VOCATIONAL REPORT

This report outlines the career implications of your astrological chart. It contains a wealth of information about your strengths, talents, assets, challenges, and hidden potentials. To avoid getting lost in the details, you may wish to orient yourself by reading the following three sections that summarise the major influences in your chart:

- 1) The Sun's Sign and House Interpretations - your core identity issues.
- 2) The Balance of Elements and Modalities - your psychological needs.
- 3) The Most Active Planets, Points, Signs, & Houses - your dominant drives and desires.

Having read these summary sections, you will be in a better position to understand the more detailed interpretations and to put them in perspective. Read this material with an open mind and an attitude of self-discovery. There are more than 100,000 career choices catalogued by the U.S. government.

To find a fulfilling career, you should first identify your talents and interests and then seek work that fills you with enthusiasm and a sense of being alive. The horoscope is a useful tool in this process. The interpretations in this report are based on your natal chart cast in the Western tropical zodiac for the following birth data:

INTRODUCTION

This section reviews some of the technical aspects of astrology used to generate this report. If you wish to go directly to your personalised interpretations, skip this section and return to it at a later time. The personal information begins on page 5.

This report interprets your birth chart from the point of view of career factors in the horoscope. The material is drawn from four sources: (1) the astrological literature, (2) Carl Jung's writings on psychological types, (3) scientific research on vocation and the planets (especially the work of French statistician Michel Gauquelin), and (4) the author's experience as an astrologer over many years.

Many of the interpretations assume that you know your birth time accurately within a few minutes. If you are uncertain of the exact time, you can either cast a chart for SUNRISE of your date and place of birth or choose the UNKNOWN birth time feature of the program. The sunrise chart provides an informative general report for anyone born on the same date and in the same place on earth and offers a valuable perspective on vocational issues. Clicking on the Unknown time button calculates the Moon and planets for Noon for the place of birth, but places them in a solar houses chartwheel. The unknown time report omits interpretations for time-sensitive points.

This material is based on large statistical samples. Most people find that about 80% of the interpretations fit them closely whereas about 20% appear less applicable. If contradictory traits appear in the report, it is likely that both traits are aspects of your personality, but they are in conflict or vie with each other for expression. Astrology affords one of many perspectives on career potential. You should weigh the contents of this report with other sources of information such as your school record, job experience, vocational testing, your own sense of your likes and dislikes, and input from people who know you well. Astrology can guide you by suggesting options, but you alone have the ultimate responsibility to decide on a career path.

The birth chart outlines your potentials -- what you may become depending on how you develop your talents and confront your challenges and liabilities. It also helps you to identify your essential needs and chief motivations. The chart can both validate what you know of yourself and suggest further possibilities. It is up to each of us to weigh these factors in deciding on a career path that will be satisfying and promote personal growth. There are many paths open to each of us; our final destination depends on the choices we make along the way.

The natal horoscope taken in its entirety is a symbol of the person as a whole. Jung called this type of symbol a mandala. The signs of the zodiac represent twelve basic needs (and their corresponding challenges) that must be met in the course of human development. A particular planet can occupy any of the twelve signs and thus has available twelve different modes (signs) for expressing its fundamental planetary drive or energy.

The houses of the horoscope symbolise the twelve broad areas of life where we seek to fulfil our basic needs. The planets signify the fundamental urges, drives, energies, or functions of the human personality. Each planet occupies a particular sign and a particular house. In addition, the planets make connections among themselves (the aspects) that clarify how these energies connect with each other. Soft aspects (sextiles, trines, and conjunctions of harmonious planets) show natural abilities and things that come our way easily without much toil. Hard aspects (squares, oppositions, and conjunctions of inharmonious planets) show challenges and talents that require work to develop but that may lead to significant achievements.

In vocational astrology the second, sixth, and tenth houses are the most important. The second house indicates what resources (talents, values, money, and assets) are at our disposal for developing our self-worth and making a living. The sixth house symbolises the work environment, our co-workers, and the type of day-to-day labour involved. The tenth house is the quintessential house of career and shows where we can become successful and achieve recognition in the eyes of the world. Pay careful attention to the second, sixth, and tenth houses when reading this report. Consider the signs on their cusps, the planets ruling those signs, and the planets within those houses.

Also consider the strengths and weaknesses of this type of information. A computer-generated interpretation can only list and describe the individual astrological factors in your chart, but it cannot synthesise them into a coherent story. You will need to put everything together into a meaningful whole that best fits your life experience and personal development. At some point, you may wish to consult a professional astrologer for further insight into your birth map.

An important key is to pay close attention to any themes that come up repeatedly in the report. Such recurring themes represent significant needs that must be met for you to have a satisfying career. In addition, because the planet Saturn is so closely linked to what we do in the world, it is especially useful to study the information about Saturn in your chart. In several places, there are lists of various occupations taken from the astrological literature. These job lists should be understood merely as illustrations of general principles rather than as specific recommendations of a career to pursue. It is not possible to pinpoint a single specific vocational choice in a horoscope.

Regarding the Gauquelin research, the author has found that Gauquelin's findings about the meanings of planets in high intensity zones generalise to planets that are emphasised in other ways, according to the rules of traditional astrology.

ASCENDANT AND CUSPS OF VOCATIONAL HOUSES

The horoscope is divided into twelve sections or "houses," which are patterned after the twelve signs of the zodiac. Each house represents a different area of life, and the sign of the zodiac on the cusp of each of the houses describes how we express the matters governed by that house. In vocational astrology, the most relevant houses are the First House whose cusp is the Ascendant, the Second House of income, the Sixth House of daily work, and the Tenth House of Career whose cusp is the Midheaven. The houses are derived from your exact date, time, and place of birth.

The Rising Sign or Ascendant

The Ascendant is the sign of the zodiac that intersects the eastern horizon at the moment of birth. It is closely linked to our sense of personal identity and reflects how we present ourselves to the world. Each sign can be described by its Quality (Cardinal, Fixed, Mutable), its Element (Fire, Earth, Air, Water), and its Polarity (Yin, Yang). Cardinal signs are outgoing and initiate activity; Fixed signs consolidate, build, and resist change; and Mutable signs are adaptable and make way for a new cycle. Fire signs are intuitive and inspirational; Earth signs are practical and dependable; Air signs are mental and communicative; and Water signs are sensitive and emotional. Yin signs are receptive and inner directed, whereas Yang signs are assertive and outer directed.

Pisces Ascendant

Mutable, Water, Yin

Keywords: sensitive, intuitive, creative, imaginative, musical, artistic, poetic, caring, healing, self-sacrificing, humanitarian, spiritual, private, escapist, fond of solitude.

Natal Horoscope Vocational Chart Interpretation for Michael Jackson

With Pisces rising, you tend to be a bit on the quiet side and may not be sufficiently assertive when it comes to getting your needs met. You are unlikely to want to take charge and instead may prefer to let someone else deal with other people or manage a situation. You generally prefer a more indirect, behind the scenes approach. You are rather adaptable and versatile, but you may need outside motivation because of your distractibility and love of variety. Most likely you are an idea person with a good understanding of other people and a knack for being of service. At times you may get a bit disorganised and fail to see the forest for the trees.

The Water element gives you good intuition, emotional sensitivity, and a desire to heal or care for others. Because of your moodiness, you may prefer to work by yourself in a quiet setting. Pisces may also indicate musical, literary, acting, or artistic talent and an interest in mystical or spiritual matters, including life after death. With Pisces here, you should be especially careful to avoid using alcohol or drugs to deal with pressure and tension. Because Pisces is a dual sign, you may find yourself pursuing two careers or working at two jobs to earn a living.

Key phrases for Pisces are "I believe" and "I have faith." People with a Pisces emphasis frequently have a colourful or dramatic flair. They gravitate toward occupations with an artistic, spiritual, psychological, imaginative, illusory, or charitable dimension. There is often an ability to empathise and connect emotionally with others. A knack for sensing the public mood and anticipating future trends is frequent. A key motivation is to understand the workings of the universe on a grand scale. Pisces suggests emotional sensitivity and adaptability, imaginative creativity, and an interest in the inner dimensions of reality. The Piscean desire to serve others may lead to work in religion, medicine, or government. Pisces may also serve others in restaurant work, charitable organisations, or occupations that foster physical, mental, or spiritual well-being. In afflicted charts, setbacks are likely to be due to emotional instability, problems with drugs or alcohol, dishonesty, deceit, scandalous behaviour, or parasitic relationships.

Some occupations signified by this placement include entertainer, actor, poet, musician, artist, sculptor, painter, and filmmaker. There may be an interest in psychology, medicine, research, psychiatry, psychotherapy, nursing, dreams, hypnosis, and meditation, past life regression, mysticism, psychic phenomena, astrology, the occult, spirituality, or philanthropic work. People with a strong Pisces are often employed in hospitals, laboratories, prisons, nursing homes, museums, libraries, or other places of seclusion or confinement.

Pisces is connected (through its ruler Neptune) with oil, liquids, paint, alcohol, drugs, gases, perfumes, chemicals, and with anything that is mind altering or changes our perception of reality. Pisces also governs matters related to the feet and may give an interest in occupations that involve dance, running, footwear, or other forms of the use or care of the feet. Neptune, a ruler of Pisces, was the god of the oceans, and many with this placement have an interest in ships, sailing, long distance travel, the navy, or matters related to the sea.

Some notable people with Pisces rising include Evangeline Adams, Antonio Banderas, Carol Burnett, Deepak Chopra, Ted Danson, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross, Zubin Mehta, Vincent Price, Monica Seles, Ringo Starr, John Updike, and 17th century horary astrologer William Lilly.

The sign, house, and aspects of Jupiter and Neptune, which co-rule Pisces, will give further clues about your self-assertive drives. The same holds true for the decan ruler(s) described below.

SECOND DECAN: Your Ascendant lies between 10 and 20 degrees of Pisces. Hence, your sense of identity comes under the influence of the second decan of Pisces, which is governed by CANCER, the MOON, and Chaldean ruler JUPITER. An interest in music, communication, astrology, hypnotism, psychology, or spirituality is common with this position. Some well-known people with this decan rising include Yogi Berra, astronomer/astrologer Tycho Brahe, Dr. Joyce Brothers, Richard Burton, Al Capone, Deepak Chopra, Peter Dinklage, and Alexander Graham Bell.

Sagittarius Midheaven

Our vocation is shown by the tenth house, the sign and decan of its cusp (which is the Midheaven or MC in most house systems), the ruler(s) of the tenth, any planets therein, and any aspects involving tenth house planets, the tenth house ruler(s), or the MC.

Key phrases for Sagittarius include "I know," "I explore," "I instruct," "I inspire," and "I disseminate." People with a prominent Sagittarius are enthusiastic and energetic about career matters. They gravitate toward work that requires intuition, broad knowledge, and a knack for visualising and anticipating future trends. They are willing to take risks, and they like to spread the word to the farthest horizon. An ability to instruct and inspire others can lead to careers in education, music, the arts, sales, promotion, the ministry, or spiritual counselling. There is often a love of nature, animals, adventure, exploration, physical activity, sports, and the outdoors. Not content with the status quo, they seek the freedom to pursue their ideals and expand their awareness. They often find themselves in jobs that attract some type of public notice or attention.

Sagittarius on the Midheaven is common in the charts of politicians, government officials, lawyers, judges, business leaders, the clergy, artists, dancers, musicians, and literary figures. It is also frequent among writers, teachers, publishers, broadcasters, forecasters, publicists, university professors, religious leaders, theologians, psychologists, social scientists, and philosophers. Sagittarius has a connection with spirituality, higher education, the media, long-distance travel and communication, aviation, exploration, languages, foreign interests, and the import-export business. There is a fondness for animals, nature, and the outdoors that may lead to a career in veterinary medicine, animal training, forestry, or other work connected with animals or the open air. Because Sagittarius is a fire sign, it sometimes indicates occupations connected with fire, heat, or illumination. In afflicted charts, career setbacks are usually due to a lack of focus or discipline, scattered energies, self-indulgence, wastefulness, irresponsibility, disregard for the law, or an overblown sense of self-importance.

The sign, house, and aspects of Jupiter, which rules Sagittarius, will give further clues about career potentials in your chart. The same holds true for the decan ruler(s) described below.

SECOND DECAN: Because your Midheaven lies between 10 and 20 degrees of Sagittarius, your career comes under the influence of the second decan of Sagittarius, which is governed by ARIES, MARS, and Chaldean ruler, the MOON. You need a career that allows an outlet for the physical energy of Mars and the caring nature of the Moon. You would do well in a career that requires self-assertion, physical stamina, independence, initiative, leadership, competitiveness, enterprise, and a pioneering spirit. You may possess athletic ability or be skilled at the use of tools or weapons. Self-employment or freelance work may be appealing. You might like the freedom of working outdoors. Journalism is often a good outlet for the self-expressiveness of Aries.

Aries Second House Cusp

Income and resources are shown by the second house, the sign (and decan) of its cusp, the ruler(s) of this house, any planets therein, and by any aspects involving second house planets, the second house ruler(s), or the cusp of the second house.

With Aries here, you can benefit from work that requires enterprise, leadership, originality, and initiative. You may prefer to be your own boss, or to work out of your own home or private office. You like to be in charge in the workplace, and you enjoy putting new ideas into action. Your occupation may involve the use of implements, tools, metal instruments, heat, fire, or weapons. This position may give an interest in sales, politics, public relations, engineering, research, the armed services, police work, sports, physical exercise, or active outdoor activities. It is also common in charts of physicians, dentists, surgeons, mechanics, hairdressers, and military personnel. Whatever you do, you are likely to be a go-getter who actively pursues clients, customers, and business opportunities.

Leo Sixth House Cusp

Our daily work and working environment are shown by the sixth house, the sign (and decan) of its cusp, the ruler(s) of this house, any planets therein, and by any aspects involving sixth house planets, the sixth house ruler(s), or the cusp of the sixth house.

With Leo here, you would do well at work that allows for leadership, organisational and administrative functioning, self-promotion, and creative self-expression. Leo, the Lion, is king of the jungle, and you may wish to rule your work environment. Your outgoing and friendly nature could lead to an interest in jobs such as performer, entertainer, model, dancer, musician, comedian, journalist, recreational director, personal trainer, or occupations involving the theatre or entertainment industry.

Leo is connected with gold and investments, and some with the placement become bankers, investors, stockbrokers, jewellers, or cosmetologists. Teaching ability is often indicated, and occupations involving children are not uncommon. Leo is fond of animals, nature, and the outdoors, and may indicate an interest in occupations such as forest ranger, landscape gardener, tree surgeon, naturopath, veterinarian, or other work with animals or out of doors. The sun rules Leo and may give an interest in jobs connected in some way with light, heat, fire, or illumination.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Sun in Virgo

The Sun symbolises our core identity and basic life energy. For us to feel authentic, our careers must allow for expression of our Sun sign's creativity and will to be.

Keywords: modest, gentle, methodical, perfectionistic, discriminating, analytical, fussy, critical, conscientious, detail-oriented, sacrificing, communicative, health-conscious.

The symbol of Virgo is the unassuming maiden who is holding a sheaf of corn, symbolising the harvest at the end of summer. A key phrase for Virgo is "I serve." The typical Virgo is patient, kind, modest, unassuming, observant, conscientious, quietly competent, dutiful, efficient, dedicated, critical, discriminating, and perfectionistic. Quick-witted Mercury, the ruler of Virgo and the ancient messenger of the gods, confers a talent for communication. As the sixth sign of the zodiac, Virgo is concerned with health, hygiene, diet, fitness, organisation, precision, and service to others. Virgo natives excel at tasks that demand mental effort, practicality, method, routine, systematisation, analysis, discrimination, criticism, impartiality, manual dexterity, and meticulous attention to detail. Rather than assume the limelight, Virgo often prefers to be the power behind the throne.

In a statistical survey of sun signs by Paul Field (1964), cautious, dextrous and health-conscious Virgo produced the largest number of surgeons (followed by Capricorn and Cancer). Perhaps because of Virgo's preoccupation with efficiency, utility and pragmatism, the Sun in Virgo produced the smallest number of musicians in this survey. As Virgo architect L.H. Sullivan expressed the prevailing Virgo philosophy, "form follows function." Some famous Virgos include Anne Bancroft, Sean Connery, Leonard Bernstein, D. H. Lawrence, Twiggy, Sophia Loren, Peter Sellers, Arnold Palmer, Lyndon Johnson, Maria Montessori, Agatha Christie, Mother Theresa, Lauren Bacall, and Ted Williams.

Natal Horoscope Vocational Chart Interpretation for Michael Jackson

Virgos view their work as an essential part of their identities and run the risk of becoming workaholics. They excel at jobs that others might avoid because of the detail, routine, lack of appreciation, or drudgery involved. Because they enjoy variety and contact with others, Virgos have a talent for occupations that make use of their verbal, communicative, academic, writing, and teaching skills. They are often too shy, however, to let others know how much they wish to be admired for their original and inventive minds.

Sun in Virgo is common in the charts of educators, writers, lecturers, editors, secretaries, printers, journalists, notaries, lawyers, critics, and others whose work revolves around the written or spoken word. The interest in health and care of the body is seen in careers connected with medicine, public health, nursing, therapeutics, herbalism, alternative health, massage, physical training, hands-on healing, ecology, veterinary medicine, nutrition, cooking, clothing, food services, and dietetics. Virgos like to understand how things work and why we act as we do; these traits may lead to occupations in teaching, training, psychology, psychiatry, sociology, social work, and similar endeavours. The Virgo attention to method and detail is helpful in occupations related to mathematics, architecture, building, town planning, science, engineering, analysis, accounting, bookkeeping, economics, time management, statistics, crafts, inspection, financial management, computer programming, and data processing.

Further information about your basic motivational system can be found by studying the house, sign, and aspects of Virgo ruler Mercury. The same holds true for the decan ruler(s) described below.

FIRST DECAN: Your Sun lies between 0 and 10 degrees of Virgo (approximately August 23 - September 2). Thus, it falls within the first decan of Virgo which falls under the influence of VIRGO, MERCURY, and the Chaldean ruler, the SUN. The double Virgo influence can make you especially analytical, critical, and discriminating. You may excel as a teacher, educator, writer, accountant, interpreter, or in any field that utilises your literary and intellectual talents. The Sun may give an interest in sports, leadership positions, or the performing arts. Members of this decan include Leonard Bernstein, Tuesday Weld, Richard Gere, Edgar Rice Burroughs, Johann von Goethe, Michael Jackson, Yasir Arafat, Mother Teresa, and Itzhak Perlman.

Sun in the Sixth House

The Sun represents our individuality, willpower, and sense of self. The house occupied by the Sun reveals areas where we can feel authentic and express who we truly are.

A sixth house Sun gives an interest in matters related to health, hygiene, and the care of the body or mind. This is an excellent position for nurses, physicians, surgeons, teachers, educators, pharmacists, therapists, psychologists, psychiatrists, chiropractors, and those who provide health care services. There is often an interest in the natural sciences and their practical applications. You have a strong desire to provide a service or to do something that tangibly helps other people. A knack for meticulous, systematic, and methodical work is frequent. You may also have a talent for writing, crafts, clerical work, or activities requiring manual dexterity and fine motor movement. There is often a fondness for pets and small animals that may lead to work in veterinary medicine.

Moon in Pisces

The Moon represents our feelings, emotions, capacity for empathy, psychological reactions, and habitual or subconscious patterning. It signifies our need for security and our mothering instincts -- how we feel about, nurture, and care for one another.

Moon in Pisces favours any type of intuitive or imaginative work. You may have a talent for aesthetic activities such as music, art, dance, singing, cooking, painting, sketching, poetry, flower arrangement, creative writing, fashion, design, or acting. If you are more pragmatic, there might be an interest in jobs involving detailed work that requires creativity, drawing, and imaginative problem solving (e.g., engineer, draftsman, sheet metal worker, car detailer, web page designer, book editor or publisher, electrician, etc.). You are emotionally sensitive and have a natural understanding of human motivation. These traits could lead to a career in nursing, counselling, social work, teaching, medicine, anthropology, psychology, psychiatry, psychotherapy, criminology, public relations, acupuncture, healing, charitable work, or anything that seeks to uplift the human spirit or assist those who are disadvantaged or confined to institutions (hospitals, nursing homes, prisons, etc.).

There is often a special fondness for animals. Athletes with a Pisces Moon are usually quite graceful and have an intuitive feel for their sport. Some with this position work in fields related to liquids, oils, gases, chemicals, drugs, alcohol, or anything related to the feet. You value your privacy and may prefer to work alone, at home, or behind the scenes, sometimes in a quiet setting such a library, laboratory, or museum. There is often psychic ability and an interest in religion, spirituality, magic, divination, or the occult sciences. Risks of the placement include nebulous thinking, the unwise use of drugs or alcohol, and a tendency toward self-deception, self-sacrifice, or martyrdom.

Moon in the First House

With a first house Moon, you have a natural ability to reach out and make emotional contact with other people. You have a good sense of public tastes and moods, and you are likely to be sensitive, empathic, creative, intuitive, and imaginative. These skills can lead to success in sales, advertising, public relations, popular writing, journalism, photography, broadcasting, counselling, teaching, psychology, healing, pastoral work, caring for children, or occupations that meet basic human needs (food, clothing, nutrition, etc.) or promote the public welfare. You probably enjoy travel, water related activities, and time spent by the sea. Some with this placement are quite restless and undergo many changes of fortune with regard to job and residence. There is a fair chance you will decide to change careers in early to mid-adulthood.

Mercury in Leo

Mercury is the messenger of the gods. This first planet from the Sun represents our mind and thinking process -- how we learn, analyse, reason, and communicate. It also reveals how we use our hands, move our bodies, and explore our surroundings.

You enjoy being intellectually creative and expressing yourself in a dramatic or spirited manner. Most likely you are an entertaining writer or speaker who likes to let your intellectual talents shine. Typically there is a command of the language and a masterful sense of style. You may also have a knack for finance, business negotiation, stockbroking, or speculative investing. Your willpower is strong, and you pursue your goals in a unique and creative manner. Some with this position overvalue their opinions and are a bit self-centred and fixed in their thinking and way of doing things.

Mercury in the Sixth House

Your mind readily grasps details, specialised knowledge, and technical or scientific material. You probably have an interest in diet, health, and hygiene. You could succeed in a career that renders service to others, especially service related to maintaining physical or mental health. There is often analytical ability, manual dexterity, and a capacity to manage large amounts of data. You are a true craftsman who enjoys the practical application of knowledge and ideas. A facility with writing, criticism, speaking, lecturing, computers, typing, and other means of communication may be useful in your occupation. This is a favourable position for surgeons, skilled technicians, computer specialists, or anyone involved in the practical applications of the natural or biological sciences. Because Mercury was the messenger of the gods, your job may involve travelling, running, secretarial work, conveying messages, or moving about.

Venus in Leo

Venus is the goddess of love. This second planet from the Sun rules our affections, values, enjoyments, and how we relate to others. Venus also governs art, beauty, adornment, pleasure, fun, and our sense of appreciation of the finer things in life.

With Venus in Leo, you are likely to have a dramatic flair and a need for self-expression. This would be a good placement for an actor, teacher, entertainer, singer, dancer, performing artist, director, or anyone who needs to attract and hold the attention of others. You may be drawn to people in positions of power, fame, or authority. Some with Venus in Leo do well in banking, finance, stockbroking, or investing. There is often a fondness for pomp, elegance, show, and a grand performance.

Venus in the Sixth House

A sixth house Venus reveals a talent for detailed work that provides a service or practical benefit to the physical or mental health and welfare of others. Your job may involve computers, information processing, typing, clerical work, or technical methods. A fondness for animals is common. Typical occupations include veterinarian, chiropractor, nurse, dietician, chef, secretary, receptionist, computer programmer, chiropractor, therapist, attorney, baker, and Internet service provider.

Mars in Taurus

Mars, the fourth planet from the Sun, is the ancient god of war. Mars represents our libido, initiative, and physical energy. The sign and house placement of Mars reveal how and where we express our passion, assert ourselves, and expend our energy.

You prefer to work in comfortable surroundings on projects that you can see through from start to finish. Your common sense, persistence, practical attitude, and problem solving abilities are definite assets. The energy of Mars flows naturally into endeavours related to bodily activity and sensual comfort. There may be a talent for massage, hands-on healing, precision work, sculpture, craftsmanship, or anything requiring muscular exertion and the skilful use of your hands. You are good at building, constructing, appraising, and accumulating things. There is frequently a knack for business, finance, accounting, economics, and money management.

Mars in the Second House

You have a talent for investigation, research, and any kind of detective work. Your ability to assert yourself and convey can lead to a leadership position. You may derive income from Mars-ruled matters such as engineering, mechanics, weapons, the military or police work, competition, athletics, iron, metals, hardware, surgery, haircutting, or fields related to fire, cutting, drilling, probing, or the use of mechanical devices or sharp instruments. Because the second house rules money and income, you could do well in business, banking, or finance. The high energy and boldness of Mars often indicate entrepreneurial tendencies or money that is earned through endeavours requiring physical skill and exertion.

Jupiter in Libra

Jupiter, the fifth planet from the sun, is the king of Mount Olympus and the most benefic of all the planets. Jupiter represents expansion, wisdom, the higher mind, and the broadening of horizons. The sign and house placements of Jupiter show how and where we encounter good fortune and continue to grow in body, mind, and spirit.

Jupiter in Libra enhances your sense of fairness, justice, and impartial decision-making. You are able to grasp both extremes of a polarised situation and to achieve some type of balanced understanding. Your objectivity and sense of proportion could make you an excellent scientist, researcher, mathematician, or accountant. There is often a strong religious interest. Libra is a sign connected with beauty, balance, form, and harmony. Jupiter here may indicate a career involving the arts, music, literature, decorating, fashion, or any field connected with the appreciation of beauty. Because Libra rules partnerships, the individual may achieve success working in collaboration with others.

This placement is common in the charts of bankers, theoretical mathematicians, lawyers, judges, prosecutors, artists, designers, college professors of literature, counsellors, advisors, psychiatrists, and those who deal with the adjustment or balancing of relationships. Your refinement and good taste are assets in any career.

Jupiter in the Eighth House

Jupiter here brings benefits through eighth house matters. You may gain through a legacy or through a partner's finances. There may be a talent for investing or managing other people's money. A serious interest in research or investigation is common. You may be drawn to psychology, social science, the occult, or other fields that deal with forces that are hidden or beneath the surface. There is often an interest in healing that can lead to a medically related career. The eighth is a financial house, and Jupiter here may lead to success in banking, accounting, investing, tax advising, and so on. Because the eighth house rules sex, death, rebirth and transformation, you may benefit from work involving such matters.

Saturn in Sagittarius

Saturn, the sixth planet from the Sun, is the most distant planet that can be seen by the naked eye. It marks the outer limits of the visible solar system and has been called at various times the Cosmic Teacher, Father Time, and the Grim Reaper. Saturn symbolises limitations, hardships, boundaries, fears, and the lessons we must learn. Like all good teachers, Saturn rewards hard work, discipline, and persistent effort.

In Sagittarius, Saturn gives an appreciation of philosophy, literature, science, religion, the law, society, and higher education. You have strong ideals and you value tolerance, wisdom, and human understanding. You could do well in fields that utilise your intellectual gifts and capacity for disciplined thinking. Careers that are favoured may involve anything that expands your horizons in an orderly or methodical manner. Examples include education, teaching, travel, languages, foreign interests, journalism, writing, publishing, filmmaking, broadcasting, or other ways of disseminating information. You are able to put your intuition and ability to forecast future trends to practical uses. Some with Saturn here are good at organising or managing activities related to sports, animals, or work outdoors. With persistent effort, you can become an expert or authority in your field. Risks with this position include overvaluing your own moral code and trying to impose your beliefs on others, or, in extreme cases, ignoring societal norms and taking the law into your own hands.

Saturn in the Ninth House

A ninth house Saturn often indicates a studious person who is good at science and other ponderous subjects. You may enjoy reading the classics or other weighty philosophical, or religious literature. Teaching ability is common, and you may end up writing and publishing something in your field. You may have a knack for taking the pulse of public tastes and being able to forecast future trends. Many with this position have an interest in politics, social science, culture, higher education, anthropology, law, psychology, computer science, the Internet, or the serious study of occult subjects like astrology and Tarot. Business related travel is also common.

THE THREE OUTER PLANETS

In our solar system, Saturn is most distant planet from the earth that is visible to the naked eye. The three outer planets -- Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto -- lie beyond Saturn's orbit and can only be seen by telescope. These outer planets spend many years travelling through each sign, and thus they tend to affect an entire generation. Only their house placements and close aspects are significant in the interpretation of an individual horoscope. Though not personally significant by itself, the sign placement of the three outer planets can reinforce similar traits found elsewhere in the horoscope.

Uranus in the Sixth House

Uranus is the first planet beyond Saturn's orbit and outside the boundary of the visible solar system. It symbolises breaking through barriers via originality, inventiveness, and progressive ideas. Uranus reveals where we can express our novelty and uniqueness.

A sixth house Uranus sometimes indicates unusual working conditions, or an occupation that is innovative or out of the ordinary. You may have considerable technical, analytical, or mathematical ability. Your work may be related to health care, pharmaceuticals, nutrition, electronics, computer science, or New Age subjects. You could also be involved in alternative medicine, acupuncture, chiropractic, herbology, or other therapeutic endeavours that are not quite in the main stream.

Uranus in Leo

Uranus in Leo marks a generation with unique and progressive ideas about leadership, education, children, entertainment, music, recreation, and sexual activity.

Neptune in the Eighth House

Neptune is the ancient god of the oceans, which are fluid, without form, and boundless. It dissolves the limitations set up by Saturn. This planet symbolises all that is cloudy, nebulous, dreamlike, mystical, or illusory. Neptune represents compassion, intuition, empathy, sacrifice, and spiritual development. The placement of Neptune reveals where we may care for others, pursue our ideals, and be at one with the universe.

An eighth house Neptune reveals a capacity for intuitive insight and psychological attunement with other people that, in some cases, indicates a hypnotic influence over the masses. Things that are mysterious, illusory, occult, metaphysical, mystical, or otherworldly fascinate you. You may be drawn to psychology, astrology, counselling, medical research, healing, alternative medicine, nursing, or spiritual development. For some, a desire for deep emotional connection and understanding finds expression in film, music, or art. If Neptune forms stressful aspects, there may be unusual or unconventional beliefs about sexuality or matters related to death and dying.

Neptune in Scorpio

You belong to a generation of sensitive and intuitive individuals who are attuned to unseen forces and the hidden aspects of reality. There is tremendous potential for spiritual growth, healing, and transformation.

Pluto in the Sixth House

Pluto is the ancient god of the underworld who ruled the realm of death and darkness. It represents immense power, transformation, radical change, renewal, and rebirth. The placement of Pluto reveals where we express our needs for control and regeneration.

A sixth house Pluto often gives an interest in occupations related to power, control, healing, health, psychology, medical research, therapeutic techniques, the social sciences, government work, public welfare, and matters connected with death and dying. You are likely to be a hard worker who does not mind putting in long hours to get the job done. Your work may involve penetrating beneath the surface, ferreting out secrets, or revealing what is hidden - much as a photographer develops the unseen image concealed on an exposed piece of film. A talent for business and finance is not uncommon. Pluto here sometimes indicates the potential for contact with illegal or criminal activity in the workplace, which you would be wise to avoid.

Pluto in Virgo

Pluto in Virgo enhances any ability you have for meticulous, careful, analytical, and detailed work. This placement also reinforces any other factors in your chart that indicate a talent for financial analysis or for methods of healing the mind and body.

North Node in Libra

The Moon's North Node reveals areas of potential for growth.

In Libra, the Moon's North Node advises you to develop your sense of fairness, harmony, diplomacy, proportion, balance, and justice. Success follows upon learning how to make long-term commitments, which involves learning how to share and how to give and take in relationships. You should avoid selfishly or impulsively seeking immediate gratification, since this turns others off and works against your own best interests. You would do well to develop your talent for balancing relationships.

North Node in the Eighth House

In the eighth house, the Moon's Node suggests that you focus on your need for emotional, psychological, and spiritual transformation. More than most, you spend time contemplating human mortality. You may be drawn to work related to medicine, psychology, psychotherapy, occult studies, psychic phenomena, or metaphysics. You like to get to the root of matters, to penetrate beneath the surface, to take things apart in order to restore them to a better working order. Some with this position enjoy chemistry or scientific research. There may also be a talent for managing other people's money. Performers with the placement often have tremendous sex appeal.

Part of Fortune in Virgo

The Lot of Fortune is an Arabic Part related to material well-being.

The Part of Fortune in diligent Virgo indicates success at fields that require careful attention to detail, craftsmanship, intellectual activity, communicative ability, and technical know-how. You would do well in an occupation that provides a useful service or ministers to the physical, nutritional, or mental health needs of clients. Typical examples include work as a technical writer, computer consultant, gourmet food chef, nutritionist, restaurateur, photographer, acoustics specialist, social worker, electrician, healer, therapist, psychiatrist, fashion designer, medical researcher, and field representative. You benefit from your high standards, critical and analytic abilities, and keen sense of discrimination.

Part of Fortune in the Seventh House

The house position of the Part of Fortune reveals an area of life that can bring you good fortune. In the seventh house, it suggests that you may benefit through marriage or partnerships and that you might do well as a counsellor, advisor, consultant, mediator, or advocate. You are likely to be popular and may work in a field that caters to public tastes or fashion, or that allows you to "reach out and touch someone." This is a good position for anyone who takes on clients to provide a professional service. You do well by establishing bonds and sharing experiences with others.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Introversion and Extraversion

The follow section takes a broad look at your chart from the viewpoint of the predominance of the four elements or temperaments (Fire, Earth, Air, and Water) and the three modalities or modes of action (Cardinal or initiating, Fixed or stabilising, Mutable or adapting and transitioning). It draws on Jungian psychology and Jung's notions of introversion and extraversion to describe how the same astrological trait manifests for introverted versus extraverted personalities.

Introverts are inwardly directed, prefer to work alone or with a small number of people, generally reflect before they act, and would rather read about or ponder an issue than socialise or talk with others. Extraverts show the opposite characteristics. Extraverts are outwardly directed and come across as sociable, positive, outgoing, and confident. They love to talk and socialise, and they prefer to be with others rather than alone.

The value in determining whether you are more introverted or more extraverted is that the same astrological factors can be utilised to pursue different careers depending on whether you are focused inwardly (introverted) or outwardly (extraverted). For example, a person with a preponderance of the element water/feeling in his or her chart might prefer to write and publish poetry, if introverted, or might use that water element to become a successful actor or performing musician if extraverted.

If you have access to the Internet, you might wish to take the Keirsey Temperament Sorter Quiz to determine your degree of introversion and extraversion. It is located at <http://www.keirsey.com/cgi-bin/keirsey/newkts.cgi> where you can also read about the career implications of your personality style.

Having decided whether you are more introverted or extraverted, read the following section to see which elements and modalities are most emphasised in your natal chart.

Abundant Water

Keywords: emotional, sensitive, caring, compassionate, imaginative, poetic, musical, psychological, healing, nurturing, spiritual, intuitive, psychic, inner directed

An abundance of water in a chart correlates with Jung's function of feeling. You are sensitive to the feeling tones and emotional resonance of whatever or whomever you encounter. Water is very intuitive and tends to make decisions on the basis of emotions. You are concerned with values and with the appreciation of relationships, of things, of events, and of the psychological states of yourself and others. Memories and reminiscences are important to you for their emotional value. Water seeks to penetrate beneath the surface, to find the deeper meaning of things, and to understand and remedy any problem it uncovers. You probably have a special talent for the musical, metaphorical, "right brain" type of thinking. Psychic ability is often present.

You are a loyal friend to the significant others in your life, and you have a strong sense of heritage and tradition. Your sense of time is focused toward the past and its emotional significance in your life. You are readily able to establish an empathic connection with others and may be drawn to jobs that utilise this talent (e.g., sales, customer relations, counselling, etc.). Water is intuitive and possesses a gentle healing energy that can lead to success in nursing, psychology, psychiatry, or any of the healing professions. Water's attunement to feelings is also favourable to careers in the arts, dance, music, acting, or any field that involves sensitivity to the emotional states of others. You will need to find a way to make use of the dreamy, mystical, otherworldly quality of Water in your career path.

Introverted feeling types direct their attention inward to their own emotional and psychological life. They are drawn to careers where they can express themselves creatively and often in solitude. Here we find poets, composers of music, writers of romance novels, mystics, monks, cloistered nuns, recluses, hermits, meditators, and others who withdraw into their private world in search of spiritual development and inner peace. At its extreme this emotional withdrawal into oneself can result in states of melancholy and depression.

Extraverted feeling types enjoy human relationships and readily connect with the feeling states of others. Often they are seen as the "life of the party." They are exquisitely aware of subtle nuances in the feeling tone within a situation, and they can use their personalities to adjust or manipulate their emotional environment. Their talent for connecting with others emotionally can make them successful actors, performers, entertainers, or political leaders who are able to sway the masses. Their desire to nurture may lead them to careers in nursing, counselling, social work, psychotherapy, the ministry, restaurant work, or other professions that minister to the needs of others.

Abundant Fire

Keywords: ardent, creative, intuitive, aspiring, enthusiastic, inspirational, impulsive, spirited, future-oriented, energetic, passionate, self-confident.

An abundance of fire in a chart correlates with the Jungian function of intuition. You are able to perceive, unconsciously or intuitively, what is possible or likely to occur as a situation unfolds. From the data that you gather, you generate abstract possibilities regarding future trends. You readily perceive the underlying meaning and motivation of other people's actions. A pioneering, enthusiastic and enterprising spirit accompanies this intuitive perceptiveness. Fire wants to shine, to inspire and uplift others, to convey hope and encouragement -- to make its mark on the world in a grand, exciting, and stimulating manner.

You are good at finding new ways to do things, and others look to your leadership in launching new projects. You love challenges, especially when they prompt you into energetic activity that promotes your own interests. You see things in broad perspective with an awareness of the future implications of current actions. Unless the element earth is strong in your chart, a certain impracticality is one of your shortcomings and you will need to work on taking proper care of your body and your material and financial concerns. There is some risk of jumping to conclusions rather than carefully weighing the facts to come to a conclusion.

Introverted intuitives direct their attention inward and are often regarded as eccentric dreamers. They gravitate toward careers that utilise their visionary, psychic, mystical, forecasting, or prophetic abilities.

Extraverted intuitives put their intuitive flashes of insight to more practical purposes. They pursue careers where they can act as creators, innovators, pioneers, inventors, promoters, speculators, adventurers, or revolutionaries. They thrive on novelty and excitement and tend to be weak at doing routine tasks and following through. Their highly developed "sixth sense" and accurate hunches can make them successful as leaders, motivators, entrepreneurs, or investors. They make quintessential power-politicians.

Many creative professionals are highly intuitive. Examples include writers, architects, research scientists, gifted teachers, theologians, artists, musicians, psychiatrists, and neurologists. An abundance of fire (intuition) has also been reported in the charts of Protestant clergy and indicates an energetic expression of their feelings and ideals.

Abundant Earth

Keywords: practical, concrete, empirical, tangible, sensible, down-to-earth, results-oriented, able to manage material and financial resources.

An abundance of earth in a chart correlates with the Jungian function of sensation. You readily become cognisant of empirical reality. You consciously perceive immediate data, facts, and situations. You are a careful, solid, and dependable person who pays close attention to details. There is usually a capacity to make objective evaluations, think critically, and analyse matters logically. You enjoy being regarded as a person of wisdom and authority. Others trust you to get the job done and view you as a person with good head on your shoulders.

Natal Horoscope Vocational Chart Interpretation for Michael Jackson

You tend to live in the present and to rely heavily on the information taken in by your five senses in a literal, concrete way. You make decisions only after doing your research and gathering all the facts. Your approach to life is practical, pragmatic, hard-nosed, and realistic. One of your strengths is a highly developed common sense, and you especially enjoy seeing tangible results of your activities. Some sensation types are quite sensual and even hedonistic.

The earth signs represent structure and material reality -- everything that is solid, tangible, and securely rooted. Your motto may well be, "I'll believe it when I see it," as you tend to be swayed only by hard, empirical evidence. You are drawn to a career in which you can use your body to manipulate physical reality in some way. You like to build, organise, structure, and bring projects to completion. You are good at carrying out plans in a sequential and orderly manner; and you generally prefer to work in a reliable, steady workplace setting. Others may see you as a hard-nosed realist who is interested in results that increase your sense of status and power. Some of your weaknesses may be a failure to pay sufficient attention to your intuition, a lack of enthusiasm (unless fire is strong), and an insufficient awareness of future trends.

Introverted sensation types are able to accumulate and store in their minds vast amounts of factual information. They may have a knack for meticulous scientific research. Introverted sensors enjoy doing manual tasks that produce some sense-related, material result (e.g., cooking, gardening, mechanics, carpentry, sculpting, painting, book writing, etc.). Their inner-directed sensual awareness is occasionally reflected in clairvoyant abilities. At times they are so inwardly directed that others regard them as passive, and they may also view themselves as passive victims of external forces.

Extraverted sensation types desire to sense, experience, and act upon their physical environment. They tend to be practical, to have good memories, and to do well with details. They like to use and enjoy their bodies and to manipulate the material world. Labourers, people who work with tools or materials, athletes, bankers, sales persons, marketers, business people, etc., are often among the group of extraverted sensors.

Abundant Mutable

Keywords: flexible, ingenious, resourceful, adaptable, intellectual, communicative

Many planets in mutable signs suggest a career that makes use of your mental agility, adaptability, dexterity, facility with words, and love of variety. You are probably a good communicator with a knack for establishing contacts with others. Your flexibility, diplomacy, and skill at objective evaluation are key assets. Believing that "variety is the spice of life," you sometimes "have too many irons in the fire."

Natal Horoscope Vocational Chart Interpretation for Michael Jackson

Abundant mutability is often found in the charts of writers, teachers, publishers, editors, communicators, inventors, and those who must use their linguistic abilities and intellectual talents as an essential part of their occupations. The physical agility and dexterity of mutable signs may indicate a talent for dance or other forms of bodily expressiveness.

Abundant Substance

Keywords: practical, resourceful, organised, managerial, hard-working, skilled, methodical, systematic, materialistic, worldly, status-conscious

Many planets in houses 2, 6, and 10 suggest a career that meets the need of achieving some type of respect or recognition for producing tangible and practical results, often involving some type of analytic ability or technical skill. There is frequently a desire to work with products or services in the material world, and there is often a knack for business or administration. You value stability and have a strong sense of duty and responsibility.

Abundant Cadent

Keywords: flexible, adaptable, transitional, mental, clever, assimilating, idea-oriented

A preponderance of planets in the cadent houses (3, 6, 9, and 12) suggests versatility, adaptability, and intellectual interests. You are likely to enjoy experimentation, study, new learning, and mental activity. There is often a talent for teaching or otherwise conveying ideas to others. You may also have an ability to manage and organise large amounts of data. An ideal career would satisfy your need for mental stimulation and continued learning throughout your life.

Some occupations associated with abundant cadency include scientist, researcher, bacteriologist, technical writer, computer programmer, data processor, teacher, counsellor, novelist, and editor.

Planets in Aspect

Introduction to Aspects

As mentioned in the Introduction, the planets signify fundamental urges, drives, or functions of the human personality. Astrologers have discovered that when planets either align (conjoin) or form certain configurations (angular patterns) with one another, a blending or combination of their energies occurs. These patterns are called "aspects" and are measured in terms of the angles formed by the planets.

The aspects are divided into major (0, 60, 90, 120, and 180 degrees) or minor (all other aspects, e.g., 30, 45, 72, 135, 144, 150 degrees, etc.). Major aspects are more evident and generally have a more profound effect on personality and vocation. The names of the aspects, according to the number of degrees between planets, are as follows. Major: 0 = conjunction, 60 = sextile, 90 = square, 120 = trine, and 180 = opposition. Minor: 30 = semi-sextile, 45 = semi-square, 72 = quintile, 135 = sesquiquadrate, 144 = biquintile, and 150 = inconjunct, or more properly the quincunx.

Aspects can be either easy or difficult. Of the major aspects, the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees) are considered easy or harmonious whereas the square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees) are considered difficult or stressful. The conjunction can be either easy or difficult depending on the nature of the planets involved. A planet involved in difficult aspects is considered "afflicted" since it carries some form of hardship through the difficult aspect.

In the next section, you will find a detailed description of the most significant aspects in your chart. At first reading, the large amount of material in this section may seem a bit overwhelming. Rather than get lost in the details, look for repeated themes that reinforce or clarify the earlier sections of this report.

The aspect descriptions below are arranged in order of "strength," which is a measure of whether the aspect is major (stronger) or minor (weaker) and how close the planets are to being at exactly the angle specified by the aspect. The closer the aspect is to exact, the stronger its influence is likely to be. However, if the planets involved in the aspect are strongly emphasised in your chart, then even a weak aspect between them can be quite significant.

Saturn conjunct Midheaven (Strength: 8.21)

Saturn conjunct the Midheaven places a strong emphasis on careers denoted by the signs Capricorn and Aquarius and by the planet Saturn. Saturn, the outermost visible planet, is the great teacher, tester, and disciplinarian. Saturn limits, concentrates, hardens, crystallises, and values hard facts and empirical understanding. A strong Saturn suggests a career that calls for ambition, discipline, patience, endurance, hard work, intense concentration, persistence, organisation, and clear thinking. The Gauquelin research found that Saturn was prominent in the charts of doctors and scientists, but was weakly placed among actors, journalists, writers, and painters of fine art. Those with a strong Saturn often have a capacity for studies of a profound and serious nature.

A prominent Saturn is common in charts of people who lay foundations, establish structures, run businesses, or occupy positions of responsibility and authority. Typical Saturn careers include administrator, manager, executive, politician, civil servant, government worker, producer, judge, teacher, trainer, archaeologist, geologist, efficiency expert, historian, scientist, mathematician, physicist, metaphysician, agriculturist, farmer, or gardener. Saturn's penchant for building and working with material reality can lead to work as a contractor, builder, mason, bricklayer, plumber, realtor, or landscaper. Saturn rules the teeth, bones, knees, and skin of humans and the hides of animals, and is prominent in charts of dermatologists, dentists, orthopaedists, chiropractors, shoemakers, leather merchants, and so on.

The 10th House, which is linked to Saturn, governs career, prestige, vocation, honour, reputation, status, authority, government, office, dignity, preferment, any place of command or trust, rulers, presidents, bosses, and people in charge. Typical occupations include administrator, governor, politician, CEO, executive, manager, supervisor, and employer. People with a strong 10th house often devote themselves to one of the traditional professions (doctor, lawyer, etc.) both for the status of their title and the ability to be their own boss.

The 11th House, which is also linked to Saturn, rules hopes, wishes, the love and concord of friends and acquaintances, group associations, impartial advice or counsel, objective reasoning, humanitarian concerns, and activities done to better the world or help those who are disadvantaged or less fortunate. People with an active 11th house are often drawn to fields like psychiatry, social work, counselling, advising, scientific work, or work in clubs or organisations.

Venus trine Saturn (Strength: 5.84)

Venus/Saturn aspects suggest that you are serious, idealistic, and willing to make sacrifices for what you desire. You have a strong sense of duty, and you are happiest when meeting your responsibilities. Astrologer Charles Carter described these as aspects of "spiritual beauty, born of material hardship and the absence of the ordinary pleasures of life." The discipline of Saturn combines with the grace of Venus to confer a sense of balance and harmony, an ability to adjust relationships, and often artistic or musical ability. This aspect is common in the charts of musicians, attorneys, counsellors, advisors, and therapists.

Moon square Saturn (Strength: 4.31)

Moon/Saturn contacts suggest shyness or timidity, a lack of appropriate assertiveness, and a tendency toward depression -- often related to some difficulty or lack in your early maternal experiences. You need to develop a healthy sense of self-esteem to succeed in the workplace. Some with this aspect find that psychotherapy helps them to feel better about themselves and to learn healthier ways to express their needs and desires to other people. Occupationally a talent for building or construction is often present.

Sun conjunct Pluto (Strength: 3.58)

The Sun aspecting Pluto indicates great emotional intensity, the courage of your convictions, and the determination to succeed or assume a position of authority. Pluto is lord of the underworld, and the life becomes a series of deaths and rebirths, at least on a psychological level. Your sense of identity is closely linked to a need for power and control. This is a powerful aspect because it links your sense of self, represented by the Sun, with Pluto's capacity for both radical transformation and massive destruction. Your work may involve you with matters related to birth, death, sex, power, control, elimination, or rejuvenation. You have a unique capacity to get to the root of things, and you could do well as a researcher, counsellor, or psychotherapist. An interest in medicine or healing is common. Psychic ability is commonly indicated.

In the work arena, you must come to terms with a tendency to get into power struggles or angry confrontations with co-workers or with those in authority. If you assume a supervisory position, you must learn to relate to others without being excessively demanding, jealous, biased, or dictatorial. Many with this aspect are drawn to working with crisis situations that bring them into contact with danger and the darker side of human nature (e.g., police work, criminology, psychology, psychiatry, etc.). A talent for managing other people's money or resources is common. You could also do well in work that involves any type of in-depth investigation. There is often an interest in science and in understanding atomic power and the workings of the universe. In afflicted charts, this can indicate an almost fanatical desire to have others do your bidding. It can also represent an over-reliance on symbolic or actual sexual prowess to shore up your self-esteem. This aspect sometimes reflects emotional vulnerability and childhood insecurities that result in aggressive, paranoid, or antisocial behaviour.

Venus trine Midheaven (Strength: 3.55)

Venus closely aspecting the Midheaven suggests that your tact, refinement, culture, gentility, and good taste are reflected in vocational matters. You are likely to be popular and may pursue a type of work that appeals to public tastes. This is sometimes an indication of artistic, musical, poetic, or other creative talent. Through its rulership of Libra, Venus may point to a career involving diplomacy, politics, the law, arbitration, mediation, consulting, counselling, psychology, partnerships, contracts, public relations, art, fashion, design, or decorating. Many with this aspect provide some type of expert service to clients on a one-to-one basis. You are able to see all sides of an issue, negotiate differences, and come to a reasonable compromise. Through its rulership of Taurus, Venus may suggest an occupation related to the beauty or fashion industry, luxury goods, financial management, career counselling, program development, farming, building, or work dedicated to helping people develop their human potentials.

Moon sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Strength: 3.26)

Moon/Jupiter aspects indicate a person who is good-humoured, kindly, sensitive, compassionate, and generous. Your natural friendliness and personal appeal make you a good salesperson. Good business sense is common. There is often restlessness, a liking for change and travel, and a fondness for ease and comfort. You tend to be very imaginative and may enjoy fiction, literature, or philosophical speculation. Others appreciate your ability to spin a good yarn. Difficulties can arise through self-indulgence, and special care should be taken to use alcohol or drugs only in moderation. Although you are likely to come in contact with the wealthy, you may be impractical or imprudent about personal spending and other financial matters.

Mercury sextile North Node (Strength: 3.21)

You enjoy communicating with people and may have a talent for writing, journalism, lecturing, teaching, computers, programming, or any Mercury-ruled pursuit. This aspect is common in the charts of essayists, critics, editors, and others who love books and learning. Your work may also involve travel, movement, agility, manual dexterity, sales, commerce, frequent talking on the telephone, or being constantly on the go. Through Mercury's rulership of Virgo, this aspect can indicate an interest in health care or any of the various types of therapeutic endeavours.

Saturn semi-square Neptune (Strength: 2.86)

Saturn aspecting Neptune indicates much idealism and a capacity for hard work. It may reflect a talent for music, singing, mathematics, or any activity that requires precise timing, rhythm, and order. You value artistic creations and may work to preserve them for future generations. There is sometimes great ambition, a desire to assume a position of authority or leadership, and a sense of fulfilling a special role in society. An interest in medicine, nursing, psychology, psychiatry, scientific or medical research, or fields related to human health and welfare is common. Your career may involve Neptunian matters related to art, drama, stage, film, photography, fashion, design, illusion, magic, oil, gas, chemicals, or the sea. You probably like animals and may be involved in activities such as horseback riding or veterinary medicine.

Stressful Saturn/Neptune aspects can indicate feelings of isolation, disappointment, suspicion, dissatisfaction, or even paranoia. If these planets contact personal points in your chart (e.g., Sun, Moon, Venus, Mars, Ascendant), you may have suffered experiences in childhood that left you feeling guilty, inferior, distrustful of authority, and prone to blaming other people for your difficulties. Unless you deal with these emotional issues, there is a risk of escapism, intolerance, bigotry, or the misuse of drugs or alcohol.

Moon square Midheaven (Strength: 2.71)

With the Moon closely aspecting the Midheaven, you feel a need to make emotional contact with others or to meet some public need as part of your career. You are likely to be popular and may achieve public recognition. Your ability to comprehend other people's feelings can lead to success in fields as varied as politics, psychotherapy, nursing, social work, education, catering, acting, entertaining, popular writing, sales, and public relations. Your empathic and intuitive understanding can make you a fine counsellor, healer, psychologist, teacher, psychic, or astrologer. The Moon is also connected with food and drink, shelter, nurturing, cooking, farming, gardening, milk products, shopkeeping, domestic services, real estate, the land, property, travel, and goods or services that appeal especially to women. You have a good sense of humour and may even have comedic talent. An appreciation of music is also common.

The Gauquelin research found that a prominent Moon was frequent in the charts of authors and politicians but was uncommon in the charts of sports champions. Through its rulership of the sign Cancer, the Moon may indicate a career that caters to public tastes or provides domestic products or services. Through its connection with the Fourth House, the Moon can indicate an interest in meteorology, geology, archaeology, ecology, and the study of the earth. You appreciate the value of laying firm foundations and have a strong sense of family, history, and tradition. Whatever work you do, you are likely to find yourself taking care of others or looking after someone or something.

Mercury square Mars (Strength: 2.66)

The forceful nature of Mars energises the communicative and mental capacities of Mercury, making you courageous and outspoken, but at times a bit combative and rash. There is often a love of reading, a talent for self-expression and oratory, and a capacity for teaching. You excel in strategic thinking and can outwit your opponent on any battlefield. Your incisive mind readily perceives the faults in your adversary's position and plans the most effective offence. You are able to grasp the overall flow and the interactions among the various elements of a developing situation. Most likely you have good manual dexterity and mechanical ability, and you can do well at tasks requiring the skilful use of your hands. An aptitude for engineering may be present. Your quickness and agility may translate into athletic talent.

Mercury/Mars loves a good fight. You can excel at any career that involves debate, dispute, competition, conflict, or rapid motion. These aspects are common in charts of military leaders, generals, politicians, polemic writers, orators, financiers, entrepreneurs, reformers, race car drivers, and engineers. Since Mercury rules transport, there may be an interest in transportation, travel, or locomotion. The stressful aspects warn of an irritable and self-opinionated disposition, a sharp tongue, and tactless speech that can provoke the opposition of others. You must think before you speak and avoid jumping to conclusions.

Moon conjunct Ascendant (Strength: 2.50)

The Moon is the Cosmic Mother who is intuitively aware of the needs of her children and seeks to nourish and nurture them. She is linked to the ocean tides, travel, and cyclical changes. A prominent Moon is common in the charts of writers, politicians, and others whose work requires an ability to adapt to or influence the moods and tastes of the public. This is common in charts of those who perform before an audience. You are likely to be sociable, tolerant, flexible, gentle, imaginative, and good-humoured. Friends and family are important to your sense of personal identity and self-worth. There is often an interest in domestic matters, real estate, and in careers related to caring for the needs of others (e.g., nursing, the hotel business, the culinary arts, etc.). You are somewhat of a dreamer who is easily distracted and perhaps a bit absent-minded. Unless Earth is strong in your chart, you tend to avoid work that requires meticulous attention to detail. Negatively, a strong Moon can indicate laziness, irresolution, fickleness, and self-indulgence.

Venus conjunct Uranus (Strength: 2.42)

Venus aspecting Uranus increases your sensitivity and love of beauty. There is often an unusual, even eccentric, cast to your affections and emotional life. Your originality, inventiveness, and non-traditional interests are an important aspect of your work. There may be an interest in New Age topics or alternative methods of counselling or therapy. You are likely to be popular, witty, humorous, romantic, charming, but a bit excitable and restless. There is often a talent for the arts, music, literature, the theatre, and the entertainment industry. If Mars is strong, you could do well working with metals in some way. There is a potential risk of sudden romantic attachments and break-ups that can distract you from your career path. If this conjunction forms stressful aspects, you may be prone to take foolish risks that can result in accidents or other mishaps.

Moon inconjunct Venus (Strength: 2.26)

Moon/Venus contacts indicate popularity, optimism, refinement, and elegance. They lend balance, steadiness, and perspective to your thinking. Your ability to remain calm and collected under pressure can lead to success as a politician, military leader, statesman, filmmaker, entertainer, or athlete. You do well in adversarial or competitive situations because you keep your cool and are able to make the right move at the right time. Your sense of balance, form, and harmony favours any kind of musical or artistic pursuit. You have a knack for perceiving inter-relationships and abstract connections, which may lead to an interest in mathematics, physics, philosophy, musical composition, chess, or similar intellectual pursuits. There is often considerable literary talent. Stressful Moon/Venus aspects suggest that you may suffer through your affections or have unfortunate experiences in associations and partnerships. You may also have a tendency to deal with stress by escaping into self-indulgent behaviours.

Jupiter conjunct Neptune (Strength: 1.96)

Jupiter conjunct Neptune increases your intuition, idealism, and creative imagination. There is often an interest in art, music, poetry, literature, creative writing, photography, illusion, film, acting, magic, metaphysics, religious life, and spiritual or mystical experiences. You may work in fields related to healing, medicine, nursing, psychology, mental health, or aiding the disadvantaged or oppressed members of society. Psychic ability is common and may be helpful in making investments or other speculative ventures. A fondness for the ocean and things of the sea is common. Your work may involve paints, oils, gases, chemicals, alcohol, narcotics, drugs, medicines, or anything related to the feet. This aspect is often associated with financial success and material comfort. In afflicted charts, however, it can manifest as gambling, risk-taking, escapism, self-destructive tendencies, or the use of addictive or mind-altering substances.

Sun sextile Neptune (Strength: 1.81)

Sun/Neptune aspects indicate an idealistic, visionary, sympathetic, and kindly nature. You are sensitive and compassionate, and open to impressions from intangible levels of reality. There is concern for the plight of others and a desire to be of assistance that can lead to a career in medicine, psychology, or another of the helping professions. Occupations involving education, service, charity, welfare, or social programs that foster the public good are not uncommon. A fondness for animals is often present. You have an active imagination and may have a talent for creative writing, poetry, photography, film, music, dance, drama, acting, or for other forms of artistic expression.

Some with this aspect are highly intuitive and evidence a strong interest in psychology, dreams, the unconscious, mysticism, theology, astrology, prediction, divination, spirituality, psychic phenomena, reincarnation, or the occult. There is often a fondness for swimming, sailing, and other activities related to large bodies of water or the sea.

Moon sesquiquadrate Neptune (Strength: 1.64)

Moon/Neptune contacts increase your emotional sensitivity and may indicate musical or artistic talent. There is often an interest in the hidden aspects of reality, divination, spiritual matters, healing, alternative medicine, psychology, social work, and the underlying or unconscious motivations of human beings. This aspect is common, for example, in the charts of psychiatrists and their patients. Your easy-going personality conceals a burning ambition to achieve something great or outstanding. You will need regular periods of respite, solitude, or meditation to regroup your forces as you seek to make your mark on the world. There may be a talent for film, acting, dance, fashion, sculpting, design, food preparation, speculative investing, legal or political strategizing, theoretical speculation, or other creative endeavours. A fondness for travel abroad is often present.

Stressful Moon/Neptune contacts indicate a tendency toward gullibility, discontent, disillusion, excessive perfectionism, intrigue, abuse of substances, or involvement in scandal. There is some risk of deception with this aspect, and you should avoid any kind of dishonest or shady dealings. You are prone to play the martyr in close relationships; often sacrificing your own legitimate needs simply to maintain an unhealthy relationship. In extreme cases, there is a tendency to engage in fanciful and impractical thinking that borders on self-delusion.

Neptune semi-square Midheaven (Strength: 1.06)

Neptune closely aspecting the Midheaven gives an ability to create an illusion and may reflect a gift for artistic, musical, poetic, or imaginative expression. Your career might involve creative writing, painting, sketching, musical performance or composition, dance, acting, glamour, fashion, design, filmmaking, scientific theorising, or other creative forms of artistic or intellectual activity. Neptune is connected with oil, gas, liquids, chemicals, drugs, alcohol, narcotics, anaesthetics, pharmaceuticals, travel over long distances, and matters connected with the use of water or with the sea. A fascination with precipitation, weather forecasting, or meteorology is not uncommon. There is often a concern for the welfare of children and a desire to render service to better the lot of humankind.

Your intuition is highly developed and can lead to success at investing, the stock market, politics, or other fields that make use of accurate hunches and good timing. Many with this position prefer to work quietly, in solitude or behind the scenes, often in occupations related to healing, mental health, medical or scientific research, alternative medicine, charitable giving, hospital or prison work, or various types of religious or spiritual endeavours. An interest in dreams, meditation, psychology, the unconscious, mystery, magic, mythology, astrology, intuition, creative visualisation, divination, and occult subjects is common. A fondness for large animals may be present.

This aspect occurs frequently in the charts of musicians, painters, actors, directors, and illustrators. It is also common among psychiatrists, psychologists, nurses, social workers, veterinarians, astrologers, metaphysical counsellors, religious workers, and others whose work calls for caring, compassion, and creativity. Some with this position prefer to work in libraries, universities, or other large institutions. This aspect is also found in the charts of saints and martyrs, and others who gain recognition through sacrifice or victimisation.

Venus square Mars (Strength: 1.00)

Venus/Mars aspects often indicate an attractive physical appearance and a fondness for exercise and keeping in shape. You may be able to use your good looks, charm, and sex appeal to further your career. There is often an enjoyment of music and dance, and a fondness for directing one's physical energy into artistic endeavours. The energy of this aspect can be directed constructively into sports and athletic achievement.

The square inclines toward dissatisfaction with oneself, often stemming from an inharmonious family life in which you felt deprived of adequate affection. There is a tendency to be overly critical and to expect too much from other people. You need to avoid excessive worry, abuse of drugs or alcohol, and other forms of self-indulgence.

THE SATURN CYCLE: YOUR CAREER PEAKS AND VALLEYS

Our careers undergo cyclic changes that parallel the movement of Saturn through the birth chart. The 29-1/2 year Saturn cycle can be divided into four 7-1/3-year quarter cycles. As Saturn crosses the IC at the bottom of the chart, we begin to ride the wave upward from a period of subjective preoccupation and worldly obscurity to a new cycle of vocational growth. During the first and second quarters, which last just under 15 years, we establish, build, and develop our new career directions. When Saturn then crosses the MC at the top of the chart, we reach a career peak and consolidate our gains. We are now on the downward slope of the wave (the third and fourth quarters of this Saturn cycle). About seven years after Saturn conjoins the MC, we go through another period of intense vocational activity, just as Saturn is crossing into the final quarter, which is a seven-year stretch of relative obscurity, inner reflection and reassessment. We then start a new 29-1/2 year career cycle as Saturn again crosses the IC. The section below gives specific details based on a horoscope cast for your date, time, and place of birth.

In 1940, Grant Lewi published his groundbreaking analysis of Saturn's influence on career. Saturn takes about 29-1/2 years to complete a journey around the zodiac. During the time when Saturn crosses the 4th house cusp or IC (the "bottommost" or "darkest" point in the horoscope), Lewi noted that people "either fade completely from the picture, or take a new start in life, depending on their age and other considerations" in the chart. This is similar to a New Moon, a time of darkness and new beginnings.

During the period from 1970 to 2050 covered in this report, the approximate dates of Saturn's passage through GEMINI are JUNE 1971 - APRIL 1974, then AUGUST 2000 - JUNE 2003, and finally JUNE 2030 - JULY 2032. At some point during these years Saturn will cross your IC, marking the end stages of a period of vocational obscurity. Saturn's passage through the sign at the bottom of your chart SIGNALS A NEW BEGINNING OR A CHANGE OF DIRECTION IN YOUR CAREER.

Astrologer Don Jacobs further elaborated Lewi's findings. According to Jacobs, the first quarter cycle (the 7-1/3-years when Saturn is travelling through roughly the fourth, fifth, and sixth houses as it approaches a square to the Midheaven) is a time of career "building." During this first phase we are establishing a new career or laying the foundations for a new direction in our current occupation. Jacobs calls the second quarter cycle (the next 7-1/3-years, beginning when Saturn squares the Midheaven to transit roughly the seventh, eighth and ninth houses) the period of "triumph" when the efforts of the period of building are starting to pay off.

About 14 1/2 years after crossing the IC or fourth house cusp, Saturn reaches the Midheaven, the "highest" and "brightest" point of the horoscope. This is similar to a Full Moon and marks a peak in our career development. IN YOUR CHART, A CAREER PEAK WILL OCCUR WHEN SATURN PASSES THROUGH SAGITTARIUS, the sign on your Midheaven. During the period from 1970 to 2050 covered in this report, the approximate dates of Saturn's passage through Sagittarius are NOVEMBER 1985 - NOVEMBER 1988, then SEPTEMBER 2015 - DECEMBER 2017, and finally NOVEMBER 2044 - OCTOBER 2047. These years are a time of achievement, accomplishment, harvest, recognition, and the assumption of new responsibilities. You reap the rewards of all the work you have done for the past fourteen years. However, if you have cut corners or prepared badly, the time has now come to pay the piper.

After passing the Midheaven, Saturn goes through a roughly 7-1/3-year period when it transits the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth houses (the third quarter cycle) as it approaches a square to the Midheaven. Jacobs calls this the period of "coasting" when we enjoy the fruits of our career success at the Midheaven. The final 7-1/3-year period commences with Saturn's square to the Midheaven and continues as it transits the first, second, and third houses. Jacobs calls this the period of "obscurity" when we become self-absorbed and directed inward, contemplating our lives and thinking about future possibilities. This subjective, inner period ends when Saturn again crosses the IC and begins a new cycle.

Prominent Chart Factors

THE MOST ACTIVE PLANETS, SIGNS, & HOUSES

The following section lists the most prominent or active planets, points (Ascendant and Midheaven), signs, and houses in your horoscope. Because the houses are determined by the exact time of birth, dominant houses are not calculated for charts with unknown birth times. You naturally tend to express the energy and symbolism of these planets, signs, and houses in most aspects of your life, including your vocation. The rating system used here is based on the number and closeness of the aspects formed by each of the planets and points.

The dominant planets and points (Ascendant, Midheaven) reveal your basic drives and natural aptitudes that can be developed for their career potential. Below are descriptions of the planets and points that are most active in your horoscope.

Saturn Dominant (Strength: 49.15)

Your self-discipline, sense of responsibility, and understanding of natural boundaries and limits make you a natural for any type of work requiring method, organisation, orderly procedures, attention to detail, and systematic thinking. You are ambitious, hardworking, and you excel at strategic thinking. Saturn confers a talent for the prudent and economical use of time and money. You probably have a good head for business, and you might be interested in finance, banking, or accounting.

You are very organised and could also do well in administration or management. Saturn, the cosmic teacher and taskmaster, symbolises structure, durability, foundations, natural laws, discipline, and physical reality. Saturn is often strong in charts of engineers, mathematicians, dentists, skin and bone specialists, managers, economists, teachers, builders, land developers, construction workers, and those who work in real estate. The Gauquelin research found Saturn prominent in the charts of physicians and scientists.

If Saturn is involved in many stressful aspects, you may be too serious, apprehensive, security-conscious, dutiful, guilty, or inhibited for your own good. Remember that all work and no play makes Jill a dull girl and Jack a dull boy, and makes them lonely as well.

Moon Dominant (Strength: 35.10)

The Moon symbolises emotions, moods, and instinctive behaviours. You are likely to be highly intuitive, nurturing, caring, empathic, and sensitive to public moods and tastes. You have a strong appreciation of history and of the influence of the past on present and future behaviour. You value tradition and may wish to preserve historical treasures for future generations. You also enjoy working with people and could do well in fields that take care of the emotional, physical, or developmental needs of others. You have an intuitive feel for what the public needs or desires.

Teachers, nurses, cooks, midwives, counsellors, psychologists, social workers, environmentalists, preservationists, market researchers, healers, psychotherapists, veterinarians, physicians, and personnel workers often have a prominent Moon in their charts. Musical interest and/or ability are frequent. The Moon is connected to the tides and the seas, and you might be interested in a career in the navy or the maritime trades. An active Moon also suggests a fondness for travel and communication. It is also common in the charts of those who deal with the public or whose work appeals especially to women. The Gauquelin research found a strong Moon in charts of politicians and successful writers.

If the Moon forms many stressful aspects, you may suffer from a fear of competition and a tendency toward shyness or emotional dependency. To achieve success, you may need to master an inclination to be overly sensitive to the moods and feelings of others.

Midheaven Dominant (Strength: 33.14)

The Midheaven, the highest point in your astrological chart, symbolises your standing before the world. A strong Midheaven emphasises a need for status, honour, prestige, recognition, and worldly success. You place a high value on your reputation. Many with this position do well in careers that bring them regularly before the public, often in a position of influence or authority. You probably have a talent for leadership, management and organisation, and you are not at all averse to working hard to achieve your ambitions. You don't mind taking command and assuming responsibility. In fact, you like being in control and getting the job done. You may find yourself employed in government, politics, education, business, or one of the professions, typically in an administrative or supervisory position. With such an active Midheaven, you should pay special attention to the vocational implications of the sign ruling your 10th house of career.

THE MOST ACTIVE SIGNS

The signs of the zodiac indicate basic motivations, preferences, attitudes, and reaction patterns. Below is a list of the most active signs in your horoscope in descending order of their dominance in your chart.

Virgo Dominant (Strength: 271.88)

Key Phrases: I analyse, I serve, I examine, I categorise, I discriminate

Virgo tends to be helpful, modest, prudent, analytical, verbal, diligent, fastidious, critical, discerning, service-oriented, and perfectionistic. Individuals with a strong Virgo need to be of service. They make excellent educators, teachers, trainers, writers, researchers, investigators, computer programmers, doctors, nurses, therapists, healers, and health care providers. They also do so well at other forms of service, such as the armed forces, police work, firefighting, civil service, repair work, food services, car mechanics, service technicians, and so on. Virgo's industrious, discriminating, and exacting nature makes them naturals for any kind of systematic, detailed, or methodical work, but also gives a tendency to worry and fuss. They value a job well done and excel at figuring out problems and coming up with creative solutions.

Virgo's ruler is the mental planet Mercury, which confers excellent reasoning ability, manual dexterity, verbal skill, and communicative ability. Since Virgo is an earth sign, people with an active Virgo tend to be practical, efficient, realistic, no-nonsense, grounded, discriminating, organised, and task-oriented. They are hard workers who get things done, but they are often too shy to take credit for their work, preferring to be second-in-command or the power behind the throne. Typical Virgo occupations include secretary, office manager, dietician, veterinarian, psychiatrist, acupuncturist, analyst, chemist, pharmacist, laboratory worker, carpenter, copy editor, critic, auditor, statistician, mathematician, efficiency expert, bookkeeper, librarian, aide, mental health worker, special education teacher, technician, computer consultant, waiter, dietician, inspector, attendant, and repair or maintenance person.

Leo Dominant (Strength: 155.05)

Key Phrases: I will, I create, I command, I entertain, I shine

Leo, the Lion, is proud, creative, energetic, self-assured, ambitious, regal, commanding, generous, and warm-hearted, but at times a bit narcissistic, self-centred, bossy, and overbearing. The Sun, which governs Leo, is the life force and centre of our solar system. Individuals with Leo prominent have a natural sense of drama and enjoy entertaining or displaying their talents and wears before others. Leo knows how to put on a good show. The energy and exuberance of Leo often expresses itself in the performing arts, acting, directing, dance, fashion, film, athletics, recreation, or sexual activity. Leo has good organisational skills and is drawn to positions of leadership and authority (e.g., politician, teacher, physician, manager, business executive, director, chief of staff, team leader, and military officer).

With Leo active in your chart, you may feel attracted to careers with an element of risk, competition, and adventure such as sports, speculative investing, gambling, or stock trading. Leo is the lion king of the jungle, and you may enjoy running the show from your seat at the throne. Leos believe they deserve the best and enjoy elegant surroundings. A fondness for work with children is common. You do your best in a career that allows you to be emotionally involved in your work. Typical Leo occupations include entertainer, director, art dealer, publicist, promoter, spokesperson, banker, educator, park ranger, resort manager, developer, stockbroker, media personality, comedian, professional athlete, disc jockey, jeweller, artist, beautician, cosmetologist, marketer, investor, and entrepreneur.

Sagittarius Dominant (Strength: 143.84)

Key Phrases: I understand, I enlighten, I aspire

Sagittarius, the Archer, is straightforward, freewheeling, fun loving, expansive, optimistic, visionary, intellectual, self-indulgent, and philosophical. Individuals with a prominent Sagittarius like to expand their horizons, often through frequent changes, travel, education, the exploration of ideas, interactions with others, and contacts with foreign countries or with people of different backgrounds. They enjoy variety, value their freedom, and may have difficulty committing to a single person or to a steady routine. There is often a wanderlust that accompanies their desire not to be confined or fenced in. Jupiter, Sagittarius' ruling planet, confers general good luck and an ability to foresee future trends.

Sagittarian persons are able to abstract from a situation, take a broad view, and see the larger perspective, but they may be weak on working with the details. They commonly enjoy challenge, adventure, exploration, learning, variety, and risk-taking. They also enjoy competitive sports, physical activity, amorous adventures, and speculative endeavours. There is typically an interest in religion, spirituality, higher education, philosophy, languages, publishing, broadcasting, and similar endeavours. Sagittarius has an ability to inspire or uplift others, which can make them excellent teachers, ministers, or promoters of ideas. They do well selling to others whatever they believe in.

Typical Sagittarian careers include priest, evangelist, teacher, lawyer, judge, professor, academic, travel agent, importer/exporter, naval officer, pilot, linguist, author, publisher, ambassador, broadcaster, marketer, city planner, publicist, promoter, athlete, horse trainer, fire-fighter, theologian, philosopher, and spiritualist.

THE MOST ACTIVE HOUSES

The dominant houses in your horoscope reveal the environments that have special importance for you and the areas of life to which you devote most of your energy. Below is a list of the most active houses in your horoscope in descending order of their dominance in your chart.

Sixth House Dominant (Strength: 277.42)

Much of your energy goes into rendering some type of service that benefits others. You excel at work that requires precision, efficiency, and attention to detail. There is commonly an interest in health care, hygiene, fitness, nutrition, medicines, therapy, counselling, teaching, training, or providing basic needs. You are likely to enjoy arts and crafts and may have a special fondness for taking care of animals. Clerical and computer-related skills are often present, and your work may involve continued learning, writing, reading, or the storage, classification, and retrieval of information. You do especially well at analysing problems in detail to come up with creative solutions that make things function even better.

Seventh House Dominant (Strength: 149.51)

You do well in work that requires direct contact with the public, often by providing some type of consultation, service, product, or expertise to customers or clients. Because the seventh house represents contractual relationships, your energy may be devoted to resolving conflicts, perhaps in a counselling, mediating, or legal capacity. Partnerships play an important role in your life. You could do well in work that brings people together or helps them to communicate better. Attorneys, politicians, entertainers, artists, counsellors, teachers, consultants, and popular writers often have a strong seventh house.

Natal Horoscope Vocational Chart Interpretation for Michael Jackson*Eighth House Dominant (Strength: 126.13)

Much of your energy goes toward investigating, researching, and revealing matters that are mysterious, secret, or concealed. You gravitate toward fields related to power, money, coercion, control, hidden motivations, sexuality, depth psychology, the use of force, and human mortality. You like to study matters in depth to get to the root cause of problems that are facing you or others. There may be a special talent for managing other people's money, welfare, and possessions. Successful bankers, accountants, auditors, investors, and tax advisors often have a strong eighth house. You are highly intuitive and may even have psychic ability. You especially enjoy bringing hidden or occult matters to light. An interest in healing and transformation is also common. Powerful athletes often have a strong eighth house.
