort at all. These kids can be so obliging and so agreeable that they will not offer or rise to any sort of challenge. The instinct is to go with the flow with as little energy as possible. Princess could need a bit of a push to become motivated and interested in stepping out of this comfort zone.

Princess will have a real eye for beauty. With maturity, there will be a strong attraction to the arts, and even if there is no personal talent, the ability to recognise real talent will come naturally. Princess will be drawn to creative expression in its many forms. Often though, this aspect does indicate creative or artistic ability.

Optimism marks this person's approach to life, and it works for them. These young people are refined and will avoid rough or obscene language or behaviour. This will be a real turn off. With this true ability to sincerely charm people and make them feel at ease, genuine friends will always surround Princess.

Neptune trine Ascendant (Strength: 3.18)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. They can help creativity.

Princess has the planet, Neptune, trine the Ascendant so will be very imaginative and highly creative. This is also an idealist. These kids will be very sensitive to what others feel and need, and with maturity, this will develop further. Throughout life, Princess will be unselfish and giving in relationships and friendships. These kids will often head for friends that need nurturing and looking after, rather than the positive and strong types. And, in adulthood, Princess will be looking for spiritual guidance and spiritual leaders who can enlighten and expand the true meaning of life.

Princess will develop a real interest in fantasy. Stories of the supernatural, ghosts, even outer space, will fascinate. This child will accept the possibility of truth in these views. Later in life, this may become an interest in the occult or in spiritual studies.

This aspect can be a sign of very good intuition and even psychic ability. This can always be a bonus for a mature adult, but it is scary stuff for a child. Help in understanding this side of the nature will be needed. Eventually this gift will become the source of much creative inspiration in life.

Sun trine Pluto (Strength: 3.10)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. They can help creativity.

These kids with the Sun in trine to Pluto are good at communicating. They find it easy to gain the confidence of those around them. They have extremely strong leadership qualities. These children radiate great warmth that is powerful. There will be a charismatic air that will be quite hypnotic.

Princess will enjoy doing new things, covering new ground, and trying anything that there is to try, because it helps the realms of understanding. These kids are keenly interested in knowing the mechanics of everything. They will poke and prod until they are satisfied and will never let a chance slip by. These kids have little sense of fear so will be seen to take a few chances. The quest for knowledge includes experiencing as much of life as is possible.

This young person's life may go through quite a few changes, but this will not bother them. Princess will badly want to grow intellectually and spiritually. These kids will want to understand themselves thoroughly. With maturity, they will have a sound knowledge of their potential.

This, actually, is the mark of the born healer. These people feel protected and are able to protect others with their gifts. They are able to influence the people around them in a very subtle way. This is all good stuff, but Princess should learn to understand the sheer power that is available here and learn how to cope with the possibilities. If this gift is not recognised and used as it should be, it could be so easy for Princess to simply use the power part. This would not only be a shame, but Princess will instinctively know that there is "a job to do".

Sun sextile Neptune (Strength: 2.78)

Sextiles bring chances and opportunity. Effort is needed to realise the full potential.

These children with Sun sextile to Neptune are ultra sensitive and will be so easily hurt and bruised. Princess will be a gentle child, attuned to pretty music, pretty colours and a tranquil atmosphere. Even a dark look will be misinterpreted and taken personally. These poor kids think they are the source of any discord and have to be taught that this is not so.

This child will reel against anyone who is aggressive and domineering - they will just "give in". But they will quietly get real mad at being manipulated. Princess will "feel" very strongly. This is not a wimp. But these kids need to be trained to stand up, say what they think, and not be afraid of the odd argument. When they get upset or angry, they must learn to feel free to express how they feel, not let the frustration build up. There is a big need to develop a lot more confidence. This will need some help from an early age. Confidence is probably not a natural function.

These kids are so tuned in to the personalities around them. They pick up powerful feelings, premonitions, and understanding that can be scary. There could well be psychic or clairvoyant gifts here that could explain why they are reluctant to "say what they think". Maybe they truly do not understand where the thoughts come from. Check this possibility out, as this can be a real source of confusion for such a timid child.

But this is a wonderful aspect for Princess to have. In almost any kind of creative activity - art, music or poetry, these kids can see and express ideas that are denied most of us. The imagination is a treasure trail of the mystical and the fantasy. It is no wonder this little one wanders off regularly.

This is also an idealist who would very much like to see a more beautiful and perfect world. Princess does have to accept that this world of ours is not perfect - and yet it is still beautiful. Nature itself throws in some odd quirks, but that is how it was meant to be. And that is life and the human race as well. And that's OK. Try to instil a natural blend of inner vision and outer reality that does not destroy this enormous hope that Princess is blessed with.

Moon square Pluto (Strength: 1.76)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

Princess has the Moon square Pluto. The moods and reactions are often so intense that these kids actually do suffer a lot of inner stress. This is a dark and deep aspect that can hint of childhood experiences that are quite horrible. These kids can be exposed to hidden dangers that may never see the light of day. This poor child can carry a huge burden making it is difficult for them to love and to trust. Throughout life they will constantly test relationships.

But whatever the reason, these kids expect rejection and hurt. When they are with people they like, they can be jealous, possessive, and quite controlling. This is for fear of losing that love and caring far too much. Princess will need to learn to accept that love does not evaporate that quickly. This could well relate to the family and probably the Mother figure. Princess may simply expect more than the "Mother" is able to give, or it could be that the relationship is not a very strong one. In growing up, Princess is likely to go through some very heavy times where the support of friends and family will be badly needed. These kids do not handle "change" all that well and yet their lives will probably have more radical and major changes than most. These difficult times will tug on the emotions in a big way. Princess could really suffer badly. But these are stages in this child's inner growth that will help them in their adult years. A sense of caring needs to be a backdrop for Princess to reach for and trust fully. Do not allow this child to feel abandoned or lost.

Eventually these kids will understand themselves well enough to deal with these deep feelings constructively. The growing pains Princess will experience will be quite difficult but that is what they are - growing pains, harsh as they may be.

Moon inconjunct Mars (Strength: 1.72)

The inconjunct (quincunx) involves the willpower and the areas where our "thinking patterns" need some work.

With the Moon inconjunct Mars, Princess is likely to need quite a bit of help in learning how to handle the feelings. These emotional kids are easily frustrated and when this happens, a fiery temper will emerge. The Moon waters down the heat and force of Mars, making it difficult for these kids to understand the energy that bubbles within. There is a competitive kid here, but the will to win turns in to being scared to lose. Princess can actually fear competition and this can cause aggravation. These kids can feel that pressure is put on them to perform and will get cranky in order to "get out" of a scary situation. Much of the attitude can seem to be selfish because Princess will have a strong sense of ownership. When opposed in any way, the reaction will be subjective and self-protective. Again, perhaps, the fear of not winning is just too much. The problem is that these kids react emotionally to absolutely everything and feel wrong in doing this.

The relationship with the Mother is very important to Princess. The maternal support, or lack of it, can eliminate or exaggerate the problems attached to this aspect. When this relationship is detached, or lacks warmth, these kids can struggle to identify with the female sex throughout life. All women that pass through life will be made to pay for the damage done. The emotional outbursts that we all suffer will be aggressive, or even violent - and, this will be how Princess will cope. However, with a comfortable and warm relationship with a "Mother" figure, Princess will learn to be confident with a strong set of principles, and will develop the ability to ride out the roughest waves. Princess will develop a strong sense of purpose that can be quite inspirational. With maturity, sound leadership abilities will develop, and the independent nature will be a bonus. But, emotional sustenance, and full support, is vital during those early years.

Jupiter trine Uranus (Strength: 1.55)

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Princess has the big planet Jupiter in Trine to the erratic planet Uranus. Uranus moves very slowly, so this aspect will affect all of the kids in the same age group as Princess. Unless there are other aspects between these two planets and the more personal planets, this aspect should be looked at in a rather general way.

These kids will generally love their freedom, will be independent, and hold a strong set of principles. They like to see that everyone gets a fair break. They will make it their business to "do something about it" if they do see any sort of injustice or unfairness within their midst. These kids can make this their mission in life.

These youngsters will accept the rules but they will also ask for justification if they feel that practices are questionable. They can rather resent custom and tradition. These kids are quite visionary and are quick to see fundamental changes that are needed in the establishment. These are tomorrow's kids. They believe in progress.

Saturn inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 1.55)

The inconjunct (quincunx) involves the willpower and the areas where our "thinking patterns" need some work.

With the planet, Saturn, inconjunct the Ascendant, Princess will have a rather severe and serious manner. It is quite likely that the parents run a disciplined household. Their very attitude may discourage the children from messing around and having "kid type" fun, placing the emphasis on work and study. Princess will have all the attributes to put in plenty of effort anyway, so it is important that fun time and being a "child" is included in the curriculum. The necessary rounding for a successful and well-adjusted adult comes from work and play. These kids have to learn to relax and mix in with others kids their age and to develop their social skills.

Most of all, these children will need to be encouraged to believe in themselves and to recognise the personal strengths. They may have to be helped to realise that, as an individual, they are important. They need to get some personal satisfaction from life. Happiness and a sense of freedom are very important too.

This aspect can indicate some sort of health problem that needs to be taken seriously. It could be the area of health that is the reason the childhood is restricted. The sheer necessity of having to take extra care can inhibit Princess enormously. However, this aspect can also signify that Princess is too hung up on health issues for no reason at all. Is this an attention thing? These kids can have a lot of difficulty expressing how they feel, which can be just another indication of a lack of self-confidence. All of this will change if Princess gets positive emotional support from the parents and the people that matter most.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Jupiter inconjunct Pluto (Strength: 0.95)

The inconjunct (quincunx) aspect involves the willpower and the areas where our "thinking patterns" need some work.

Jupiter Inconjunct Pluto: Pluto moves very slowly, so this aspect will affect all of the kids born around the same time as Princess. Unless either of these two planets gets reinforcement from a close contact to one or more of the inner planets, this should not be considered particularly personal.

These kids will want to change lots of things. They have strong opinions. They can see right through the establishment and badly want to improve the world around them. These children may have a natural talent for dominating others, which should be curbed rather quickly. They can be effective at influencing people, but a selfish, overbearing attitude will cause major problems. Allow this child to have a point of view, respect some of those good ideas, but also take time to instil a bit of good old-fashioned caring and compromise.

This aspect often signifies the ability to either forge ahead - and do well, or, equally, gather some rather powerful enemies.

DOMINANT PLANET(S)

The prominence of the Planets and the contacts that they make with each other define the strongest Planet(s) in the Natal Chart. Some planets make a lot of "noise" which you will see in the area of the "Aspects" whilst some are just waiting for something to happen. The following are considered the Powerhouse Planets and their meetings and positions add a further dimension to the attitudes and aptitudes of Princess.

There can be more than one "strongest planet" in which case the person will have a natural ability to dance to many tunes - they will be adaptable and versatile. But if one planet or luminary comes through as the absolute leader, then the person will be very specifically made up of the flavour of that celestial body.

Sun Dominant (Strength: 23.58)

The Sun is technically a star - a big, bold, invigorating star that essentially marks our individuality and drives our willpower. It is the light of our lives. When the Sun is predominant in the Natal Chart, the child will have an abundant personality that will literally be blinding. They have the natural ability to bring the sunshine into a room with them. Princess will radiate true warmth.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

These kids will be natural, creative, and magnetic but can be puffed up in their own self-importance too. Self-esteem is all-important, and although Princess will have plenty of confidence, the ego is a hungry ego - it will be continually looking for nourishment. Like the sunlight itself, Princess can dazzle. But when the shadows fall, what you see and what you get can be two different things. These bright young things can promise but not be able to deliver, although the original intention would always have been honourable.

This child can also overheat at times and will blow the odd fuse but will never hold a grudge. They will cool down quickly. The Sun is closely associated with Leo, and the predominantly Sun person will want to be the Star of the show. Princess will want to shine. These are very warm-blooded creatures. They need to be able to give and receive love freely.

These proud kids command respect and wilt if seriously challenged or ignored.

Princess will be ambitious but will get there with dignity and charm rather than serious push and shove. These children will manoeuvre their way to stardom. They will be very fair and honest and will genuinely love people.

Ascendant Dominant (Strength: 21.20)

The Ascendant is not actually a House. It is an Angle and a very important angle. It is the beginning of the Wheel and defines the subsequent Houses, as explained previously in the area of the Ascendant. However, having close contact with either of the luminaries, or with one or more of the planets (via aspects), energises this "point", and it dominates the character and outward personality even further.

Princess will project the Ascendant in a powerful way. This child will have a strong personality. A strong physical presence will be hard to miss. These children will like to be in the thick of anything that interests them. Princess will seldom be noted as an idle bystander. This child will be well able to stand on its own two feet and will be instrumental in helping others along the way too. There should be loads of energy - at least enough for two. Princess will be able to make decisions, and lead from the front and will probably gather quite a few followers along the way.

On the eventful journey through life, this little one will probably invest a lot in their many friends. They will contribute substantially to those with whom they mix, but will, in turn, learn a lot through interactions with others too. It would be unusual if this child turned out to be a "loner" or anti-social in any way. But it is very important that the Sign on the Ascendant is given close attention. If there are any negative aspects flowing to the Ascendant this could indicate strong lessons that have to be dealt with in the area of the personality.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

The image that these people project though, will be one of their most powerful tools.

Jupiter Dominant (Strength: 20.49)

Jupiter is the big benevolent planet of expansion, self-improvement, and knowledge. A predominant Jupiter can be very fortunate. Jupiter expands on all it touches - even the waistline through over-indulgences. Princess will be optimistic - cheerful with a winning smile. There will be a thirst for knowledge. Princess will probably be the eternal student who will know something about everything, being especially interested in the "bigger" issues. The global issues, the universe, politics, the legal system, and the law. Often a strong Jupiter type will set themselves up as judge and jury on matters of principle. They can state their case clearly and in the most persuasive way. These kids soon learn that they do emit a power, which they will enjoy. Equally, they will gravitate towards powerful and inspirational people from whom they can learn. The "idols" that Princess singles out are likely to be in the realms of a world leader rather than the latest pop star.

These kids will have magnetism. Just their sheer sense of joy will carry them, and others, to dizzy heights. However, they can get carried away with their own self-importance and not take anyone else's opinions into consideration. They can easily miss the wood for the trees when they get up on their soapbox. This does not make this child selfish, as they do not relate to the futile and small notions of human nature. They simply get too pumped up to stop and listen.

Jupiter is a huge planet but astrologically it is also seen as relatively light and agile. It simply will not allow itself to get bogged down.

Some Keywords for Jupiter: Opportunity. Expansion. Enthusiasm.

Negative: Fanatical. Indulgent. Smug.

DOMINANT SIGN(S)

The Strongest sign often coincides with that of the Sun in the Natal Chart because Mercury is the Sun's closest companion - they are never far apart. Venus also sticks quite closely to the mighty Sun, and to a lesser degree, Mars never strays too far away. So, one or more of these planets are often in the same sign as the Sun at birth adding further strength.

However, in many cases the "outer" planets can gang up and create a very strong, but quite a different, influence. This area of the Chart will either add more weight to the colour and personality of this Child or it could add a further hue to their approach and intensity.

If there is more than one "strongest sign", which is likely, the person will have various facets to their approach and abilities, and so will scatter their energies somewhat. If there is one singleton sign, which outweighs the rest, Princess will be more easily recognised by the attributes of the sign involved.

Pisces Dominant (Strength: 166.08)

Pisces, the sign of the Fishes, figures strongly in this chart. There are so many types of fish - goldfish, tropical fish, deep sea fish, fresh-water fish and so on. And the Pisces person has so many facets to their personality that they are often called "dual". Generally, the true Piscean is gentle, peaceful, very sensitive, and truly compassionate. They are quiet and can seem withdrawn. They will often go off by themselves or to their bedrooms just for some peace and quiet. These kids will have a fantastic imagination, and that is where this little soul goes. They will burrow deep into the imagination where everything is beautiful, mystical, and serene. But these kids can also go where there are monsters and where the distortion of evil overwhelms them. So, the imagination is fine, taking time out is healthy, but escapism can be dangerous ground for this child.

Princess absorbs everything through the senses picking up bad vibes in an instant. These children feel any hostility as soon as they walk into a room - they don't need words. The Pisces person is always very sympathetic and will always listen to any tale of woe. Others will trust this sincerity and caring. Princess will be very adaptable but will dislike confrontation of any kind. This child will defend any friend who is in trouble but walk away from personal issues of hurt and disappointment. These kids can have a lot of difficulty making a decision. They will be easily distracted. This child will also hate to hurt anyone or say "no", so these kids can be quite easily led. This little child will be very sentimental, so they will count down their birthday each year and will be good at remembering everyone else's special day too.

Pisces is the most psychic sign of the zodiac but these "gifts" can be confusing for the young child. Princess will doubt the sensitivity and "go bush" rather than discuss what is happening. As they get older, this could well be a valuable tool to use. This little one will also have powerful dreams so will need to be able to talk about the scary ones. Princess will need the assurance that it was "just a dream".

Libra Dominant (Strength: 147.22)

One of the strongest signs in this Chart is Libra, which is symbolised by the Scales. Libra is all about balance, harmony, and creating the most pleasant atmosphere possible. Princess will be friendly, affectionate, and usually very courteous. There will be a sort of charisma that makes this child the darling of their "elders". They do like to please, and they like to look good. This child will learn how to use this natural charm very effectively from a very young age. Princess will probably like cool clothes, designer labels and will take more care about the personal appearance than most. These children will want to have all the latest gimmicks as soon as they hit the shops.

This child will always prefer to be with another friend or in a group. They do need the assurances that they get from company. They draw strength from others and have a great need to share all that they have and know. The Libra personality sees itself as one half of a whole. They need company to feel complete.

These kids will be very fair and will always come out in defence of the underdog. They will always listen to both sides and assume the role (very well too) of the arbitrator. Libra also signifies justice; the child who has this sign so strong will be a sound judge and jury if the rules are broken, or if someone is getting hurt in an unfair process.

A problem that Princess will have though, is trying too hard to please. This child can struggle to make a real decision. It is often better to make the choices yourself if a quick decision is needed. These kids will weigh up all the pros and cons and either say "you decide", or else will want to take both options. This diplomat will bend over backwards to please and will work very hard not to offend.

Libra is often described as "lazy Libra". These children can take a long time to get motivated, but when they are committed to a task, they will hang in there for as long and as hard as it takes. However, these kids do seem to "stroll" rather than rush.

Sagittarius Dominant (Strength: 121.91)

One of the stronger signs in this Chart is Sagittarius, the Archer or the Centaur. This child will develop both physical and mental strength and also, stamina. Princess will always love to learn. These kids can make excellent teachers later because they like to share their knowledge and their expressive ways make them entertaining and easy to listen to. These kids can improve on the truth to add a bit more flavour to an experience or a story they are telling. This is not done in a menacing way - Princess will simply love to tell a good tale. Often a strong Sagittarius influence shows strongly in sports teams. Princess will be competitive, well co-ordinated, and will have the ability to encourage and drive team efforts. The attitude is also very fair.

These kids are capable of quite profound thinking and will develop a strong philosophy as they grow up. Interests lean towards the more universal subjects. The "big issues" will fascinate Princess. Often the thinking goes way beyond "global".

Princess will probably love the outdoors, the wide-open spaces, and will be fond of all creatures great and small. Even as youngsters, these kids will really enjoy school camps or even family camping holidays where they can get in touch with nature. They relish the beauty of the planet, Earth, and the elusive wonders of the beyond. These kids can wear themselves out though as they will never admit that they are tired. They want to be on the go the whole time. There is just so much for them to see and do. These are generally very happy and contented kids; they see the best in everything. They are not usually petty and their optimism gives them a good outlook which is contagious. These kids are able to lift the low spirits of those around them, and if they cannot, they will move on. Princess will avoid moody people who try to dampen the atmosphere in any way.

This is the sign of the "traveller", and these children will be interested in different countries and different cultures. Princess will probably be keen to buy a backpack as soon as possible and head off to see the world. It will be to experience the world and its people rather than as the average tourist.

DOMINANT HOUSE(S)

The Houses in the Natal Chart are very significant because they indicate the areas where we have been born lucky or where we have serious work to do. The Houses define the areas in life where we expend our energies, where we find recurring issues with which we have to deal.

The basic Natal Chart is simply the blueprint of the Heavens at the exact time of our birth. But in reading a child's chart, there is a different emphasis. Obviously a child "reflects" its everyday environment during the formative years and this Natal chart for Princess acknowledges these reflections. In the case of a child, many of the attitudes and habits are reflections of the upbringing and environmental influences. Often work needs to be done to reach out for the opposite House to achieve a fuller picture.

It is very important to apply these interpretations with the dominant sign and the planets involved. Together, they make much more sense and will be more easily recognised.

The report gives a "one-liner" explanation for each relevant House throughout the basic Chart, which relates to children.

Tenth House Dominant (Strength: 156.18)

10th House: This House points to the dominant parent. That parent's attitude, expectations, and ambitions for the child are reflected here. Here is an indication of how the child deals with responsibility and with authority. An ambition to "be someone" or to be recognised in this life is associated with the powerful 10th House. The sweet smell and taste for power and success emerges from this very zenith of the natal chart.

Princess has a lot of weight in the 10th House, which traditionally points to career, status, and reputation. The 10th House for the child is about peer groups, parents, teachers - the 'in crowd'.

Princess will have a strong set of objectives. This little one will set firm goals and will be quite selective with whom they mix. These children have such a strong sense of purpose that they will not take anyone seriously who does not have a sincere agenda.

Princess will have a natural respect for authority. Because the paternal figure is often indicated through this House, it is likely that the 'authoritative person' plays a major role in this child's life. Sometimes though, that 'figure' can apply quite a bit of pressure.

Often with activity in the 10th House there can be quite a lonely or hard childhood, especially if there are oppositions, (aspects - please check), that come from the 4th House. There will be a strong need for personal security. This is probably why these children figure out when young that the hard yards are needed to get results. Besides, they also figure that independence and knowledge is power, and that will be a key to the aspirations of this child. Princess will ultimately want a bit of power. That simply means being completely in charge of personal issues in life and their ultimate destiny. There can be a real need to 'prove'.

This little one does have to reach out to the opposite House, the 4th House and let their emotions flow, not feel afraid to show how they feel, not be quite so 'grown up' all the time. They will be as vulnerable as anyone else will, and they have to accept that we all hurt at times - and that's OK. We all have to cope with 'less than perfect'. That is quite normal. At some stage in their life, this child may have to put in some work coming to grips with a part of the childhood that they did not understand or quite accept.

But a powerful tenth House does suggest ultimate success or recognition eventually. This might be localised, rather than making world headlines, but this little character does have a solid destiny.

Eleventh House Dominant (Strength: 150.06)

11th House: School, friends, acquaintances. Groups. Clubs. Influential peer groups. Hopes. Inspirations.

This child has a lot of Planets in the 11th House. The 11th House is about the kids at school, and groups, such as play groups, girl guides, boy scouts, sporting clubs - or maybe, dance classes. In general, it is about collective groups.

Natal Horoscope Child Report for Princess Charlotte of Camberidge

Princess will have a lot of friends from all walks of life. This child will thoroughly enjoy being a part of a group where they can share some of their many interests. Princess will enjoy being a part of organised activity. However, interests will not stand still because from an early age this is all part of the development. These children are likely to be full of enthusiasm for one interest, and then bounce off in a totally different direction, leaving their previous passion behind them. But they will have learned a lot and met a whole bunch of new people. Friends will be important to these children. But as they grow up and head into those adolescent years, they are likely to gravitate toward all "types" of people and get involved with some real "oddballs". Princess may well be attracted to the fringe-element type crowd. A part of this child with a heavy 11th house likes to be different. They like to buck the system. They like to challenge the establishment. They like to rebel.

But this child is people-orientated and will want to "speculate to accumulate" in the area of experiences. Often being part of a group is more important than forming real close relationships. This is quite an intellectual House. Exciting and stimulating subjects is the buzz that these kids crave. In reality, the "excitement" of being part of a group "thrills" as much as the topic in hand.

In many ways, this child does have to lean towards the opposite house, the 5th House. Try to get to know the people with whom they are involved. It would be good for Princess to form closer personal relationships, rather than just pay "membership fees" to be part of the crowd. It will help to make sure that the activities that Princess wants to participate in are of real interest. Or are they just another "joy-ride"? The danger with the emphasis on the 11th House is that Princess can spread the social bit too thinly and realise little of substance in anything.

Fourth House Dominant (Strength: 115.56)

4th House: The early home environment. The Mother influence. Early development.

Princess has a very strong 4th House influence. The 4th House is the early environment and the teachings within the home. It pertains quite strongly to the maternal influence. The 4th House is also indicative of new beginnings. Princess will be strongly attached to the Mother figure, who will have a powerful influence in the way this child thinks and behaves, providing the yardstick that this child will use to run its own life later. A few psychological tensions can be present. There is a real need for emotional security even within a relatively secure family atmosphere. These kids will tend to suffer quite badly from low self-esteem and will seem to be a lot more emotional than the rest of the family. It is likely that this child will burst into tears very easily and will be rather clingy and moody. But, they will make their feelings felt by throwing a sulk, or by storming off, rather than by throwing a tantrum. Consequently, they often do not clear the air. They will let their hurts linger for far too long because they will never forget.

Generally, these kids will probably have a very good memory, which they can put to good use throughout life. Everything about the childhood will be carefully preserved and committed to this vast memory bank. These kids, more than any others, will have a deep and lasting attachment to their childhood and all the memories that go with it.

The 4th House is at the base or the foundation of the Chart so it is a powerful point in any chart. This little one will need to reach out to the opposite House, the 10th House to look beyond the home, in order to reach out beyond the parental influences. The 4th house dominant child can use what they have learned to become who they want to be in their own right. They need to learn to look outwardly and reach for the stars, rather than cling to the past forever.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

DOMINANT ELEMENT(S)

The four elements figure strongly in the definition and interpretation of the signs. The dominant element(s) can help to identify the personality type quite successfully. In many cases, there will be a combination of more than one, which indicates more flexibility.

It can be quite easy to spot the "fiery" personality, the "down to earth" type, the "head in the clouds" Air person, or the weepy and emotional water character.

Abundant Earth

The Earth signs are Taurus, Virgo, and Capricorn. Earth signs are "down to earth". They are practical, reliable, and quite sensible. These kids will be quite physical, being attuned to their senses. A dominant Saturn can certainly add a lot of weight to the predominance of Earth in this chart.

Princess will be rather conservative. The preference will be to deal with the tried and true. But you can talk this little person into anything, once they have seen that it "works". They like to organise and need order and discipline in their lives, and if they do not have this, they may feel quite insecure. Earth children have a great ability to stay in control, no matter how difficult the environment becomes. They draw on their greatest strength - practicality. The natural ability to be realistic will show at a very early age. But these kids can get too carried away with efficiency and forget to enjoy what they are doing. These children need to be encouraged to develop the imagination, because the combination of imagination and tenacity can be extremely effective. It will also ease the tendency to become dull and predictable.

Another problem can be one of self-image. Very often, these kids see themselves in a poor light, feeling they are not as much "fun" as they should be. But they are serious. They are made this way. There is also the naturally critical attitude making them find fault in themselves far more than is logical. In fact, the high standards that are set, and expected, do need to be brought into perspective. There is the need to learn that a few flaws will not compromise expectations and will actually lighten the load some.

In a very real sense, earthy persons are the "salt of the earth". They are dependable, reliable, and quite solid.

Princess will also develop good taste and will not be afraid to pay plenty for expensive assets when older. There is an eye for quality and an eye for what would be a good investment. Learning to have some fun during childhood will allow pleasure to be taken from all this good taste and good management.

Abundant Air

The Air signs are Gemini, Libra, and Aquarius. Air is considered quite intellectual, communicative, and friendly. These kids will be logical and will like to have a sense of freedom in all areas of life. Dominant Mercury or Uranus will add weight to the predominance of Air in this chart.

Air children are very quick and mentally active. They like getting around the place, meeting new people, seeing new places, and trying different things. Princess will need constant activity, and constant stimulation, because there is a tendency to get bored quite easily. These kids are innovative. They like to stretch the imagination. They will make up new themes to old ideas, change the rules to make the same old games "different" - in fact they will be right into anything that is fresh and new. Princess will enjoy study, usually like to read, and if all else fails, will just like to talk. The strongest talent is the ability to think and reason clearly and objectively. These kids do not let their emotions take control and distort the thinking. And there is usually evidence of a good, strong sense of humour. An abundance of Air can be rather out of touch with feelings and emotions, because they simply do not think "emotional". This can bewilder them at times. These kids can be out of touch with themselves so when logic fails them, they simply do not understand.

It is so important that the parents of air children train them to express the feelings and emotions freely. Princess should be encouraged to explore the imagination. Air people are very good at communicating and are good at influencing others by putting forward a strong argument. A parent should be aware of this ability to sway people, because these kids are convincing and manipulative in a clever way.

The Air people are usually popular because they know how to play to the gallery and please the crowd. They are bound to be refreshing company. And they will certainly be rather entertaining.

Lack of Water

When an element is "lacking", it can indicate a need to encourage the essentials of this "lack", to help round the character off a little. This often happens over time anyway, quite naturally. But watch Princess and you will see if any building needs to be done. But rather than see this as a "weakness", it is preferable to accept that one or more of the other elements comes through more strongly. The apparent "lack" can also be compensated within the chart anyway. It only needs one powerful aspect to add some weight.

The Water signs are Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces.

The absence of Water in the chart for Princess suggests that there may be some difficulty understanding the deeper meanings of issues. This little one could be a little lacking in emotional intensity. This is not to say that Princess will have no feelings, but it does mean that the emotions are not overly exposed and really do not run deep. These kids are not so apt to form extremely close friendships or relationships where they may feel smothered or threatened by strong emotional demands. They recover quickly from emotional bumps and scrapes. They never let disappointments get them down. So, depression is never likely to be a problem.

Many of the aspects of not having water signs are positive. But on the negative side, Princess should guard against becoming rather callous and cold. These kids can give the impression of being detached and unfeeling. Intuitive skills are not readily available to those with few planets in Water signs. This will not be a major problem because these types are not particularly interested in the realms of intuition or whatever. They do not trust intuitive knowledge anyway.

DOMINANT MODES or QUALITIES

The "Modes" or the "Qualities" often indicate how we initiate our actions. The Cardinal types are firm, confident, and are better starters than they are finishers. The Fixed types are quite reluctant to step outside of the comfort zone. They prefer to stay with the tried and true. The Mutable people are flexible and adaptable but they can be flimsy.

But, again, in many cases there is a combination of more than one mode.

As adults, we look back on our youth and say, "if only I knew then what I know now". How many of us also, as we get older, "discover" a talent that has never been recognised and say "if only". If this Chart report simply indicates a talent that can be nurtured early in life, as opposed to laying dormant for too long a time, or forever, then the author's objective has been reached.
